COMMERCE, TEXAS 75428, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1972

ET students face another semester of a long series of deadlines today, with Wednesday, Sept. 20, scheduled as the last day to drop an accelerated course without receiving a grade.

Court Cancels Referendum; Censures President Daloia

By Jim Stanford

The Supreme Court of the United Students Association decided Friday to cancel the constitutional referendum scheduled for today and to formally censure Ron Daloia, student body president, for failure to comply with a subpoena of the court.

The court ruled in favor of James Johnson, Greenville graduate, in the case of Johnson vs. United Students Association, in canceling today's referendum. Johnson's petition had stated that the referendum was repugnant to Article five of the present constitution concerning constitutional amendments.

The court had subpoenaed the petition, signed by about 1,000 students, as evidence in the Johnson case. However, the student government failed to produce the petition and failed to provide a defense in the case in which the USA was the defendant.

The formal censure read in part, "Whereas Ronald Daloia, president of the United Students Association, in whose custody the aforementioned petition lies, has failed and refused to produce the aforesaid petition or certified copy thereof ... hereby censures Ronald Daloia, president of the United Students Association of East Texas State University."

Based upon testimony heard by the court Friday, only about one-third of the students who signed the petition were informed of what they were signing.

In the implementation order the court said, "Whereas the petition 'for a revised constitution' has been declared null as a result of holding in the case of Johnson vs. United Students Association, this court hereby voids the election scheduled for Sept. 20, 1972."

Johnson said his case is based on the following grounds:

1) The method of obtaining signatures for the referendum petition was questionable.

2) The proposal was written by a select few persons in the executive branch of the USA.

3) The persons supporting this proposal stated that this proposed constitution will provide a more representative form of government; he feels, rather, that it will not be a representative form of government and would be controlled by only a select few persons.

Johnson presented Tommy Dodd, Klondike, a former member of the executive cabinet of the USA, who explained the manner in which the petition was drawn up and presented to the students. Dodd said that there was a hurried inspection of the present constitution, and that those present at a private meeting, Aug. 1, 1972, were given only one week return it with proposals for the revision.

At the next meeting, Aug. 8, 1972, a full proposal was presented which, according to Dodd, had been written by a few persons in the executive branch and with no representative group from other branches of the government or of the student body participating in the draft.

Dodd said that the petition was located near the voter registration table in the registration line and those students coming through the line were asked, "Have you registered to vote?" If they said "Yes" they were told, "Sign here."

Students then signed a piece of paper with a list of numbers on it. He said that most students received no explanation of what the proposal was about and that there were no SEE JUSTICE, Page 8

Western Concert Slated Thursday

A variety of country western instrumental and vocal selections will comprise a concert-dance featuring the Earl Scruggs Revue and recording artist Johnny Bush, to be held at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 21, in the American Ballroom of the Student Center.

The performance is to be a part of the annual Western Week activities taking place at ET Sept. 18-21.

Tickets to the event, priced at $2, are on sale in the Activities Center of the Student Center.

Earl Scruggs, half of the former musical team of Scruggs and Flatt, his two sons Randy and Gary, and a four-man backup band comprise the Earl Scruggs Revue. Scruggs and his troupe will perform a variety of traditional folk music as well as blue grass and other types of country and contemporary music.

Scruggs is known for his background music for the motion picture "Bonnie and Clyde" and the theme for television's "Beverly Hillbillies."

Johnny Bush, a native of Houston, was voted in 1968, the Most Promising Male Vocalist of the Year by Record World Magazine. Included among his recordings are "What A Way To Live," "You Gave Me A Mountain," and "Jim, Jack, and Rose."

The concert-dance will include the presentation of the Western Week awards, to be made at 9 p.m. A "traveling trophy," one passed each year from group to group, will be given to the organization with the most total points for fund raising and participation in the week's activities.

Proceeds from the Western Week activities and fund-raising by campus organizations will be used to finance Children's Day, an annual event in which ET students act as parents to orphans from children's homes in the area.

Intention Cards Dropped

ET students will no longer be required to fill out Registration Intention Cards, according to Don Johnson, assistant director of admissions.

According to Johnson, this means that the intent to register period, originally scheduled for Sept. 25-30, can be disregarded by students.

Card packets will now be processed for the next semester according to the names of students currently enrolled in classes.

