During the past month there has been several very interesting relics acquired for the Historical Museum. Dr. C. T. Meun, curator of the museum, among which was a Mosaic Aeronautics from the late Dr. P. H. Prith of Charleston, Texas who labored in it from his grandfather, J. P. Prith. The aeronaut was presented to Mr. Prith in Bogota, Pariah, La., and is possibly over a century old.

Miss White also stated that much art work on the book has already been completed. She states that the beauty section and the work will be here in a few weeks this year. However, these departments have been done only in one color.

THE GIFT GIVING SEASON
 Christmas, of course, and the days that preceded it, is the miracle season. On that momentous occasion too, was established the gift giving practice of Christmas, and we who remember each other by tokens of esteem in Commerce, unbeknownst, undoubtedly, hearken back with curiosity and tradition to the scene in Bethlehem. It isn't a far step perhaps we might, with humility and rejoicing, go back over the story centuries for a moment. See the soft Jordan hills flooded with heavenly light; behold the flaming star of the East guiding the three wise men... burned, on so lightly with their precious gifts, Melchior with flowing white hair and sweeping snowy beard; Caspar, a beautiful bearded man in the prime of life, promulgating age youth and middle age, bowing to the cradle in the manger and the King of the Jews.
 They bring from afar their gifts of gold and frankincense and myrror to the King of Kings and the King, we are told, is filled with heavenly sound from on high in our own little environments, the confessions of sinners.
 Christmas, with the gossip of Main street is mingled. I would believe, the gospel of the past, radiating with holiness.
 The season of giving and receiving. We cannot forget our friends, neglect the church where they have been a part or parcel of our lives, the church of the living and the dead, men, all in Commerce or in Bethlehem have a short season before them.

COLLEGIATE ALCOHOLISM
 Prohibition is, of course, fast becoming a subject upon whose merits and demerits too writers range and find of which the more conservative step. It is becoming a problem of increasing magnitude; and at the present time, one of the greatest problems is facing therefrom is the drinking in college.
 And, in the midst of all this, it is something vital to every community. Recently colleges and college towns have come into the already strong limelight by tragedies resulting from drinking.
 The work of placing Christmas trees in front of every business establishment has been completed this afternoon, under the direction of the Kair Club, which has sponsored the collection of support for their purchase. The city plant will be all placed with colored lights together with the large tree set up on the Square and will also install the colored light streamers across Main street and along the West and South sides of the Square and down Adams street.
 City officials intend that during the holidays Commerce will be more elaborately decorated and illuminated with more Christmas lights than ever before.

SONG OF A SIMPLIFON
 I can not sing with clever tricks.
 Or use man's discrimination
 And gaze a fact with a superficial compliment.
 I can see your eyes are anything but kind.
 Your nose perhaps needs a touch of powder.
 Ask me, it's blunderingly left off.
 You've not quite up to par,
 you.
 You have too much rouge,
 Or even if your hair is Auburn
 It'll blunt on I like Auburn hair.
 (And then wonder why all the state).

WITHOUT WORDS

Your smile and faint laughter faded through autumn
 misty as falling leaves and the soft rain
 soaking into plangent mood.
 You are quiet.

Tigers Honored At Banquet

Members of the Les Premiera, a new Junior club of this city, entertained with an elaborate banquet Saturday night, Dec. 6, having as honor guests the members of High school football team.
 The O'Neal building on the West Side of the Square, in which the banquet was held, was decorated with high school colors and a large high school pennant being hung on the back wall. Tables were arranged in the shape of a football goal, huge boxes of orange and black paper adorning the back of each chair.
 As the guests arrived they were greeted by Misses Mary Lou Keston, club sponsor, Charlie Joe Irwin and Jessie Lee England. The assembly period was spent on the balcony which was decorated to represent a nativity scene.
 Prof. A. L. Day, superintendent of Commerce public schools, gave the invocation. Miss Mary Lou Keston greeted the guests, proposing toasts to the coaches and the captain of the team. J. L. Long acted as toastmaster.
 Horace Powell, with two vocal numbers, Mrs. L. B. England with a beautiful reading and Miss Sue Irwin in an appropriate dance closed the program. The guests in the "time out" periods, between courses.
 Following the last course, responses to toasts were given by coaches, Morris, Wells and Bryan, by Dr. W. T. Cornelius, A. L. Day, Miss Morrison, pep speaker, and Fisher Draper, captain.

