Fall Student Fees To Be Increased

Student fees at ETSU will increase by a maximum of $26 next fall to help provide funds to construct new student recreation and academic facilities.

The fee increase was recently authorized by the ETSU Board of Regents.

F. H. McDowell, vice president for administration at ETSU, said that the fee increase will be prorated based upon the number of semester credit hours for which a student is enrolled.

The fee increase will range from $2 for a student enrolled for only one hour of credit to the maximum of $26 for students enrolled in 13 or more hours. As an illustration of how the increase will be applied, a part-time resident student enrolled in six credit hours of course work will pay tuition and fees of $95 as opposed to the present charge of $88. A full-time resident student enrolled for 15 hours of credit will pay $151 as opposed to the current rate of $125.

The total fee for a resident student enrolled in 15 hours can be broken down as follows: Tuition—$60; Building Use Fee—$50; Service Fee—$30; Student Union Fee—$11, for a total of $151.

McDowell said that the university's borrowing power against use fee money, coupled with cash on hand and the recent sale of ad valorem tax bonds to the First National Bank of Fort Worth, will provide ETSU with approximately $8 million for construction of new student and academic facilities.

Based upon anticipated needs of the university, several facilities have a high construction priority.

Among projects to be given top priority are an addition to the Library; a student recreation center that will tentatively include such things as an indoor swimming pool and tennis courts; a theater and performing arts center; a combination graduate and research center; and new structures for agriculture and industry and technology.

The new funds will also allow the university to further implement a campus beautification program to provide unity to the campus through landscaping and outdoor activity areas.

Construction and beautification plans will reflect findings of the ETSU Master Plan recently completed by the Houston engineering firm of Caudill-Rowlett-Scott.

Security Logs Busy Week In Robberies, Emergency

Gilbert E. Fleeer, director, United Christian Center, reported to ET Security that a gasoline Trimall Edger had been taken from the center at 1504 Lee St. last week.

Pam Fox, Brownwood junior, reported that someone had forced his way into her parked car in the Whitley Hall parking lot and had stolen a tape deck valued at $50.

Peter Laue, Benville, N.J., sophomore, reported the theft of a pair of gray sweat pants from the ET Field House while he was in the sauna bath. The pants were reported to have several holes in the seam.

Security transported a Smith Hall woman to the Commerce Medical and Surgical Center Sunday morning for treatment of an overdose of drugs.

Eight 'Beauties' To Be Chosen May 3

Eight women will be chosen as University Beauties during a pageant to be held in the University Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 3.

Twenty-five women were selected as beauty finalists by the student body in an election April 20 when class favorites were also chosen.

Those women to appear in the pageant are Lee Adrean, Pam Bell, Cindy Brady, Cindy Cantrell, Joycelyn Carlton, Susan Crutchfield, Erma Elliott, Marsha Ellison, Debbie Floyd, Joyce Fortson, Martha Freeman, Rebecca Garcia and Inez Haggard.

Others to appear include Karen Hollis, Gail Lightfoot, Carla Matthews, Christie Ownsby, LaVonne Porter, Janet Russell, Susan Sherbert, D'Ann Smith, Lynn Strode, Lonnie Tucker, Cindy Whitson and Jane Ann Williams.

The women will be presented at the pageant to a panel of judges who will select them on the basis of beauty, poise and their answer to a question.

Charles Gutierrez and Lynn Strode were chosen all school favorites in the Wednesday election. Graduate favorites are Ed Garcia and Ruth Douglas.

Bob Leonhart and Carla Matthews are senior favorites; junior favorites chosen are Larry Travis and Dee Miller.

Rick Bunch and Georganna Stewart are freshman favorites. Randy Ashby was chosen as sophomore favorite. Lynn Street and Ronnie Elder tied for the position of sophomore woman favorite.

A run-off election will be held Wednesday, April 26. During that time the vice president of the student body will also be elected. The election will be held between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. in the Student Government Office.

Gamma Phi, Acacia Take Honors at KD Sing Song

Gamma Phi Beta, social sorority, and Acacia, social fraternity, were awarded first places in the 12th annual Kappa Delta Sing Song Tuesday, April 18.

Alpha Phi sorority and Delta Tau Delta fraternity took second place. Gamma Phi and Acacia won trophies for originality.

The talent show was a fund-raising event for the Dallas Children's Medical Center, the philanthropy of the social sorority. Proceeds will be donated in the name of all Greek sororities and fraternities on campus.

Gamma Phi's theme was "women's liberation" and Acacia presented a musical skit on drinking.

Entries were judged on presentation, choice of songs and vocal quality.

Four Candidates Register For Today's VP Election

Four students registered Friday for today's election for the office of second vice president of the United Student Association.

The election is scheduled to be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Student Government Office on the second floor of the Student Center. To vote, students must present ET

I.D. cards to election officials, according to Constantino Armas, Jr., chairman of the Election Commission.

