New Association Organized For E. T.

Forward Stringer Lands First Team Berth

POOR RICHARD'S PHILOSOPHY

Another term has started. Now don't be broken-hearted. You may not like the courses here. Or maybe it's the Profs (the dears). That course you busted; we're sorry too. But then you musn't feel so blue. And even though it was a link. You can double up this term, I think. Boys, Howdy! Step right up and call me speedy. How you like the opening? Warm to say the least. That's all right, don't praise it; I know it's good.

By the way, that last term was a whiz, eh what? If you were as busy as I was the last two weeks of this last term you know how many resolutions I have made about note-books and such for the opening term. In fact I have started to work on one of mine already.

All you new students! We're glad to see you, hope you like us—and we like you. If there is anything you don't feel sure about, ask Yancy Goff, Dick of Pharmacy fame, or Noble Arthur, if you can catch him around the campus. I won't advise asking him when he is in the Pharmacy. He has a dignity that he must uphold and talking to the plebes would injure his standing in the social realm of Campus Etiquette.

I think most every one took a trip this past week-end. I know I did and liked it, and how!

I wonder why everyone is coming back with such a silly, guilty-looking grin on their faces. Business must be getting good down in their neck of the woods and their constitutions can't stand it. I was standing over in Mr. Smith's office watching some of the new students paying off Monday and one fellow came in with a resolute look of defiance and on walking up to the window he inquired as to the cost of matriculation: "Fourteen dollars" was the reply. A rather surprised look overcame the former look of defiance and with what seemed to me a snort, he said, "Gimme two." I am glad to see prosperity about to overtake us; I should say we need it.

I am not sure how these lines are running. I have left the door to the office open and there is a continual flow of new students up and down the hall in front of my door. Today looks more like mothers and dads' day than the first day of school. I didn't know we had so many helpless students here in school. Mother and Dad may be going to stay all this next term to care for their daughters and sons, I don't know what will become of them, if they don't. Some as likely to city-slick them as not and then where will we be? Why right back where we started, the mothers and fathers will back with us.

A screeching voice has passed away and from our midst, she's gone to stay.

But then I'm sure you've heard that song; It ends with, 'But the melody lingers

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED LAST WEEK WITH OVER 600

About 600 girls interested in developing better ways to spend their leisure time met last week and organized a Women's Athletic Association. All women students enrolled in the College who have a C average may become active members—dues are covered by the blanket tax. The aim of the Association is to create interest and enthusiasm in all phases of health and education, especially outdoor sports and games—as means of recreation and of securing physical, moral and social development. It has committees and clubs sponsoring almost every sport and activity as hiking and picnicing, tennis, skating, swimming. Active members will keep a daily record of every practice and receive points toward Association award. But any student may take part in any of the hikes, picnics, parties put on and you boys might as well show some interest for we're going to have some all-school parties and play nights.

Nearly every college in the country has an active W. A. A. and we have needed one a long time but the fact that we're slow starting isn't a sign that we're going to do slow work. We're going in full force and make up for the time we've lost. The following officers were elected:

- President—Margaret Klein.
- Vice President and Publicity chairman—Vonda Roach.
- Secretary—Dorothy Sayle
- Treasurer—Addylene Fain.
- Tennis Chairman—Alta Clark.
- Hiking Chairman—Lily Shuler.
- Swimming—Cleone Oney.
- Skating—Henrietta Bean.
- Dancing—Ilma Drake
- Horseshoe Pitching—Maurine Lowrey
- Croquet—Norine Ingle
- Golf—Carolyn Flowers
- Rowing Rowena McCombs
- Basketball—Mary Kennington
- Field Hockey—Maudie Stone
- Track and Field—Margaret Kantz
- Playground Baseball—Hazel Gibson
- Volley ball—Pauline Julian
- Bicycling—Lela Gaskins
- Horseback Riding—to be elected.
- Archery—to be elected.