"The roll method," Johnson, added, "was used this semester and proved to be much more efficient than the intention card process."

Cassidy To Speak Here Next Week

An organizational meeting of the Northeast Texas Council of Teachers of English at 7 p.m. Monday, Sept. 25, in the Hall of Languages, will feature an address by Frederic G. Cassidy, editor of the Dictionary of America Regional English.

The new English teachers' group is being organized by Cooper Public Schools, Paris Junior College and ETSU. It is an affiliate of the state and National Council of Teachers of English.

Leaders of the Northeast Texas Council include Lucille Bledsoe,

Daloia Offers Rebuttal

Ron Daloia, president of the United Students Association, told The East Texan Monday that he had not received any kind of subpoena from the supreme court. He stated that Chief Justice Billy Hicks, had "asked" him to bring "the petition" to the supreme court meeting Friday.

Daloia said that he thought Hicks meant copies of the Johnson vs. United Students Association petition. Daloia reported that Hicks said, "We can serve a subpoena for the petition, but I don't think it's necessary." He didn't make it clear, according to Daloia, which petition he was talking about.

"I'm not trying to hide anything from you, the Student Senate or the student body. I guess there was a breakdown in communications which caused this misunderstanding."

When asked why the student attorney general had not appeared before the Supreme Court, Daloia said, "None of my cabinet appointments have been confirmed by the student senate, so we really don't have an attorney general. They will be submitted to the senate the first time there is a quorum."

CONCERT DANCE — Country and western recording artist Johnny Bush will appear with the Earl Scruggs Revue at the "Western Week" concert dance, Thursday, Sept. 21, in the American Ballroom of the Student Center.

EDITORIAL

Change Is Still Needed

What will it be—praises and applause, or condemnation and just retribution?

Some will say the proposal of a new constitution, or merely some revision, if you will, was an honest attempt by some interested students to initiate some kind of momentum toward change in a stagnant student body and government. To others it was a flagrant abuse of the trust of the students, an obvious attempt to railroad some heavily-weighted executive legislation through a general vote before anyone was aware of the possible ramifications of such a document.

But the wrists have been slapped, the names have been called and the matter has been ended for the time being by a cancellation of the referendum vote by due process of law which considered the move unconstitutional in its execution. Actually, all facts do point to the negative views of the situation.

In Friday's session of the Supreme Court of the United Student's Association, testimony was heard that indicated the dubious integrity in the methods used to obtain the 10 per cent petition, thus shedding a doubtful light on the entire action. Student Body President Ron Dalioia was also censured in that meeting for his failure to comply with an alleged subpoena of the original petition and the request by the court that he have the attorney general present at the hearing for the defense of the proposal. We must agree to the decision of the court in view of these circumstances and the obvious shortcomings and loopholes in the revision.

Yet, one of the conditions of the ruling stated that such proceedings would be allowed and even condoned if full and correct procedure of law was followed. The efforts and interest of these proponents to change are at least admirable because of their willingness to stick out their necks in order to seek a remedy for the embarrassing ennuui that prevailed in student government last semester. We hope someone will continue the search. Something is still badly needed, but not in this way. —LA

To The Editor:

Apathy is dead at ET! The people who have said that there is no spirit at ET are being put to shame this season. There has been fantastic response at the two pep rallies that have been held this year. Clubs, sororities, fraternities and residence halls are really on their toes this year with banners, chants and a lot of spirit. Pep rallies have offered skits, chants, talks by the team members and spirit from the band. We also have encouraged crowd participation with chants and skits (subject to censor).

Games have been great! We beat East Central Oklahoma State last week 37-14, and our crowd really backed the team. We had a caravan of supporters and some more met us there.

If you haven't participated in the spirit for our team this year, you're missing something. Come to a pep rally (every Thursday night) and be sure to make the games. Get involved! If you have been around and have suggestions concerning how we can boost spirit or get the student body involved, let us know!

Remember, our motto is "CAN DO IN '72!" Come out and see the Lions! They're #1.

UT Artists Show Paintings At Opening SC Exhibition

Paintings by two University of Texas art professors are being exhibited through September at ET.

Sponsored by the Texas Fine Arts Association, 25 works, including acrylics and water colors, are on display in the Student Center as the opening campus exhibition for the fall semester.

The joint exhibit marks a continuation of related work by the two UT artists—Michael Frary and Gibbs Milliken—from the summer of 1972.