Candidates for second vice president are Gary Stretcher, Millsap junior; Larry Battros, Dallas junior; Mrs. Libby Williams; and Lee Allen Everett, Trenton junior. These students were allowed to run for second vice president because the first election in March was invalidated by the Student Supreme Court on the basis of a petition filed by Stretcher. Another story in this issue explains a new development concerning the Stretcher petition.

Of the four candidates running, Battros, Stretcher, and Williams have served in the Student Senate. Williams is serving as parliamentarian and chairman of the fiscal and governmental committee in the Senate. Both Battros and Stretcher are serving in the Senate and they have served as committee chairmen in the past.

Everett was not available for comment on his past experience in student government.

Advisement Week Set

Academic Advisement Week is being held Monday-Friday, April 24-29, according to Dr. Charles E. King, assistant dean, College of Arts and Sciences. Any undergraduate student who has not filed a degree plan should see his adviser sometime this week.

Academic advisement slips should be filled out for any student intending to register for the next summer or fall terms. Fall registrants are urged to leave slips with advisers to prevent loss of the slips, Dr. King said.

A student will not be allowed to register without a degree plan or an academic advisement slip.

Butler Grants Reid An Appeal

By Bobby Templeton

Dr. Bob Butler, dean of student activities, has granted an appeal hearing to Danny Reid in the Reid vs. Stretcher case which was ruled in favor of Gary Stretcher, last week, by the Student Supreme Court.

Reid, who filed an appeal petition with Butler's office, will be meeting with Stretcher, Butler and Joe McKethan, chief justice of the Supreme Court at 9:30 a.m. today, according to Joe Forrester, assistant to the dean of student activities.

In the Robert Mansker case, the Supreme Court was again unable to make a decision Monday because a quorum of the court was not present to make an official ruling.

The Reid vs. Stretcher case involved the invalidation of the last election for second vice president of the United Student Association because of Reid's alleged ineligibility to run since he had only 58 credit hours, two hours less than the required 60 hours. The court had ruled on Thursday, April 13, that Reid was clearly ineligible to run because the student constitution states "60 hours or 20 courses" as the minimum qualification for the office of second vice president.

Reid, however, had secured a ruling before the election from Constantino Armas Jr., chairman of the Election Commission, that he was eligible to run because Armas had not received written notification of the Constitutional requirement from the Student Senate.

The Supreme Court's decision in favor of Stretcher called for the holding of a new election, being held today, in which a new second vice president would be elected. The court ruled that Reid would not be eligible to run in this election.

Students who registered for today's election are Gary Stretcher, Larry Battros, Mrs. Libby Williams and Lee Evertt.

Concerning the Mansker case, the court has been unable to make a definite ruling in three meetings of the court. In the first meeting last week, Mansker failed to show up, and in the second meeting last Thursday, the court lacked a quorum, needed to make an official ruling. A quorum of the court also failed to show up last Monday for the third meeting.

The case concerns a petition by Mansker to invalidate the March 31 special senate election, which Mansker alleges violated five sections of

A Campus Misnomer

Monday began Academic Advisement Week. Surprised? Well you have good reason to be. Those in charge just barely managed to notify The East Texan and the faculty in time to have it announced before the entire week had passed.

Actually, it is small wonder when one considers the benefits to be gained from this bureaucratic blockade. Advisement Week, in theory, could provide a very beneficial service provided both faculty and students were actively participating in an exchange of information. Beneficial, provided that those "running the show" would inform the participants of the ground rules prior to an advisement week. The weak link in this chain seems to be that nobody knows what to accomplish through this advisement other than a schedule to get the student through the door at registration. However, in practice, it is simply a five-day period of time in which the blind endeavor to lead the blind through a maze neither fully understands. Of course, one seldom hears of good experiences brought about under this program; but, bad experiences provide "trail markings" all along the path that this "monster" has crept.

Of course, we all know how to beat this "advisement" system. The student merely goes to his adviser with a proposed schedule already written out and the faculty member nods his head and types it out on the necessary form. And everybody's happy? Of course not. The student is unhappy because he is forced to waste his time doing something twice, devising his own schedule. The teacher is unhappy because of the large amount of time wasted doing this needless bit of paperwork for not one but dozens of students.

Are we to assume that everyone is unhappy? No!

Many people are happy about this situation; the people who print the blank forms, the people who sell the carbon paper, the people employed to handle the forms . . . Yes, only the people who must waste their time either "counseling" or being "counseled" are unhappy. And the red tape piles higher.

Down South Week To Start Today

Sigma Phi Epsilon, social fraternity, will hold its Down South Week, Wednesday, April 26, through Sunday, April 30.

Activities for the week include a Wednesday night Taco Banquet and a parade at 3:30 p.m. Thursday beginning at the Social Sciences Building and continuing to Binnion Hall. At the end of the parade the 1972 Sigma Phi Epsilon Senorita will be chosen. A "country goat roast" and beer bust will be held at 6 p.m.