The clever favors attracted much attention being a miniature football player with a ball in hand, headed for the Commerce goal.
 The cheer was given by the club and were escorted to the balcony where they were received by the other members.
 Preceding the banquet a reception was held in the balcony which was arranged as a nativity scene.

Lions Honored With Banquet

Honoring the East Texas Lions, La Crochets entertained Thursday evening at 1220 Washington street with an elaborate banquet.
 Guests were greeted at the door by the officers of the club and were escorted to the balcony where they were received by the other members.

Toanoowee Has Indoor Picnic

On Saturday evening at 6:30 Toanoowee entertained with a delightful indoor picnic at the home of Miss Ann Workman. Invitations to the affair were printed on orange paper. Club members and guests gathered in the living room before the first glass sitting on pillows and rugs. After several games were played the boys were told to hunt through the rooms for treasure. They found bags of paper coins, Waddy Stark, acting as auctioneer, sold these boxes to the highest bidder, who used their paper money. The boxes, which had been hidden in the room for treasure, contained picnic lunches. Coffee was served after eating, the group played more games.
 Club members sat guests invited to the home. Guests and club members present were: Curtis Cameron, Waddy Stark, Welcomes Wright, Leon Thurman, Blackie Bond, Steve Taylor, J. O. Merchants Recite Figures On Commodities 10 to 35 Per Cent Lower Than 1929

Quality Of Merchandise Identical But Prices Greatly Reduced

The buyer today should expect a greater pleasure in his purchases of "cheap" than those of December 1929 particularly if the buyer who obtains a portion of his enjoyment in getting more for his money, declares merchants of this city in comparing prices for commodities of this season with those of last year.

"Quality haven't changed an iota," declared one merchant. "Many manufacturers have added quality and maintained the same standard of quality, while others have obtained to the former quality but owing to reductions in operation costs, lower raw products prices and from other causes, have still been able to reduce."

Following interviews with such merchants as J. C. Penney Co., 3 Beall Bldg., White, Miss Deble's, Barrett, Hess & Brown, Texas Power & Light Co., Alamo, The Tea Co., O'Neil Paint & Hardware Co., Freeman & Holdaway, J. H. H. Natural Gas Co., H. St. Louis, Plumbing & Hardware, Wheelers Drug Co., Tire & Rubber Co., and the Furniture Company and many others the consensus of opinion is that the average Dollar today is worth at least 25 per cent more than the dollar of 1929.

Foodstuffs—Cotton goods, for instance, in the staple, range of 14 and 16 cents per yard are today selling for 10 cents a yard. The $1.25 to $1.50 range is now between 10 and 20 cents. Silk goods are from 25 to 30 per cent lower than the prices of last year. Millinery is about 25 per cent off while silks are lower. A number of stores reflect a material reduction. How much last year at this time sold in $1.00 to $2.00 range now sells for 50 cents to $1.50. Jewelry, including rings, mountings, necklaces, watches, etc., is about 25 per cent off, while silverware, including sterling and high grade glass, and other high grade brands is 15 per cent off. Lamp goods, in the electrical supply business show a 20 per cent reduction in price, though the reductions have been gradual and generally falling off for the past twelve months. Christmas lighting fixtures are about 10 per cent lower. Electric irons which last year sold for $17.50 same quality, same materials and same brand, now are selling on the local market for $5.95.

Foodstuffs and other necessities reductions appear particularly attractive. refined lard shows a reduction of 3 cents a pound. Where 3 No. 2 cans of tomatoes formerly sold for 30c they now sell for 25c. dried black-eyed peas were 3 lbs for 35c now we can buy them anywhere for 3 lbs for 25c. All brands of flour show reductions of not less than 4 cents a pound, dried peaches are about 7c a pound off, meat is from 5 to 10 per cent off in price. Groceries in general show a general falling off of about 25 per cent, some items being more radically reduced than others. The following items show a decline: flour 20 per cent, sugar 10 per cent, salmon 15 per cent, French meat 25 per cent, pineapples 50 per cent, some coffee as much as 50 per cent, soap 10 per cent, lard 25 per cent.