POETRY CONTEST DELAYED WEEK

Since the next to the last week in the winter term a single poem has been turned in to be entered in the East Texan prize poetry contest.

We have received only a few poems for entrance, in fact, not enough poems to warrant a contest. Some of the poems we have received are extremely good, both in thought and rhyme scheme; however, some poems have been discarded due to the fact that they would not merit publication.

If you want to enter the contest—its not too late. Turn your poem in by Monday of next week and it will be eligible for entrance.

The above lines are dedicated to the little girl who was forever darting, darting thither and yon. Could there be any one who does not remember? By the way; that's good poetry, too.

Everyone conducted themselves in a very studious manner that deserves mention and consequently none gets panned to start the term with. You all have a clean slate but watch out for the headless horseman. He may be watching you.

LONE STAR CIRCUIT TO HAVE 6 CLUBS

The Lone Star League will be a six-club circuit this year, composed of Tyler, Corsicana, Palestine, Mexia, Texarkana and Paris, it was decided at a meeting of club owners held in Dallas recently.

Corsicana, which was considered the lone doubtful starter, cleared up all rumors of its scheduled withdrawal.

The 1928 schedule was adopted. It calls for a split season.

The following officials attended the session:

- President, T. H. Fisher, Paris; J. H. Henry, secretary; James R. Gill, Stone; S. J. Stuart, Mexia; D. M. Maynor, Tyler, Dude Ransome, Corsicana; A. M. Barton, Palestine, and Charles Miller, Texarkana.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB HEARS BARON

Baron Heyking, professor of International Law and Diplomatic Relations of the University of Geneva, Switzerland, visited E. T. Tuesday.

This gentleman is a Russian Baron, long connected with the foreign office of his native land of Russia, occupying many high diplomatic positions and now representing some some of the Baltic countries in the League of Nations in addition to his University duties.

The Baron spoke on the subject of Russia and Bolshevism. He showed how the history and the temperament of the Russian people made possible this art of government and that it was not likely to spread to the people of a different temperament. Russia is not really Asiatic and not European is the explanation of the sad condition of the present government-affairs. He considers the present government of Russia quite unstable and will eventually pass away with the education of the masses since ignorance and illiteracy are the main causes of the conditions as they now exist.

At the conclusion of the address many questions were asked and Baron Heyking seemed at his best when answering these questions from the audience interested sufficiently to ask them. This gentleman was brought to America and sent on this tour by the Carnegie Foundation for International Peace.

E. T. STUDENTS MAKE GOOD RECORDS

Miss Gladys McKinley, formerly of this institution, has recently received promotion in the schools of Granada, Kansas, where she has been teaching for the past two or three years. Miss McKinley started out as a teacher in the intermediate department and is now principal of the school with a salary of $1700 a year.

Mr. Roy Brey, a senior of E. T. has gone to Sweetwater to take charge of the Manual Training department of the High School in that place. Mr. Brey is to receive a salary of $175.00 per month. For the last few years it has been no trouble to place E. T.'s manual training teachers in the various schools of the country and with good salaries. We attribute it to the superior efforts of the professors of the department and hope to keep them for a long time.

T. S. SENIORS WEINIE ROAST

Last Monday evening the T. S. Seniors went on a weinie roast. We were quite a while getting a chaperone but when she finally arrived we voted for the girls to build the fire but after 30 or 40 minutes of trying we decided to build it ourselves and save time so "we did". Every one had a grand time and there was plenty to eat. About 15 or 20 minutes after seven we started back. It was rather dark but "Together we stand and parted we die" So we stayed together.

Miss Pauline Davis and Mr. Tom Bryant were chaperones. There were a few who did not belong to the Senior class. They were Misses Maudie Stone, Ruth Thrasher, Mr. Dale Drake, James Calloway, Miss Nadine Brayer and Mr. Welcome Wright.