The Down South outing will be held at Lake Texhoma, Friday, April 28, through Sunday, April 30, according to Gerry Irving, coordinator of activities.

Dejernet Deadline Set

The deadline for entering the Dejernet Oratory Contest has been extended to Friday, April 28. To register for the contest, one may contact Dr. C. L. Farr in Room 203, Speech Building. All ET undergraduate students are eligible for the contest.

TACT Banquet Scheduled

The annual spring banquet of the ETSU chapter of the Texas Association of College Teachers will be held in the American Ballroom of the Student Center at 6 p.m., Friday,

Letter To The Editor

To The Editor:

It appears that the East Texas State University students, faculty and staff as well as the other citizens of Commerce are four times as concerned about the problems of alcohol as they are about the welfare of children. In the recent wet-dry election approximately four times as many persons voted than voted in the previous school bond election that was defeated.

If you voted in the wet-dry election and failed to vote in the previous school bond election that was defeated, I am talking directly to you. I hope if the shoe fits that each one of you will wear it uncomfortably until you do something positive about the needs of our children. A new school bond election has been called for May 9, 1972, and I challenge each one of you who live in the Commerce School District to get out and vote for the school bonds and evidence some concern for the children of our community.

Many of you are young citizens who are exercising the right to vote for the first time this year. I can think of no better way in which you can show to the community at large that you are a responsible force that can rise to the needs of children and that you are not just a one issue group of voters.

I am encouraging you to go to the polling place located in the Junior High School on May 9 and vote for the school bonds. Please exercise your citizenship right to vote on this issue.

Band To Give Concert

The ETSU Symphonic Band, conducted by Dr. Neill Humfeld, music faculty, will give a concert at 8:15 p.m. Thursday, April 27, in the University Auditorium.

The program will include "Symphonic Songs," by Bennett; "Divertimento for Band," by Persichetti; "Concert Piece for Band," by Tubb; "Concertino for Three Brass," by Werle; and "1812 Overture," by Tchaikovsky.

Journalism Seminar Set

Barry Spradley, marketing manager for the Houston Post newspaper, will present an audio-visual show, "Dateline: Houston," to a Journalism Seminar at 7 p.m. Thursday, April 27, in the Journalism Building Auditorium.

Marketers Name Hawkins

Billy Hawkins, Longview junior, a member of Pi Sigma Epsilon, professional sales and marketing fraternity, has been selected by the Marketing and Management faculty as the Outstanding Marketing Student of 1971-72.

He will receive a plaque Monday, April 24, at the annual Youth Banquet, sponsored by Dallas Sales and Marketing Executives International. Tom Landry, head coach of the Dallas Cowboys, will be the featured speaker.

The show was produced to inform advertisers and their agencies of the market growth and potential in Houston. The presentation is used to draw major conventions to Houston, to attract business and industry to the city, and to sell the Houston Post as a major influence in the city.

A 1964 graduate of Texas Tech, with a B.B.A. degree in advertising, Spradley has been associated with the Houston Post since 1965, except two years spent on active duty with the Navy. He served as an advertising sales representative and sales presentation specialist before assuming his present position in March 1971.

He has completed a seminar designed to broaden professional knowledge in the field of marketing and advertising, at the Houston Institute for Advanced Advertising Studies in the University of Houston's College of Business Administration.

Variety of Benefits Available Through ET Placement Service

By Ray Workman

There is talk today, especially among college students, concerning the lack of jobs available to graduates.

Recruiters are not tearing the campus doors down looking for graduates as they did two or three years ago. But, according to ET Placement Director Dr. Pete Mann, there are still many jobs available for college graduates.

Dr. Mann is in charge of the Placement Service, the office which helps ET graduates become employees.

The Placement Service offers services to the graduate which are designed to aid him in finding a job in today's tightening job market.

Services such as scheduling recruiters to be on campus and posting vacancy lists still are important, but new services are also offered.

The emphasis today is more on the graduate's individual initiative, Dr. Mann said. "Many employers are just sitting back and waiting for the graduate to come to them."

The Placement Service offers help with things such as resume writing, which Dr. Mann believes is important. "Sometimes the quality of the resume determines whether or not a person will be selected to interview," he said.

The Placement Service also provides the "College Placement Annual," and the "Career Opportunity Index."

These books contain information on the positions customarily offered to college graduates by employers, give a brief description of each company and tell whom to contact.

A credential service which furnishes information about the student to prospective employers is also provided by the Placement Service.

The service is provided for an ET graduate for as long as he wishes. Even if the graduate needs to use the service many years after graduation, it is still available to him.

The big advantage of the credential service is that the student has a central location for his credentials, Dr. Mann said the job seeker does not have to send a letter to his references everytime he is interviewed for a job. The reference is contacted only once and copies are kept in the graduates file to be sent out to employers.