Mrs. John Haltom, president of TFAA, headquartered at Laguna Gloria Museum in Austin, said the paintings reflect the versatility and imagination for which Frary is noted, and the personal vision of nature Milliken imparts to the abstract-realism blend in his work.

Frary has earned more than 60 awards and is represented in 40 museums and public institutions. A book of his paintings of the Big Thicket of Texas will be published by the UT Press in 1973.

Milliken is both scientist and artist, with degrees in art and biology. He was a field biologist for the Texas Department of Wildlife and curator of natural science for San Antonio's Witte Museum before joining the UT faculty.

Angelo State won its second game and ran its two-game point total to 90 with a come-from-behind 35-27 win over Abilene Christian College (1-1) Saturday night as Lone Star Conference teams finished pre-conference games.

ASU halfback Charley Franklin rushed for 105 yards and two touchdowns.

Texas A&I bounced back from an opening loss to Texas Southern with an impressive 20-3 win over Trinity, who last week had nipped defending LSC co-champion Southwest Texas, 9-7.

A&I's Ruford Huff rushed for 109 yards and one touchdown, and halfback Clarence Alberts had a 56-yard touchdown run.

Dem Leaders Talk Party Unity

By Sammy Attlesley

Democratic Party Unity was the theme expressed by three state-wide Democratic leaders at a barbecue on the ETSU campus Thursday, Sept. 14.

Commissioner of Agriculture John White of Austin, State Representative-elect Eddie Bernice Johnson of Dallas and former United States Sen. Ralph Yarborough of Austin called for party loyalty for the Nov. 7 general election.

Commissioner White, co-chairman of the Texas McGovern-Shriver campaign, said the Democratic ticket would carry Texas this year. "We can win this year because we have the people for us," he said.

"I share the utter distaste for the Republican administration in the way they have mis-lead the American people. The closest they have come to listening to the American people was when they bugged the Democratic national headquarters," he said.

White said presidential nominee George McGovern would be a great president in the tradition of Abraham Lincoln, Teddy Roosevelt, Franklin Roosevelt and John Kennedy.

Former Sen. Yarborough also lambasted the GOPs, especially Nixon's Vietnam policy. Yarborough said Nixon promised to end the war after he was elected but failed.

"I've been traveling all over Texas, speaking for the national ticket and talking to the people, and the Democratic Party is not slipping in Texas," he said.

Referring to the alleged bugging of the Democratic headquarters by the Republicans, he said, "The Republicans are like a chicken thief with two indictments caught in the chicken coop for the third time."

He did not put any faith in the national polls, which give Nixon a more than 30-point lead over McGovern. "The polls say the Democrats are already defeated, but we're not," he said.

He concluded by saying that the people of Texas and the United States must be set free of the Nixon administration.

State Representative-elect Johnson, referring to the enormous cost of running for president, made a special plea for campaign funds during her brief speech.

Mrs. Johnson said the masses of people in America have felt an alienation from the administration during the past four years. "We are all ready for a change, and I have no doubt that Sen. McGovern can bring about that change," she said. "McGovern is running for president, not for himself, but for the people of the United States," she said.

In his welcoming speech, ET President F. H. McDowell said although the university must remain neutral, he applauded the grass roots effort of any political campaign.

Hunt County Democratic Chairman Larry Green, introduced White; Dr. Johnye Sturcken, dean of the Graduate School, introduced Yarborough; Dr. Nannie Tilley, honorary chairman of the Citizens for McGovern, introduced Mrs. Johnson. Dr. C. L. Farr, speech faculty, served as master of ceremonies.

The barbecue was sponsored by the Citizens for McGovern. Tom Whitesides is local campaign coordinator. Mrs. Cliff Wood was in charge of arrangements.

ET Students To Serve Breakfasts to Children

A free-breakfast program for children living in the Norris Community, located in northeastern Commerce, is being planned by the George Jackson Memorial Center through the Afro-American Student Society at ET.

Larry Jackson, assistant director of the center, said that a survey of the Norris Community showed that an estimated 30 to 50 children will participate in the program beginning Oct. 2, at the center.

According to Jackson, this non-charitable program is to assist parents who are unable to prepare nourishing, hot breakfasts for their children because of early working hours.

Students working through ASSET will prepare the food as well as provide transportation for children to

Members of ASSET are presently on a campus-wide fund raising drive to cover the cost of the food and cooking and eating utensils.