SPORT WRITER IKEY MAKES DIRE REMARK

Alas! gentle readers, shoulder your arms and give ear to this statement. Our joyful Ikey has placed himself in the ranks of the conceited and self-centered—O mournful day. He made the following slanderous remark while conversing with business manager George Sandridge recently about keeping score for the Lion nine this year on all road trips.

"You will be compelled to take me on all the road jaunts in order to keep score for the local nine."

Sandridge replied, "I cannot use you Ikey."

Then Ikey burst forth in an act of rage and quoted thusly: "I am the only one in E. T. smart enough to serve as scorekeeper all the rest of the students attending this institution are too dumb."

Now readers weigh this statement clearly and heavily with your undivided attention and pass comment on it to your neighbor.

1928 TEXAS LOOP UMPIRES NAMED

President J. Doak Roberts, of the Texas League, announced his umpire staff for the 1928 season last week. It consists of six holdovers and three new men.

The additions are: Mike Donahue of St. Louis, drafted from the South-eastern loop; Charles Donnelly of Lake Worth, Fla., recommended by Connie Mack and Larry Lajoie, and Gerald Hayes of Kansas City, a former International league and American association arbiter.

The veterans are George M. Barr of Tulsa, Thomas B. Erwin of Dallas, Cecil B. Grigg of Dallas; Hunter B. Hill of Fair Grove, Mo.; Henry Kane of El Paso, and Bob Countryman of Houston.

ESTES AND DRAKE AWARDED MEDALS

Neal Estes, Editor-in-Chief of the East Texan, and Dale Drake, Business manager of the same publication, recently received medals donated by this institution in recognition for service rendered. By them on the above mention paper.

The medals are beautifully designed, and both Drake and Estes are proud of them.

the race, East Texas, North Texas, and Abilene Christian College each come through with a winning candidate for the first string of five all-stars.

That the forwards of the association outranked the guards this year may be taken from the number which ranked highest on the ballots printed below. Three forwards, one center, and one guard make up each of the first two teams, an extra forward in each case going to the post of floor guard.

Lowes, the goaling sensation of the Buffaloes, is at the head of the list, drawing attention by his spectacular shooting. He more than doubled, Williams of East Texas, his closest rival for center, and outscored by three points, 11 to 8, any contender for a position on the group. Second in line was Stringer, forward of the runner-up East Texas team.

Theo Powell, the A. C. C. captain is the single holdover on the first five from the first team of 1927. MacMiller, the Daniel Baker ace, after two years on the all-T. I. A. A., falls from grace this season, but he has another season in which to redeem himself.

Powell's Capacities

Of the five teams that showed on the Abilene courts this winter, A. C. C., Daniel Baker, McMurry F. Austin and Southwest Texas, Powell of the Wildcats was superior to any other individual in playing the ball, the basket disregarded, and in out-smarting the opposition on the floor. MacMiller was the miracle hoop marksman of the lot in the A. C. C. series, although he never went so well later in the year.

Both Hale and Crump, forwards for West Texas, were close rivals for Cowley and Powell on the first team.

"Bugs" Morris, coach of the A. C. C. squad, regards Powell as the best player in the conference. R. M. Medley of the McMurry Indians was particularly impressed with Lowes of Canyon and Stringer of East Texas, the latter a forward. Stringer is a freshman, flash at Commerce, and in the opinion of Medley should turn out to be the best in the circuit before his time is served.

Coaches' selections follow:

R. M. MEDLEY McMurry College

First team: Stringer (East Texas), and Hale (West Texas), forwards; Lowes (West Texas), center; Gerald (West Texas), and Cowley (North Texas), guards. Second team: Brock (North Texas), and Miller (Daniel Baker), forwards; Williams (East Texas), center; Powell (ACC) and Wright (South-west Texas),

RELIEF FOR STUDENTS

At last the students of E. T. can take the foreign language of their choice if they so desire. They owe this great privilege to a Russian Philologist, who originated the language after many hours of tedious toil and hardships.