Another activity which the Placement Service does to benefit ET students in general is to study how ET graduates compare with graduates from other schools. The Placement Service currently has a study completed for first-year ET teachers and is working on a study of business school graduates.

The results of such studies are sent to employers who have hired ET graduates in the past as well as to other prospective employers of ET graduates. By doing that, Dr. Mann is able to show positive facts about the quality of ET graduates as compared with graduates from other colleges and universities.

Dr. Mann said that his office is capable of helping every graduate although the help will take many forms. "Jobs are still available, he said. "The graduate must simply work a little harder to find them."

Spring Concert Tour To Bring Navy Band to ET Campus

The United States Navy Band, which has been hailed as "The World's Finest," will appear in concert next month at ETSU as part of its spring concert tour.

Under the direction of Commander Donald W. Stauffer, the 50-member musical organization will perform in the University Auditorium at 3 p.m. Sunday, May 7. The matinee concert will consist of a broad range of popular, classical and novelty selections.

The U. S. Navy Band, based in Washington, D. C., is composed entirely of professional musicians, most of whom have one or more degrees in music. A leader in the field of contemporary music, it has premiered hundreds of original band compositions, many written by members of the Navy Band's arranging staff.

Although the Navy Band dates back to the creation of the "Washington Navy Yard Band" in 1888, the official U.S. Navy Band was established on March 4, 1925, by President Calvin Coolidge on his inauguration day.

That year the Navy Band made its first concert tour of America. It has since performed at national and international events in Canada, South America, Puerto Rico, Haiti, Panama and the Virgin Islands.

The Navy Band has soloists on each brass and reed instrument, some of them not normally included in symphonic bands. One of the latter is the English Post Horn on which Pat Puckett is the soloist.

Other featured artists include

Richard Bain, harmonica; Morris Crisci, tenor; John Coulehan, clarinet; Dale Underwood, saxophone; and James Kraft, trombone. A featured group within the band is the trumpet trio.

Commander Stauffer, who became conductor of the band in 1968, holds a Ph.D. in music education from the Catholic University, Washington, D. C., and bachelor's, master's and performance degrees from Eastman School of Music in Rochester, N.Y.

Tickets for the program, priced at $2 for adults and $1 for students, may be purchased at the door the afternoon of the concert. Proceeds from ticket sales will go to the ETSU music scholarship fund.

Suggestion Box Brings Results

As a result of the installation of a suggestion box located near the Circulation Department of the University Library, approximately 180 books have been obtained by the library which ordinarily would not have been put there, according to Dr. W. C. Highfill, library director. Some of these requests include

"Lady Chatterly's Lover" by D. H. Lawrence, "I Am Third" by Gale Sayers, and the best seller, "Beyond Freedom and Dignity" by B. F. Skinner. Dr. Highfill noted that when one student has a particular book need, there may be another student the next year with that same need. Therefore, each signed suggestion is considered and often a reply is sent to the student.

Suggestions for coin-operated typewriters, daily changes of the newspapers, installation of coke and candy machines, and for shag carpeting are among the many requests deposited in the box since it was installed a year ago, according to Dr. Highfill.

The major gripe, however, has been about noise in the library.

Despite the usual obscene suggestions often found in a suggestion box, or the slightly unusual ones such as requests for a book drop in the commuter's parking lot or the fixing of the clock on the second floor, the suggestion box has proved helpful in that it has aided the library staff in identifying problems not openly brought to their attention, Dr. Highfill said.

According to Dr. Highfill, the students' response to the suggestion box has been with "good, solid suggestions."

APO Sponsors

Boy Scout Troop

On Saturday, April 8, Boy Scout Troop 205 and its leaders left the Mount Moriah Baptist Church and "took to the woods" on property owned by Jerry Lytle, director of financial aids at ET.

This is not too unusual. What is unusual is the fact that the troop had been organized only about one month by ET's Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, and that many of the new scouts had never before actively participated in scouting.

ET's APO chapter and the Mount Moriah Baptist Church co-sponsor the all-black troop in the Norris community of Commerce.

Although the troop's rolls consist of black scouts, membership is open to any boy. Leadership for the troop is provided by APO members James Williams, Constantino Armas Jr., James Sanders, Bill Norcross, Rick Ramirez, Bobby Templeton and Eric Hillary, and Wilson Dunnington.

Also included in the program is a cub scout pack. Current membership includes 14 cub scouts and 15 boy scouts, up from the initial number of one boy scout and five cub scouts. The cubs (age 8-11) meet at 4:30 p.m. each Thursday, while the scouts (age 11 and older) meet at 7 p.m. each Wednesday.

Home Ec Seniors Manage House as Grad Requirement

By Cindy Ubben

Nine senior home economics majors are spending this month in the Home Management House, at Stonewall Street, learning table setting, meal preparation, and housekeeping in a home situation.

