Dear Mr. Hucko:

My entire family were delighted with the decorating changes and the excellent cuisine of the Navarre on our recent visit to Denver. We have been frequent visitors to the Navarre in the past years and are most pleased to have your excellent facilities open to the public. You may be assured that we will visit you often.

My two teenage daughters were particularly impressed with the atmosphere and the changes made and my youngest daughter brought a souvenir menu home with her so that she could "show off" her French prowess in her French class. The wine was excellent and we are deeply appreciative.

May my wife and I also compliment you on your performance at the luncheon session of the Western Republican Regional Meeting held in Denver? We had not had an opportunity to hear you play at the Navarre and so we were especially pleased to hear you at the luncheon.

Sincerely,

Stan Hathaway
