Dear Louise:

My wife and I want to extend to you and your family our sincere sympathy on the passing of Peanuts. You and he were, indeed, a devoted couple for a long, long time.

My wife and I became acquainted with both of you in the late 1960s when you and Peanut were running the old Navarre. We would frequently go to hear you with Governor John Love and his wife, Ann, who were long-time friends of ours. We enjoyed your music very much and enjoyed even more becoming friends with you and Peanuts.

I got your address from the young lady who wrote the obituary in the Rocky Mountain News. It was a nice obituary, but I like your comment most of all. I'm sure he was a "musical genius," but even more than that, he was a "good man." His passing brought back many memories, Dick Gibson's annual jazz party and, of course, the legendary old Navarre, and the two of you!

God bless.