The nine women are required to live in the house for four weeks and take on all the duties of home management as a prerequisite to graduation.

During their stay in the house, the women rotate every three days in the jobs of cook, waitress, housekeeper, hostess, and laundress. There are also duties for two assistant cooks, an assistant housekeeper, and a helper.

Besides the actual meal preparation, the cook must plan the meals and stay within a budget of $1.75 per person per day. No two meals are allowed to be cooked twice, according to Shirley McCluney, one of the residents this month. The assistants help in the preparation and serving of meals.

The housekeeper is in charge of keeping the upstairs clean. There is an assistant to help her, Mrs. McCluney said.

Flower arrangements for the downstairs and the cleaning of that area are the duties of the hostess, who also welcomes guests.

The job of the waitress includes such tasks as setting the table for every meal, creating two original centerpieces, and serving the food.

The laundress is in charge of all linens and keeping the laundry room clean. It must be waxed every other day and buffed every day. "This is a public building with people coming in and out all the time. That is why we must keep it so clean," Mrs. Barbara King, another resident, said.

The tasks of silver polishing, oven cleaning, and dish washing are left to the helper.

Meals are served with varying degrees of formality, from country style, in which food is passed around the table, to Continental style, in which the plates are brought to the table by waitresses.

Each woman is responsible for preparing one foreign dinner. According to Mrs. McCluney, meals have included food from Mexico, Hawaii, Syria, Italy, France, Holland, and Canada. At a Chinese meal, the women sat on the floor and ate with chopsticks, Mrs. McCluney said.

The house, which is decorated in greens and yellows and has spacious bedrooms, is being remodeled by the Special Problems in Interior Design class. A new kitchen and dining area are being added. The addition is expected to be finished by the end of the summer, Mrs. McCluney said.

Mrs. King said that the greatest advantage to living in the Home Management House is learning the graces of table service. Mrs. McCluney added that flower arranging is a skill she will be able to use in her own home.

Guidance Meet Slated May 6

A conference for developments in vocational guidance and supervision will be held in the Texas Ballroom of the Student Center on Saturday, May 6. The conference, presented by the Secondary and Higher Education Department and the Department of Student Personnel and Guidance, will feature speakers in the fields of vocational education and trade and industrial education.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. and last until 9 a.m. Following this, Dr. Robert Hoppock, member of the Department of Counselor Education at the New York University School of Education and specialist in methods of teaching occupations, will start the program with his presentation on "The Uses and Misuses of Educational and Occupational Information."

After this presentation Dr. Byrl Shoemaker, State Director of the Division of Vocational Education in Ohio, will speak about "Career Education—a System of Vocational Education and Guidance."

Following this will be special sessions in the fields of vocational counseling and vocational supervision which will be held in the Texas Ballroom and the Bluebonnet, Pecan and Friendship Rooms. A Dutch Treat lunch will then be served in the cafeteria.

After lunch Mrs. Lee Laws, adviser for Science Research Associates in the area of research and development, will give a demonstration on "Integrated Career Development Materials into the Curriculum." The program will be terminated following this presentation.

Three Win High Ratings

Three ET students, Jerry Biggs, Jude Newlin and B. J. Theus, received "excellent" and "superior" ratings at the second annual Individual Events Tournament at Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches Saturday, April 15.

Miss Newlin and Biggs received ratings of "excellent" for their entry in duet acting and also for improvisation. Miss Newlin was rated "excellent" for her poetry reading selection. Theus received a "superior" rating in prose reading and an "excellent" in poetry reading.

LSC Sports Carnival Primed

By Kenneth Brazzle and Robert Bunch

The terms bright and dim are two ways to describe the Lions' chances in the Lone Star Conference spring sports championships, scheduled Thursday through Saturday, April 27-29, in Commerce.

Tennis will kick off the three sports event at 1 p.m. Thursday, with the first round of singles competition. The first round of doubles play follows at 5 p.m. All matches will be played on the ET tennis courts.

Tennis will be ET's strongest sports event in the LSC championship. Lion netters have already unseated defending conference champs Angelo State earlier in the season, 6-0. ET finished the season with a record of 20-5-1.

Golf could find the ET golfers moving up a notch to fourth place in the final LSC golf standings. Playing on their own golf course could provide an advantage for the Lions.

The track team has little chance of capturing any running events, except possibly the relays.

ET could win points in field events competition where the Lions have fared well.

Competition for the track and field events begins at 4 p.m. Friday, with prelims in the 120-yard high hurdles, 100-yard dash, 440 yard intermediate hurdles, 220-yard dash and the mile relay.

Golf

The fourth and final Lone Star Conference golf tournament will be hosted by ET Friday and Saturday, April 28-29 in Commerce as part of the LSC spring sports championships.

ET is in fifth place in LSC standings, eight strokes behind Tarleton State, but will have a decided advantage this weekend because the tournament will be played at Sand Hills Country Club, where ET golfers have been practicing all season.