Cost to run the free breakfast program is estimated to be about $250 per month, Jackson said.

Campus organizations, Commerce businesses, and interested persons are asked to contribute to the program.

Contributions may be sent to P. O. Box 443, Commerce, Tex., Jackson said.

Commuter Activities Planned by Center

A new innovation in daytime Student Center entertainment known as "Commuter Day" will hopefully begin Sept. 18, according to George Maguire, Student Center program director.

According to Maguire, the "Commuter Day" program will provide such activities as easy listening with a small orchestra and small coffee houses with folk singers.

Once the idea is initiated, entertainment during class hours will be provided on an every-other-Monday basis. "We believe that it is the responsibility of the Student Center to see that students who are on campus only during the daytime hours are provided with an opportunity for entertainment as well as those that are here in both the daytime and evening hours," said Maguire.

According to Maguire, the entertainment has been tentatively set up for every other Monday from 12:30 through 2:00 p.m. starting Sept. 18.

"I believe that such a program would be of particular interest to commuter students who are using the bus service," said Maguire, "and the majority of the activities we plan will be centered on the west side of Student Center so that the entertainment will be convenient to the bus loading area."

The details of the "Commuter Day" program are still in the planning stage," Maguire added, "and we are open to any suggestions ET students might have concerning its operation."

EVEN RECORD AT 1-1

Lions Claw Tigers, 37-14

By Ken Brazzle

ADA, Okla.—It's called the "Blue Gang" defense, but Saturday night the Lions' defensive unit proved once again how cloudy it can make things for the opposition as ET trounced East Central State, 37-14, before an estimated crowd of 5,000 here.

The Lions' front line of Harvey Martin, Rod Watson, LeRoy Johnson, Phillip Bangs, aided by Curtis Wesley, James Talbot, Doug Walker and Autry Beamon, stopped the Tigers cold in the second half. After allowing two touchdowns in the first half, the Lions stiffened and held East Central scoreless in the second half, while the offensive unit tacked on three scores.

ET's opening score came on a 80-yard run by Beamon. Beamon picked the ball off in mid-air when Rhodes was jarred loose of the ball. The freak play halted a Tigers' drive after the defensive squad had captured the ball on a pass interception by safety Lindle Dempsey.

East Central managed its first score when quarterback James Rhodes teamed up with split end Larry Hix for a 54-yard pass play. The drive covered 62 yards in three plays, as the Tigers got the first eight on runs by Rhodes. The score knotted up at 7-7.

Middle linebacker Talbot recovered a Tiger fumble just before the end of the first quarter and ET's quarterback Will Cureton wasted little time in connecting with tight end Calvin Harris for 38 yards to the nine-yard line. Tailback Kenneth Parks picked up five and then went over from four yards out on the second play, with 14:20 left in the second period. The point after attempt by Jon Washington was good and ET led 14-7.

With time running out in the second period, East Central capped off an 86-yard drive in 14 plays as Gary Garrett crossed over from 4 yards out. The drive was aided by a pass interference call on freshman defensive back Tim Collier and a 15-yard personal foul penalty on tackle Watson for fighting. Watson was later thrown out of the contest along with East Central's offensive tackle Mark McPherson. Craig Wiseman's extra point attempt was true and the Tigers drew within striking distance 17-14.

ET had managed to sandwich a score in before the East Central score on a 43-yard field goal on the part of Washington. It was Washington's first field goal attempt for the Lions this season. ET had driven from its own 34-yard line to the Tigers nine, but the drive halted as two pass attempts fell incomplete.

Early in the second half, the Lions' defensive unit stopped East Central on its own 39-yard line after the Tigers went for the first down on fourth and one. Talbot spoiled things for East Central as he dropped half-back Duard Thomas for a two-yard loss.

From there it took the Lions exactly seven plays to score, with Cureton rolling out around left end from two yards out. Washington's extra point attempt was blocked and the score was 23-14, with 10:25 remaining in the third period.

Cureton finished the night with 10 of 24 for 171 yards, while suffering one interception. Jack Frampton, who finished the game for the Lions after coming in during the third period, completed three of five and also suffered one interception, Parks rushed for 71 yards in 12 carries and fullback Nelson Robinson followed with 31 yards in eight carries.

