VOLUME XIII COMMERCE, TEXAS THURSDAY, FEB. 19, 1931. NUMBER 32

This Week

BY LEON THURMAN

Again signal honor has been bestowed upon Louis Wilson "Bo" Woolley. News of this honor reached Commerce early Thursday morning what a special dispatch promulgated the fact that Bo has a new name-sake. And it is a little nephew. This Week has heard the theory of "like father like son", but wonders if "like uncle like nephew" will work.

With the Buffaloes leading the Western half of the TIAA it seems only natural that Lions should be leading the Eastern half. The victory over the old rivals of the Lions' on Tuesday night left the Lions on top with the percentage of .888, along with the personal satisfaction of defeating the Eagles.

The same bunch that yelled so much the other night will be at the game when we invade the haunts of the North Texas Eagles with the same sort of stuff that we always have and that is the stuff that it takes to get results in the form of a victory.

Tuesday night proved to be a rather entertaining one for a number of the students from Denton as well as quite a few of the "Local Lads" who were in the mood to sever all connections with a few of the much sought after dollars which had been previously sent to them by their papas and their mammas from back home. At least there was a good crowd at the Marcell Glass and This Week is sure that all of them did not prove themselves such talented artists at "reaching the gate" which, by the way, is a profession rather than an art.

And again the campus of O. E. T. is infested with what is becoming a common thing at this institution. This Week does not exactly think that they are a parasite but is somewhat of a loss as to what to term them. They seem to be rather indelible characters and one startling characteristic is that they all carry guns and are for the most part Deputy Sheriffs even if they do class themselves as fine fighters. They each express a different motive for the coming but in turn they each want to do a little scoring for the name "team" which they can keep for as long as something other than pre-war beer. But they are not so bad.

Speaking of point and other chicken infections, This Week has noticed something of the new fad and maybe it is an old one revived. It happened the other day when one of our popular campus loafers ventured out to brave the furies of the public gully attired in a pair of golf knickers with the two places where the socks should have been, quite bare.

Speaking of infections there has been a great deal of discussion around not only the campus but also in the business world as to just what is wrong with the upper lip of Weldon Kibler. It is so ugly why, if not why not and a number of other things that had no particular bearing whatever on the subject of lips. Some say that it is the remnant of a Christmas tree and some say that it is the grass that grew around the tree. This still remains to be proven to the seniors that this is, in nearly the most modern method used to rid one of dandruff.

"The method is very simple."

LIONS TAKE FIRST CLASH FROM DENTON; WIN FROM KINGSVILLE

Javelins Drowned In 2 Contests By Lions

The Lions continued their winning streak by taking a couple of one-sided affairs at the expense of the Kingsville Javelins. Both teams played hard but the Lions had an edge of their ability. The games were marked by the number of fouls called—25 being called in the first one and 26 in the second.

In the first encounter Captain Oliver Stringer took it upon himself to lead the attack and with 17 first points to his credit coupled with 3 free throws to total 11 points was easily the leading scorer of the game. The remaining 23 counters were about equally divided between Harold Stringer, Castleberry, Curtis Stringer, and Yarborough.

Regres and Sessler were outstanding performers for the visiting club in both games; however, Hov proved to be quite a dependable performer in the at-termatch accounting for 8 of their 20 markers.

Scoring was fairly well divided in the second game for the Lions. Yarborough taking the lead with 11 points followed closely by Oliver with 7 and Harold and Castleberry tied with 7 each.

With these two game-chalked up to their credit, the Lions now enjoy a comfortable seat on the top of the Eastern half in the race to overtake them.

E. T. Floor Game Proved to be Near Perfect

Playing before a packed gymnasium, the East Texas Lions defeated the Denton Eagles in a game here Tuesday, by a score of 46-34. It was a free scoring contest from the tip-off until the last, and in several instances the play left the spectators dizzy with excitement. Especially was this true towards the closing moments of the initial period, when the Eagles would vent on a scoring fight to pull within three points of the Lion lead.

East Texas counted first at Denton had failed possession of the ball and carried it to their end of the court, only to lose it to the East Texans. A moment later H. Stringer slipped the ball through the East Texas goal for two counters. A moment later Yarborough raised it to four, when he connected on a long shot from near the side line. O. Stringer came in for his share of the applause when he took the ball, proved, and then dropped it through the ring from near the center of the court. This was the most spectacular shot of the evening. A fan called a time 'out' at this point, but the rest period failed to cool off the Lions, as C. Stringer

Students From Texarkana Are Visitors Here

Miss Robble Norris, of Texarkana Junior High School faculty, a graduate of the College, was a guest at the dormitory last week. She was present at the reception given Ruth Cross, Texas Novelist and former school mate of hers, who was a guest of the College.