The name of the new language is Esperanto. It is the easiest to learn of all the foreign languages, if it can be called a foreign language. Esperanto in fet is a universal language, a composite lingo built up from 2,500 or more root words. After learning the root words the derivatives come readily to the student. Certainly there is objection to Esperanto on the ground that is not classic. It is not a romance language, not one born out of the Latin matric. But if a universal commerce may be carried on through a universal language, why not give students who expect to be buyers and sellers a medium of communication which fills the bill? The classic tongues may very well be left to the classicists, to be tortured at their will. World trade is now more important than provincial culture. The ancient languages were very good for the ancients, but the ancients were a narrow-living lot. The world was not their oyster. They had fancy imaginations, but little experience. The more experience the less imagination, as a rule. Esperanto is a modern device for international communication, it was originated by a Russian philologist, before the Bolsheviks got control and killed off the philologists. The world owes so little to Russia, why not make a debt to that country—which has repudiated its own by adopting Esperanto as a public school course.

ADVERTISE

It is said that forty-five per cent of the people live in the past, for forty-five in the future and only ten per cent live in the present.

Those who live in the past are the merchants who regret that they did not advertise and let the people know just what they had to offer instead of trusting to luck that buyers might drop into their place of business and make a purchase.

Those who live in the future are the ones who plan to advertise sometime and keep putting the matter off and losing business every day as a result.

The ten per cent who live for today are the busy merchants who advertise and are going ahead and getting the business. They never let a day pass without their advertisement in the newspapers and magazines to keep their names before the public.

A saint may be a person who is trying to be better but a merchant who does not advertise is one that is not even trying to make business better. We have several merchants in Commerce who are true representatives of the ten per cent class and we want the rest of them to join the same class, for advertising in the East Texan the only medium through which each and every student in the East Texas State Teachers College can be reached certainly PAYS.

A FEW FACTS ABOUT PRESIDENTS

Nine presidents of the U. S. were college men.
 Nine were sons of farmers and five of planters.
 Three were sons of merchants and three of clergymen.
 Three were sons of lawyers.
 One was the son of a statesman, one a sexton, one a tanner, one a manufacturer, and one a physician.

According to the Richmond Times-Dispatch, the religious beliefs of the presidents were as follows: None of the Episcopalian faith, eleven of the Presbyterian belief, four of the Methodist churches, two Unitarians, one was a disciple, and one was of the Baptist church family.

According to a medical theory, dark patches under the eyes may be due to bad teeth. In domestic circles they may also be due to a faulty alibi.

BOYLES AND LOWREY CONQUER TRINITY UNIVERSITY IN FIRST DEBATE OF YEAR

Mark Lowrey and Wallace Boyles upheld the negative side of the question, Resolved: "That the United States should cease to protect by armed force capital invested in foreign countries, except after formal declaration of war," against Trinity University at Waxahachie, Friday evening, March 16th.

Mark and Wallace not only upheld but carried off the negative side of the question with honors. A 2 to 1 decision was handed down in their favor. The judges for the debate were three men from Dallas. One is a practicing attorney in that city; one a student in the law school at S. M. U. and the other an advanced student in the same school.

We are looking forward to the coming debates that will be held here in Commerce. The first will be Nacogdoches, then Natchitoches, La., here and then a return engagement there. We take on two Louisiana colleges this year, the second will be Pineville, La. here. The aforementioned are all boys debates. Only two of the girls debates are known; Baylor Belton will be debated there and Denton, there. Other dates are pending.

We are all behind these debaters win or lose but with such an array of talent, we are sure of wins in all these encounters.

SHE DID THE BEST SHE COULD

A mother, discovering her small daughter washing the kitten with soap and water, exclaimed:

"Oh, Betty, darling, I don't think the mother pussy would like her kitty washed like that."

Betty very seriously replied: "Well, I really can't lick it, mother."

ELUSIVE.

A little girl at dinner table was given a dish of noodles. The mother noticed that she was eating nothing but the soup, leaving the noodles. She asked her why she did not eat the noodles, too.