But the leading ball carrier was John Paul Jones, who took over for Parks in the third quarter and ripped off 97 yards in 15 carries, while adding the last two touchdowns. Jones' first score came in the third period as he ran in from eight yards out, after ET had received the ball on East Central's 42-yard line following Beamon's first pass interception of the evening.

Beamon later picked up his second interception of the night (his fourth in two games), and the Lions drove the ball in for the score again, with Jones scoring from five yards out. Jones gave the fans his impression of the "Elmo Wright dance" after both scores. Wright, a former University of Houston star, plays professional football for the Kansas City Chiefs.

ET's Slice Top LSC Receiver

By Ken Brazzle

How can a guy like ET's Dudley Slice lead the conference in receiving? Let's face it, Slice isn't exactly the classic example of the modern day split end.

Some say that he doesn't have the speed, while others contend that his height is against him. But Slice, at 5-10, and 160 pounds, has proven them all wrong, and is leading the Lone Star Conference in receiving, coming into the third week of league action.

In the two games that ET has played, the 19-year old sophomore has caught six passes for 77 yards against Abilene Christian College and seven for 93 yards last Saturday against East Central State. Those figures are good enough to lead LSC receivers, with 13 catches for 170 yards.

Since Slice has all those uncertain qualities against him, why is he leading the league?

"It's just a matter of being able to work on a defensive back one-on-one. Will Cureton (quarterback) has been able to find me in the open and this enables us to improve on our timing. But this leading the conference in receiving really doesn't mean

Fox Lauds Tough 'Blue Gang'

By Ken Brazzle

Ask defensive coach Bobby Fox to single out any player for his performance against East Central State and chances are he'll name the whole "Blue Gang" defensive team.

"Middle linebacker James Talbot played an outstanding game and so did Autry Beamon, Harvey Martin, Phillip Bangs, and LeRoy Johnson. I was a little disappointed in some of our corner play, but one can not fault them too much, playing against an offense (Houston Veeer) such as East Central's. They were difficult to contain," Fox said.

Although the Lions held East Central scoreless in the second half, the Tigers were able to place two touchdowns on the scoreboard in the first half, while accounting for only 281 yards total offensive yardage for the game.

"We played fair the first half, and the second half we played pretty good. We still made some mistakes, but that is expected when one plays against the type of offense East Central employs," Fox said.

One of the Tigers' score came on a 54-yard pass play as the Lions' safety man was caught looking. Fox indicated that the safety was supposed to take the split end, but he simply over ran the play, which resulted in the score. East Central came back to mount a drive late in the second period to post its second and last touchdown of the night. In the second half, the "Blue Gang" made its presence felt as the team checked the Tigers for a mere 65 total offensive yards. ET stopped East Central twice on fourth down situations and picked up two interceptions.

Asked if he made any adjustments during the halftime, Fox said, "We played our basic defense and just re-established our assignments. The players were a little more alert in the second half. Again this week, just as last week, we had good effort from the squad."

Credit has to be given also to the offensive unit, which scored 30 points. The offensive squad took advantage of the good field position provided by the defensive squad in the second half and scored three times. ET scored twice after Beamon had intercepted passes, and once after East Central was held on fourth and one.

The kicking game showed much improvement from the first game against Abilene Christian College as punter Jon Washington took over the place kicking chores. Washington connected on his first field goal attempt from 43 yards out but later missed one from 34 yards out. Washington was four for five in the extra point department, with one blocked.

KAs, Striders Post Wins

By Sam Walker

Kappa Alpha took no pity on Delta Tau Delta Thursday, Sept. 14, as the KAs steamed to a 24-0 victory in the fraternity division opening contest.

The defeat started early for the Deltas as the KAs ran back the opening kickoff 85 yards to score. The point after attempt failed, and the score was 6-0.

In the second quarter, Drew Barrett returned a Delt punt 30 yards, and two plays later quarterback Gary Luttrell connected with Terry Davis for the second touchdown.

With time running out in the first half, Luttrell tossed a couple of passes to Ken Little and Tommy Treadway before hooking up with Little again for the KA's third score. The conversion attempt failed for the third time and the KAs led at the half, 18-0.

The final touchdown came in the third period when Luttrell went over from the one. The play had been aided by a pass interference call on the one-yard line.