Other visiting from Texarkana over the week end were Roy Jackson of Commerce, Miss Frances Thurman of Commerce, Miss Mary Cunningham of New Boston, and Miss Margaret Klein of Texarkana, all of whom are teaching in that city, and are former students of this institution.

A. Dale Drake Visits Campus

A. Dale Drake, 1930 graduate of the College, was a visitor on the campus during the past week end. Dr. Drake is now a member of the Trinidad High school faculty. He served two years in this college in the capacity of business manager of the East Texas an done year as editor in chief of the publication. During the time he also served on the staff of the Locust, worked in the Registrar's office, played in the majority of the Little Theatre productions, and took an active part in social clubs and other organizations on the campus.

Preregistration Will Start Soon

All students now registered in the college will be expected to make out their schedule for the Spring quarter before the Winter quarter closes.

Opportunity will be given students to register for the Spring quarter beginning February 23rd, and ending February 28th. Students will be expected to get copy of the schedule, together with two schedule cards from the Registrar's Office, one for their own use and one for the use of the office. Students are requested not to get more than two cards and it is suggested that they do not get them until they are ready to complete their schedule. They will be less likely to misplace or lose the cards.

Students are urged to attend to this promptly, students will then take these cards to their respective teachers. Each teacher will be expected to OK the student's work that will be under his supervision; to illustrate the teacher of Biology 111 will put his OK on the student's schedule if the student registers for Biology

Kalir Klub Entertain 60 At Dinner Dance

One of the most elaborate and entertaining affairs ever held in Commerce was the annual Valentine Dinner Dance of the Kalir Klub. Dinner for sixty was served in the open court of the Education building, which was profusely decorated with Japanese red and white streamers. Tables were laid in red and white covers marked with valentine place cards and favors of red and white tissue were scattered all over the floor. In the center of the room a large table of Nut and vegetable salad in lettuce roll, chicken à la king, fried fish, fish balls, potato balls, cranberry jelly, hot rolls, coffee, with whipped cream, individual banana pies topped with red hearts, saluted the Immediately following the dinner dancing in the club Gym began the dance floor with a special enclosure of red and white streamers. Entrance to this enclosure was made through an immense red heart ten feet in height. The ceiling was decorated with white, while the floor was decorated with red balloons accentuating the color scheme. The orchestra section was converted into a red heart, by means of a huge heart suspended from the ceiling, dropping a complete wall of red streamers to the floor. Several spotlights of red light gave the only illumination which added to the charm of the unique decoration. Cherish cards were passed throughout the evening.

The Louisiana Night Hawk, a six piece negro orchestra from KWJH, Shreveport furnished the music for the occasion. This was one of the best orchestras to play on E. T. Campus and kept the guests in a continual upsurge with their new arrangements of old melodies, and with the newest of song hits.

At 10 o'clock those who love special songs and dance acts was given with Tenorzy Brody acting as master of ceremonies. Little Sue Irwin in a red valentine costume, gave a most striking dance to the accompaniment of E. T. Sellers' waltz "Hurt" and "You're the One I Care For." Mrs. Warren in yellow ballet costume gave a delightful dance.

Journal Sports Scribble to Report Denton Game

Homer England, Commerce Editor of the Denton, will represent Denton and cover the Lion-Beagle contest Friday night exclusively for the Journal. His interest in Commerce is running high, as this is the last game of the Lion-Beagle contest, and much depends upon the Lions taking the game from the Beagles. Because of this interest our sports writer will give a most detailed report of the game.

as a basketball

BY "BLACKIE"
Down went the lid with a terrible crash and only one more moment when the lid of the TFAA will be closed and sealed. The Lions rushed out before solid walls of cheerleaders administered a hasty veto to the Denton Eagles that will go down in the history of the institution as one of the most exciting games ever witnessed on the local court.

The Lions cannot do any less now than go into a tie with Sam Marston in case the Sobocan win of their next game, one with Huntville and the other with Nacogdoches, and the Lions lose their last game, but that only goes as supposition and as possibilities which are not at all probabilities for with a team in such form as the five men who took the court Tuesday night and went on through the entire game without either there is not a chance for an Eagle to pass.