Judge Holds Ban Sunday Movies Unconstitutional

Chicago, Dec. 10.—An Evansville, Ill. ordinance prohibiting the showing of moving pictures on Sunday has been held by Circuit Judge Phillip L. Sullivan to be religiously discriminatory and therefore unconstitutional.

His decision, announced yesterday, held that persons of faith celebrating the Sabbath on days other than Sunday had the right to six days of amusement. At the same time he ruled that a referendum in Evansville in April favoring Sunday movies did not compel the city council to legalize them by ordinance.

An injunction to restrain the Evansville police department from closing Sunday movies is still pending.

Auto License Tags to Be Issued in Commerce

County Tax Collector, W. R. Gray while in Commerce Wednesday completed arrangements with L. E. Puller, with offices at the Pioneer Harvester Co., for the collection of auto mobile license fees and the distribution of 1931 Auto License tags to those in the city and vicinity who wish to avail themselves of the convenience.

Mr. Puller will conduct the office here at the convenience of anxious occasions in the past, having all necessary supplies for the purpose including passenger and commercial car number plates, receipt forms, transfers, etc. Tax collector Gray maintains the office during the balance of the month at his own expense. For the convenience of tax payers of this section who would find it more convenient to secure their license plates here than to go to the county seat at Greenville.

Why Pay More?

Dry cleaning of men's wear is done at a wide range of prices. One cleaner charges 80 much another fifty percent more. A third, just half of that.

Why Pay More?

well, you can rest assured you are not going to get more than for nothing in dry cleaning.

The QUALITY CLEANER has set a high standard of workmanship. He insists on doing the finest work possible. He uses the best materials and restores to their original cleanliness and smartness... or as near as their condition permits.

His work is not HIGHER PRICED. He does not charge more. HE GIVES MORE, and charges accordingly... and the work of the QUALITY CLEANER is like to be the cheapest in the long run... when you consider his RESPONSIBILITY for the skill and care employed to preserve the full wearing qualities of your apparel.

He acts as HIS patrons those who value their appearance most. Who care more for how well their apparel looks than who care how cheaply they can have it cleaned.

Isn't THIS the kind of dry cleaning service you prefer?

'Regades' Is Talking Picture

The same group will play for the Commerce community here program to be held in this city.

The with the present known as "Regades" being applied to "everybody" from politics to philanthropy, the movies are now taking it up.

In making "Regades" for Fox Movietone, Director Victor Fleming has stripped away the false glamor surrounding the Foreign Legion and in its place gives a thrilling but authentic portrait of life as it really is in the famous organization.

"The Legion is exciting enough and romantic enough in reality," says Fleming, "without giving a highly colored impression of what it is."

"What many persons overlook is the fact, despite its military record, the Legion is essentially an industrial army, its campaigns against the bandits of France are the only results of its activity that reach the daily papers, but for each day of fighting and skirmishing there is a month of plaid harem suit-making, road tripping, sales, erecting forts, peering into unsettled territory, digging wells, and generally opening up the interior of Morocco and Algeria to civilization."

Sherman Votes School Bonds

Sherman, Texas, Dec. 10.—By a majority of more than 9 to 1 vote of Sherman passed favorably "Common Clay," also known as $90,000 in bonds for purchase of a site and erection of a new school building in the North Fifth ward in an election called by the city commissioner for submission of the same. Official figures showed 728 votes for the bonds and 194 against.

The heaviest majority was returned from the ward in which the school is to be located, the count being 483 for to 18 against, the adjoining half-block, the South Fifth ward, with 199 for and 21 against, ranking second in the size of its vote. Majorities, however, were returned in all of the wards of the city.

"John Tulloch, local architect, who has been engaged to draw plans for the building, will begin work as soon as an option for the school has been returned," officials said. Work is to be started at the earliest possible time, it was announced.

Baseball

BY "BLACKIE"

The baseball boys are hurrying into form very hurriedly now the boys who were the arrival of Mustang meet from SMU to make a take-out out of the camp they were competition with Captain Oliver Stringer at the helm being aided by Honorable Captain Walter H. Acker. He should be able to steer clear of sandbars and also clear the about these things called "Fountain of Youth" in the Happy Hunting Grounds.