Soul Striders 27, Berry 0

The Soul Striders began the season by shutting out Berry, 27-0, last Wednesday. After Berry failed to gain a first down following the opening kickoff, halfback James Hatley scored for the Striders on a 40-yard scamper on the first offensive play.

Samuel McClellan scored again for the Striders on a 25-yard pass from quarterback Alvin Lawton late in the first quarter. Arthur Cook caught the two-yard pass for the conversion.

The Striders built their lead to 20-0 in the second quarter on a 60-yard touchdown pass from Lawton to Ronald Clark. Cook was again called on for the PAT.

Cook scored midway through the final quarter on a five-yard pass from Lawton for the Striders last TD. Cook also scored the PAT.—VERNON ROBERTSOIN

During the second half, Kennemer hit Freddy Johnson for a touchdown. Sikes was unable to make any conversions on their touchdowns and had a 95-yard punt return by Johnson nullified by a clipping penalty. Sikes had another touchdown called back when Sanders dropped one of his flags.—J. D. WELLS

Sig Eps 12, Pi Kapps 6

Scoring in the last minute of the second overtime period, the Sig Eps edged the Pi Kapps, 12-6, last Thursday. Jim Vanderpool scored the Pi Kapps only touchdown in the first quarter on a 40-yard pass play.

Eddie Shawn's touchdown grab in the second quarter tied the score for the Sig Eps. It remained that way until Johnny Walker intercepted a Pi Kapps' pass and returned it for a TD.—SAM WALKER

Top Deadline Near

The deadline for turning in applications for Texas Opportunity Plan loans is Oct. 15, according to Bill Prewett, assistant financial aids director.

Prewett said students should have their applications completed and turned into the TOP office on the first floor of the Student Affairs Building at this time.

Prewett cautioned that an application is not complete unless it contains response from the two required personal references. He said students contact the people they use as references and ask them to respond as soon as possible.

Any student who is independent of his parents or guardians may apply for a loan. Prewett said a student is independent from his parents or guardian if he has not within the last 12 months received more than $200 from them, been claimed as a dependent on their last income tax filing, and has not lived with them for the past 12 months.

TOP is federally insured, which means that the federal government will pay the interest on the loan while the student is in school. When a student receives a check he will also be given an interest form to fill out and return. If the student fails to do so he will be charged the interest while in school. Interest is a simple seven per cent.

Prewett said that a student on a TOP loan may have his tuition deferred if his check has not arrived at the time of registration. A list of checks that have arrived is posted on the bulletin board outside the TOP office.

ET was the fourth largest loaner in the state last year, loaning an estimated $1.5 million to students, according to Prewett. Prewett expects this year's loans to reach the same amount.

copies of the proposal or the present constitution available to those who did sign the petition.

Dodd said there were about 1,000 signatures on the paper. He also added that he had recently resigned from the executive cabinet "due to personal reasons."

Chief Justice Billy Hicks, Mount Vernon senior, stated that he had subpoenaed the executive branch of the USA to submit their arguments to the Johnson petition and to submit the original petition to the court. USA Atty. Gen. Eleanor Harrison, Commerce freshman, failed to appear before the court to present a defense to any of the motions presented to the Court Friday.

Hicks stressed the point several times that the court is authorized to meet in accordance with the present constitution even though there are only three justices. The justices are Daloia, James Penney, Naples junior; and Mack Andrews, Greenville graduate.

Hicks said that Daloia had appointed three new justices to the court Friday morning. However, Hicks stated, they have not been confirmed by a majority of the Senate and he therefore ruled their appointments unconstitutional.

The court refused to hear arguments in a petition submitted by Robert Mansker, former graduate senator during the 1972 spring semester. Hicks stated that the petition was a challenge to the special election called by former USA president Darrell Glueck in the spring semester. Hicks continued that the court had attempted to hear the arguments for the petition on three different occasions and that Mansker had failed to appear before the court on all three occasions. Hicks stated that the court will take no further action on Mansker's petition.

The final action heard by the court was presented by Robert Long, Mount Vernon sophomore. Long's petition was a request that the court rule on the disposition of those persons in office at this time if the proposed constitution is ratified.

Long said the proposed constitution states that it "will become effective upon ratification." Long said that the student government would be left with a long period of "insecure leadership" due to the fact that elections would not be held again until the spring semester.

Hicks said that the court would not rule on the Long case due to the decision in the Johnson petition rendering the proposed constitutional referendum null and void.