Sand Hills is a 6,124 yard, par 72 course, which should provide a challenge to the golfers. All teams will warm up with a practice round on Thursday.

Tom Hubble, ET's golf ace, is tied for seventh place in the conference medalist standings, with a 662 total, 10 strokes behind the conference leader, Mack Charping of Stephen F. Austin. Playing on a familiar course will give Hubble an inside track on the other medalist contenders. Golf coach Boley Crawford said that he expects Hubble to move into the top five in the medalist standings, which would be good enough to earn him first team All-LSC. Hubble made second team All-LSC last year. The medalist champion will be determined by taking each golfer's three best rounds out of the four that have been played.

Crawford said he definitely expects the team to shoot well this weekend, and he hopes that all the players will be close to par.

Stephen F. Austin has practically sewn up the conference championship, taking a 48-stroke lead over second place Sam Houston State into the final tournament. The conference standings at this time are: scores of the teams for all four tournaments. If SFA wins as is expected, the Lumberjacks will be joined by the second-place finisher, either SHS or AS, to represent the LSC in the NAIA District Four Championships against the top two teams from the Big State Conference. The winner and an alternate will then represent District Four in the NAIA championships, which will be held in Roswell, N.M. SFA took second place in the NAIA championships last year. Coach Crawford said that the two LSC entrants will probably go to the NAIA finals because the Big State conference does not have strong golf teams.

Tennis

ET tennis coach Dr. William Crabtree will be shooting for his eighth Lone Star Conference tennis title in the last nine years when the Lions start competing in the conference

Crabtree

16 consecutive victories. During the season the Lions also posted 14 shut-outs over their opponents.

Along with the seasonal record of 20-5-1, the Lions have 29 points won in conference play against one loss. Angelo State trails ET by five points in the win column. The Rams have won 24 points in conference competition against six losses. For the Rams to win the conference title ET has to lose five matches. Coach Crabtree indicated that it will be pretty hard for the Rams to overtake the Lions. "Overall, I except the race for the title to be between ET and Angelo," said Crabtree.

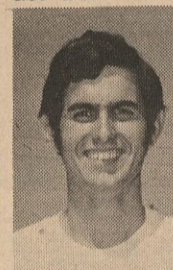

Harry Fritz, Bob Hochstadter, John Blackmon are three of the players who will be entered in singles competition for ET in the tourney. Crabtree has said that he is undecided who will be the No. 4 singles player. He has narrowed the choice down to John McGee and Kenneth Jantz. The two doubles teams entered in the tourney will be composed of Fritz-Hochstadter and Blackmon-McGee.

Fritz

Fritz finished the season for the Lions with a singles record of 20-7 and 5-0 in conference play. Hochstadter has a 5-0 record in the conference No. 2 man singles position and 21-7 for the year. Blackmon has 21-7 and 5-0 marks in the No. 3 spot in conference competition. McGee and Jantz follow with seasonal records of 16-4 and 17-6, respectively. Both have played the No. 4 position in conference play, with Jantz posting a 3-0 record and McGee 2-0.

Blackmon

McGee

Crabtree will pit the doubles team of Fritz-Hochstadter and Blackmon-McGee in the tourney. The Blackmon-McGee team reached the NAIA quarterfinals in doubles in 1970 and LSC finals for the last three years. The duo recorded a 18-4 seasonal mark and 4-0 in conference play. The Fritz-Hochstadter team has a seasonal mark of 17-6 and 4-1 in conference mark.

Crabtree said that he has no idea how his team will perform in the tourney. "Most of our matches in the last 10 contests have been with pretty easy opponents. We haven't had any real opponents that could provide tough competition," he said, adding, "It's hard to tell how we will fare in the tourney."

ET Netters Win; Golfers Slip

ET's tennis team added two more victims to its already impressive 13-match win streak by sweeping Texas A&I Thursday, April 20, in a Lone Star Conference match and Midwestern University Saturday, April 22. The Lions won both matches, 6-0.

The ET golf team had its best score of the season at the third Lone Star Conference golf tournament in Abilene Thursday and Friday, April 20-21 but could manage only an eighth place finish. ET held onto fifth place in the conference standings but lost three strokes to fourth-place Tarleton State.

In the match against Texas A&I, Harry Fritz started things by downing Gary Rauscher, 7-6, 6-3. Bob Hochstadter beat Charles Pollman, 6-3, 6-1; John Blackmon defeated Gordon Buskey, 6-2, 6-1; and Kenneth Jantz beat Reed Smith, 6-4, 2-6, 6-3.

Doubles results were Hochstadter-Fritz defeating Rauscher-Smith, 6-3, 7-5 and Blackmon-John McGee whipping Buskey-Pollman, 6-4, 6-2.