For the benefit of those who are not in a position to get acquainted with the boys on the team, we will try to give you a little valuable information concerning each player that we think you ought to know.

Captain Oliver Stringer is a product of Ben Wiesel's, Texas. He played with the Lions last year and was able to rate an A-TIAA position on the team to make the second time he has accomplished that feat. The first was during in Canyon when he was playing with the West Texas Buffaloes. We are unable to give you any more information to rate such a berth in Canyon but we know that he's the trouble here last year after what happened pretty soon after the basketball season.

We know that he was terribly interested in something in the past occasionally but we don't really know what was anti-what you girls needn't try anything because here always paid that came.

One that was B.T. wearing a pair of trousers half way up his knees and giving barefeet. He was his address as twelve miles out of Tyler West. It took a long time to get out of these modern basketball suits on him but he was in the state he was in for some time. For two years he has been an all-conference football player and he was in the state he was in for some time. The only thing that we can get out of him is that he can contribute his success to East Texas State and we can give you a opinion to Palmiro-Lucio.

To make the list of Stringer's complete Curtis joined them and a now giving his bit to forward the cause of Lion Baret ball being a brother to do down. We have the low down on him already. However, we prefer to admit that he knows anything about Ribbon King.

There is a man by the name who wears more neck means than any other man on the squad. You might be interested to know that his last one is "Ears". At any rate, if you can find out anything about it just ask Cleola White.

"Longfellow" Jones boasts of having used more rosin on the seat of his trousers than any other fellow wearing a pair of pants. He contributes his play down to being to fall to down on the floor.

Grady Parker thought could stay out and work but he was out was 1927. He is the little Bo Peep. "Lain" the dog alone and they'll come home bringing their tails behind them. The old girl sister of Mary Ann Mills, Arkansas. He came here in 1927 and was a member of the team. He was a player that proved to be so our advantage, but he certainly has given us a lot of trouble.

We return to tell where the boys were before. This morning played with the Texas Training school; however, we aren't in a position to give you any more information.

Very nice people came from that part of the state. The county. We're expecting Wad to deliver a lot this year and we'll be glad to see him.

Elton Aker is quite a bit older than his teeth would lead you to believe. He has been counted on upon to do a nice job at it.

"Fruit Salad" Gardner says that he didn't know so much about these things called basketballs and footballs when he first came up here, but he believes that he is going to like the game fairly well. He falls from the big city of Fort Worth.

Milburn Smith is a new addition from the city of Missouri. He is a member of the impression that he lives close to Winnfield then he does to Pleasant. It goes to be a problem for Skipper Aker to decide just which position he can play best, since he performs at one about as good as the other. Possibly we can work him in as a time being in Canyon when he was playing with the West Texas Buffaloes.

Joe Burks did quite a bit of performing of "The Little Girl" in the past year. We are unable to give you any more information to rate such a berth in Canyon but we know that he's the trouble here last year after what happened pretty soon after the basketball season.

A stranger happened by the night and saw "Elton" Simpson performing "I know where that guy lives from the way he throws his leg back" he muttered. Upon close examination he explained "Why you can't find a fellow from Van Zandt Co. anywhere you see him".

Robert Yarborough is a native of Westchester Born and raised there and this is his first trip away from home we know because he goes home every week-end. We can't find any information on him now but we will follow by the year is over.

Flepsy Denn is as long as a stretched grape. He is a fellow didn't deny being related to Long. At any rate, he knows if he ever was that. He is a fellow to act on it. Just how he can be related to boys who are expected to be a member of the team.

Andrew and Sellers are new additions to the squad this year and we were unable to find out anything about them, but as soon as we get a reply from the Rules we'll get about them. As for Sellers, we can't find any information on him. He is "O". By the way, he is a member of the basketball team.

"Sensibler" that's a fellow who is supposed to have been from Clovis New Mexico. But we are sorry that such information is so. We don't know how he started that C. on his hair. It is a small fellow down in Van Zandt with a population of about 150. It is reported that he used to lead singing every Sunday afternoon down at that place.

Floyd Bradshaw is still playing a pet knee, but we'll likely find out to do a uniform after a while.