Unconcernedly she answered: "Can't catch 'em."

WHAT W. A. A. HAS TO OFFER

Chancing to meet an attractive, enthusiastic girl from my home town as I was crossing the campus, walking for some time with her "What is this? What does it mean?" she asked while pointing to a notice of W. A. A. on the bulletin board.

"That stands for Women's Athletic Association" I replied.

"Oh, well, that won't interest me, then," she said, ere the words were out of my mouth "I never could excel in Athletics, and although I do like to play tennis and swim sometime, there will be lots of others who can beat me in all sports!"

"That's where you are mistaken" I hastened to say, "Perhaps you would not care to go out for many teams but W. A. A. has something for the girls who does not want to spend a great deal of time in strenuous exercise."

"Tell me about that" Her attitude seemed to become one of interest rather than the indifference she had shown before.

"The companionship with a large group of the finest girls on the campus is something that W. A. A. offers to all girls. It does not take so many points to be an active member that ever the girl who lacks the physical ability or the desire to spend much time in making points can be one. At the regular meeting—which are usually parties or picnics, we have a grand time singing, playing and learning to know each other. The pleasure of these is well worth the little trouble that one has to go to in order to become an active member. These are held just about once or twice each term, so your time isn't taxed by that.

"While I guess the chief attraction that W. A. A. has for the non-Athletic girl is the sociableness and the fellowship which comes from the contracts the girls make with each other, and good times with fellow school-mates. There is another side to it, too. Almost all of us want to be good all-around girls if we cannot take much part in the physical development of ourselves, we, at least, like to ally ourselves with those who do well in that type of activity. We like to use our bit of influence to back physical activity and show we have gone farther than our grandmothers in placing the proper emphasis on the importance of a strong body. W. A. A. supplies such a place very well.

"Come to the party Friday night and then wait until you know a little more about it before you decide that W. A. A. is not an activity in which you wish to participate.

FROM THE SPORTS GIRL.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS MON. AFTERNOON

The baseball season opens Monday at the College field when E. T. engages the Wesley College Panthers in a two game series Monday and Tuesday, March 26th and 27th. The Lions then have a day of rest and journey to Greenville to play a return engagement with the Panthers in that city, March 29th and 30th.

The men have been working hard under Coach Acker and expect to turn in win Monday afternoon to start the season off with a bang that will echo all through Pantherville. Wesley is reported as having a strong team this year and should afford a good test for the Lions before they start in on their long schedule this spring.

Every student in the school should be out with plenty of colors and noise, both Monday and Tuesday afternoons. The team needs and wants your support. It is reported that a good delegation from Wesley will be in attendance and we want to be out three times as strong.

WHICH IS WORSE?

"Which is worse, to tell a lie or to steal?" asked a child of its mother. This mother, taken by surprise, replied that both were so bad that she couldn't tell which was the worse. "Well," said the little one, "I've been thinking a good deal about it, and I think it is worse to lie than to steal. If you steal a thing you can take it back, unless you've eaten it, and then you can pay for it. But"—and there was a look of awe in the little face—"a lie is forever."—Selected.

Trick With Letters.

Here is a bit of catch spelling from the Pathfinder: Ask your friend if he can spell "capitalization" with only seven letters. The answer is "I-zation," which is capital-I-zation, isn't it?

NEW ASSOCIATION FOR EAST TEXAS

How do you spend your leisure time? The girls of E. T. met Wednesday for the purpose of organizing a W. A. A.

The new primary plan of this organization will be to create interest and enthusiasm in phases of health, education, outdoor sports and games as a means of recreation and of securing physical, moral and social development for the girls. The organization will also foster and sponsor activities such as hikes, picnics, parties, play nights, skating, swimming, tennis for the whole student body, so the boys might as well get interested in this organization too.

Any girl enrolled in E. T. having a "C" average may become an active member and make points toward the following honors:

800 points.....Felt College Emblem