Midwestern proved to be a practice match for ET as Hochstadter, playing in the No. 1 singles position, beat George Averit, 6-2, 6-2. Blackmon defeated Kevin Ballead, 6-0, 6-0; Jantz whipped Rusty Hallum, 6-3, 6-1; and McGee toppled Mark Gentry, 6-2, 6-2.

Carmack Berryman and Steve Barker defeated Hallum-Gentry, 6-1, 6-2; and Bill Sengbush-David Irwin defeated Ballead-Averit, 6-0, 6-2.

Tom Hubble led ET again with rounds of 71-75-72 for a five-over-par 218, good for a tie for sixth place in the medalist competition. Otherscores were: Bill Berry, 74-75-76-225; Marc Clayton, 71-71-83-225; Gary Pool, 81-76-71-228; and Jim Vander Poel, 82-81-72-235.

Alpha Phi Beats ADPI

Pitcher Paula Green's homerun highlighted the Alpha Phi's 16-6 victory over Alpha Delta Pi in women's sorority intramural softball Thursday, April 13. In other action Kappa Delta defeated Chi Omega, 27-11.

The Starlettes beat Whitley Hall, 15-7, in independent play Wednesday, April 12.

KAs, KDs, Hikers Win Titles at Delt Relays

By J. D. Wells

Kappa Alpha, Kappa Delta and the Hikers won team titles at the 12th annual Delt Relays Wednesday, April 19, at Memorial Stadium.

Gamma Phi Beta's Jane Anne Williams was named Delt Relays Queen and Debbie Helms of Alpha Delta Pi, was chosen as first runner-up.

Sponsored by Delta Tau Delta, social fraternity, the track and field meet featured competition in fraternity, sorority and independent divisions.

The KAs streaked to a first place in the fraternity division, compiling 147 points. Omega Psi Phi amassed 94 points for second place.

In the sorority division, the KDs' 57 points was good for first place, while Delta Sigma Theta finished second, with 47.

The Hikers climbed to first place in the independent division, garnering 60 points to the second-place Horns 48.

A Delt Relays record was set in the fraternity division high jump by Will Cureton (KA), Kent Adcock (Sig Eps) and Curtis Wesley (Omega), each with a 6-2 leap. Cureton was awarded first place on fewer misses.

Another fine performance was turned in by Drew Barrett (KA), with a 10.0 clocking in the fraternity division 100-yard dash. W. T. Thomas (Omega) finished second at 10.2. Barrett's time bettered ET varsity trackmen's best time this spring (10.2) in the 100-yard dash.

Barrett's 24.0 effort in the 220-yard dash earned him another first, ahead of Rayford Stephens (Omega) at 24.3.

Jim Burris (KA) finished first in the 440-yard dash at 57.0, followed by Greg Chitzky (Sig Eps), 57.1.

A 2:19 clocking in the 880-yard run gave Scott McCord (Deltas) a first place, while Mike Mason (KA) took second at 2:19.9.

In the mile run, Danny Stribling (KA) took first in 5:36.3, while George Jamison (Deltas) finished second in 5:44.1.

Omeegas' 440-yard relay team, composed of Thomas, Weldon Elbert, Ernest McGee and Rayford Stephens sped to a first-place time of 45.3. The KAs were second at 46.8.

Tommy Treadway, Ken Little, Danny Storey and Cureton formed the KA medley relay team that clocked a first-place time of 4:05.5, followed by the Deltas' 4:07.7 clocking.

First place in the mile relay went to the KA team of Cureton, Little, Barrett and Ricky Earle, with a time of 3:40.5. The Omegas were second at 3:43.3.

Teddy Ellis (Deltas) leaped 20-0¼ to win the long jump, followed by Treadway's 19-11¼ jump.

In the sorority division, Patricia Robertson (Delta Omega Theta) finished first in the 50-yard dash at 6.9, followed by Mel Richards (KD), 7.0.

DST's 440-yard relay team, composed of Miss Robertson, Janice Freeman, Joyce Fortson and Valorette Lincoln, took the top spot, with a time of 1:00. The KDs were second at 1:01.

The KDs finished first in the three-legged race, followed by Alpha Phi. Chi Omega was first in the wheelbarrow race with Alpha Phi second.

Competition in the independent division was limited to three relay events, all won by the Hikers.

In the 440-yard relay, the Hikers were awarded first place after the Horns were disqualified for stepping out of a lane. The Horns had run a 44.1, followed by the Hikers' 44.5. Jerry Evans, William Wilcox, Johnny Steadham and Irvin Yarborough teamed up for the Hikers' victory.

The Hikers' medley relay team of Evans, Dee Shirer, Steadham and Yarborough sped to a 4:02.7 victory over the Horns' 4:17.6.

In the mile relay, Bobby Lewis, Steadham, Clint Holmes and Evans gave the Hikers their third relay victory, with a 3:39.5 clocking. The Horns were second at 3:40.4.