Cornelius McGilverski Speid is a fellow who is supposed to be from this time. He is a fellow who is supposed to be from London. He is a fellow who is supposed to be from London. He is a fellow who is supposed to be from London.

Many Additions

There are about 1922. The following are the names of the twenty-four denominations were donated to the Museum by Mrs. J. H. Brown. This money was a part of a roll of fifty thousand dollars, which was in possession of Mrs. Deane.

Local Pastor On Executive Baptist Group

Hundreds of Commerce Baptists gathered for the meeting with the receipt of news from Dallas of the selection of the Rev. B. H. Hinton, pastor of the local Baptist Church, as a member of the executive committee of the Texas general body which closes its sessions Wednesday.

The final days program included the re-election of officers, adoption of the 1921 budget of nearly $600,000, and the starting of the campaign for the $250,000 greater Baylor drive.

The important work of naming trustees for the newly organized Baptist foundation which will have charge of all endowment properties of the state Baptist institutions, was completed Tuesday, with the following members: H. L. Kobner, San Antonio; A. C. Culbertson, Ft. Worth; J. M. Nash, Waxahatchee; W. W. McMillan, Houston; H. Fuqua, Austin; and George S. Anderson, Abilene.

Members of the board and Baptist leaders denied during the morning session Tuesday that the foundation would be a trust, but stated that institutions still would be in full control of their own management.

Dr. Forrest Smith of Fort Worth was re-elected president of the executive board and Dr. Wallace Bassett, Dallas, was re-elected secretary.

The executive committee of the executive board was named as follows: Robert H. Fuqua, Dr. W. Marshall Craig, Cullen P. Thomas, Dr. George W. Trucks, Earl B. Smith, Dr. Wallace Bassett, B. B. Hurt all of Dallas; Rev. C. V. Edwards and Dr. L. H. Hickerson, Commerce; J. R. Sherman, Fort Worth; J. P. E. Sherman, Ft. Worth; H. McKenzie, Waxahatchee; J. Howard Williams, Corsicana; W. Charolter, Mineral Wells; and S. B. Clippenger, Cleburne.

All members of the Y. P. U. executive board were re-elected and Miss Bonnie Gimes of Nacogdoches was elected chairman. Mrs. Jane Elder was named recording secretary. J. B. Barrett, Palestine, chairman of the finance committee, and Robert Jolly, Houston, was re-elected chairman of the encampment committee.

Plans for refurnishing the encampment property at Palestine were left for a report at the next board session.

Another bill had been given to be for safe keeping at Rome, Ga. When Forrest was raising thru West Georgia, a million ball perched the game containing the money. The marks of the ball can be seen on the edges of the bill.

Other donations were: Eight specimens of coins and manuscripts, mostly books, presented by the Texas Oil & Sulphur Co., through the efforts of O. Smith, German town (it's printing 1874, donated by Sylvia Paul, Dallas; a $100.00 bill, donated by Mrs. W. R. Swain; French ten cent piece; $100.00 Morris County, Ga. 1880, donated by Mrs. J. H. Brown, born in 1822; two Indian pieces near his farm on the farm of J. H. Brown, born in 1822; the Miller; a $100.00 bill, donated by Mr. Satcher of Commerce; eight silver dollars, donated by Mrs. Albert Armstrong of Commerce; thirty dollar

Malaria Tests To Be Made In Hunt County

As a part of the state-wide malaria survey, H. W. Stanley, of the Public Health department of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce, told a group of physicians and club women Monday at a meeting at the Greenville Chamber of Commerce of the plans for the eradication as far as possible of the malaria-carrying mosquito.

Those who heard Mr. Stanley were: Dr. W. C. Morrow, president of the Hunt County Medical Society; Dr. A. C. Prather, County Health Officer; Dr. R. F. Arnold, City Health Officer; Mrs. George B. Jackson, president of the Business and Professional Women's Club and Mrs. L. J. James, of the City Council Parent-Teachers Association.

The plans for the survey include the taking of blood tests. These tests will be sent to Washington for analysis, and will be followed by a program of "mosquito-proofing"—the screening of all houses in protection from the relapsing. This gun was made by the Gardiner Gun Works, Lancaster, Penn.