Alumni Golf Set June 9-11

By Mary Hopper

Plans are now underway for the third annual Alumni Classic Golf tournament June 9-11 at the Sand Hills Country Club, south of Commerce on F.M. 1511.

The tournament is sponsored by the ET Alumni Affairs office and is designed for ET alumni, with the exception of "possibly an August graduate," according to Robert L. Whitney III, director of Alumni Affairs. "It's their tournament. We want to include as many of those requesting invitations as possible."

Invitations may be requested from Whitener in the Alumni office and will be mailed on May 10. Approximately 35 country club members will receive invitations a few days early to thank them for the use of the club during the three-day event, he said.

An entry fee of $30 covers all social activities for a golfer and his wife or date. The fee for social activities only is $17.50 for the three-day event, with only alumni being eligible for this. No trophies will be awarded.

Whitener said that about 500 invitations will be sent out for the 54-hole tournament. He expects 300 guests overall, with about 110 participating in the tournament. The number of flights in the tournament will be determined by the number of entrants. Qualifying scores will determine each entrant's flight. Last year's tournament contained five flights.

Prizes include a medalist prize for the lowest qualifying score, a $35 gift certificate to the country club pro shop; first place, a set of pro-line irons by First Flite FTD; second place, a set of woods by the same company; and third place, another $35 gift certificate to the country club pro shop.

There will also be prizes for the oldest participant and the one traveling the farthest distance for the tournament. Whitener noted that he expected players from as far away as the state of Washington, and players in their 70s.

The Annual Golf tournament recently won the district four American Alumni Council Conference Award as the most outstanding entry in the special events class for Alumni Associations, according to Whitener.

Delts Lead Frat Softball

Delta Tau Delta remained in the lead of the fraternity league intramural fast pitch softball by defeating Sigma Phi Epsilon and Kappa Alpha Thursday, April 20.

In an eight-inning game, the Deltas edged the KAs 6-5, and earlier in the evening dropped the Sig Eps, 5-3.

Thursday's first game saw the Sig Eps eliminate Alpha Gamma Rho, 2-0.

Delta Sigma Pi crushed the f-Stops, 25-1, in the only independent league game played Thursday.

CORRECTION . . .

It was incorrectly reported in the Wednesday, April 19, issue of The East Texan that an All-University intramural slow pitch softball championship game had been played between the Topps, independent league champion, and Kappa Alpha, fraternity league champion. The two teams played but no points were awarded toward the intramural All-Sports Championship, since no All-University championship is decided in minor sports.

Money To Be Awarded Statistics Contest Victors

A first prize of $24 and a second prize of $12 will be awarded to the winners in a contest in Statistics help April 24-May 5. The contest is sponsored by the Department of Psychology and Special Education.

The contest will consist of statistic problem solving and standards for winning will be based on speed and accuracy.

A person may sign up until Thursday, May 4, according to Dr. Samuel W. Cochran, psychology and special education faculty. The time for taking the test "will be arranged on an individual basis, whatever time is most convenient to the student," he said.

To sign up for the contest a student should contact Dr. Cochran. His office is located in Room 211 of the Education South.

Texarkana Branch To Get Material From Library

The ETSU-Texarkana Library will be moved from the University Library here to the Palmer Memorial Library on the Texarkana branch campus Thursday, June 1, according to Mrs. Jimmie S. Simmons, ETSU-Texarkana librarian.

Materials to support courses to be taught at ETSU-Texarkana are books, periodicals and microfiche which are now being ordered, received and processed for the beginning fall semester, Mrs. Simmons said.

Marilyn Hill Named Winner In Miss Grand Prix Contest

Marilyn Hill, Ladonia freshman, won Miss Grand Prix honors, while Gary McDonald, Dallas sophomore, took the first place trophy and $25 cash in go-cart competition at Thursday's 5th annual Grand Prix.

Miss Hill was sponsored by Smith Hall in the swimsuit competition, while McDonald drove the go-cart for Phi Kappa Theta.

The Chi Omega, social sorority, won first place in the Women's Tricycle Race, with Alpha Phi, social sorority, winning "best costume" honors.

Susan Sherbert, Van junior, sponsored by Alpha Phi, won the first runner-up trophy in the Miss Grand Prix event, while Rosalind Richardson, sponsored by Binnion Hall, won second runner-up honors. Miss Richardson is a sophomore from West Columbia.

The event was the "most successful" of any in the past, according to David Hornack, Inter-Residence Hall Council president, who estimated the crowd at "around 3,400."

This year's race was also one of the shortest, according to Hornack. The race took only 75 minutes, whereas in the past it has taken in excess of two hours for the carts to make the 125 required laps.

Second place in the go-cart race went to Sikes Hall entry, driven by Lewis Thompson, Dallas freshman. Michael Lambert, Dallas sophomore, won third place in the event, driving for Delta Sigma Pi.