It is not a lie to say that I denched this division of the race, did both Oliver Stringer and Harold Strider in the place were for them on the outside, two men playing the type of basketball that these two men have been demonstrating as a team. by 2 points in a game at Abilene and the year before by points in a game with Nacogdoches. We're really trying to make some of these remarks true for the coming football season and we're late in putting out a few men who can tackle as well as who possess the ability to do some other things.

In case the Lions take the case Friday night they will probably be killing two birds with one stone in as much as one of the games with Canyon will probably be played on a foreign field and the Eagle court looks like a favorable possibility. By acquainting themselves with the country night to break the ice, a clear sky and plenty sunshine in short for them to play in the Canyon. But in real E. T. style and according to all the Dr. Coaches' direction in this Eastern division which are printed on the bottle.

Lions' Take

Overlooked a long one on the side line and H. Strider followed as a result of a few more charity shots by O. Stringer gave the Lions a 14-9 lead. During the night to break the ice on their scoring ways and getting a field goal and making the first shot into the basket. Fouled. East Texas raised their shot to 10 on charity shots.

Comments the end of the half, Denton began to show a classy brand of basketball, although they were never able to match the perfection of the Lions' football game. A Stringer got a free shot to raise the tally to 14-5 and a moment later Denton put more punch into the contest by adding three points on a foul and a free throw. H. Strider broke loose for an easy crisp shot but Denton kept on fighting back, getting a free throw to bring the score to 16-9. A few minutes before the end of the half with the score 16-9. H. Strider made a free shot, but Canterbury batted the ball into the basket for two points.

moment later with the score standing 20-13, Denton went on a scoring rampage which, weened the play and brought rear after rear from the crowded gym. At the half the Eagles were down within two points of the Lions, the score being 23-11.

As the gun shot ended the half, this was as near to the end as the Denton aggregation got. It is a comment that the Eagles realized the fitness of the Lions and were none too sure over the Eagles' performance in the long shot, particularly toward the end of the game. Denton was forced out of the contest in the second half on fouls with 14 men on the bench and Cummings playing in their own back yard Friday night.

The OK will be placed on the same list with the subject under the head of remarks. Later students have completed scheduling, one schedule card will be filed in the Registrar's office no later than 5:00 p. m., Saturday, February 29th. At the beginning of the Spring quarter these students will report to the Secretary's office to pay their fees.

Students will be expected to register for the next course at the same hour and with the same teacher, if possible. This will enable the office to keep the sections level and estimate on the crowd. However, such changes as may be necessary to keep the sections level will be made in the Registrar's office.

All students who register for the new term will pay their fees on Saturday afternoon and evening. Winter term, we register the same as heretofore. Faculty committees are being organized during the first week of the new term to make out schedules for new students only. New students will be expected to register for the new term on Saturday afternoon and evening.

Trophies Awarded Winners In High School Basketball

The Hunt County boys basketball tournament, which was held in the college gymnasium, at Commerce last week and was one of the most successful and efficiently conducted meets in the history of our counties athletic activities. This was due to several things. The sportsmanship of the contestants and their coaches made dealing with them a pleasure. A first group of young men were hard to imagine and there can be no question that many of them will be the outstanding college basketballers of the next few years.

The permission of the college officials and their generous assistance that all visitors use the gym and its conveniences did a great deal with the confusion so general at tournaments.

Better officials would be hard to find and the fairness with which they called the games did much to keep even the defeated teams happy and glad they had tried their skill.

President Whittier presented the trophies, in a beautiful ceremony furnished by the college, between the halves of the East Texas-Greenville game Saturday night. He complimented the Greenville and Caddo Mills players for their respective conduct, in proud of the invited sportsmanship and invited the teams to return.

Coches Acker and Windell merit thanks which are hard to express for work which only a person holding in the running of a tournament can appreciate. As athletic director of the county I wish to take this opportunity to thank them, the colleges, the officials and participants of the boys 1931 Hunt County basketball tournament.

The last group of songs was English. They were sung by Miriam Young effectively dressed as a young English girl of long ago. Miss Young has a coloratura soprano voice of remarkable range and sweetness. She gave as her numbers, "Love Has Eyes" by Binay, "Singing By" by Percoll, and "Cherry Ripe" by Horn.

Margaret White Jackson, teacher of dancing contributed three dance numbers to the program. First, "Flowers in the Fall" by Jean Louise Young in dignity tarantone costume representing a gaily colored flower. This little Miss shows promise of becoming a beautiful dancer, according to her instructor. The second number was a scrobatic dance done by four unusually talented little girls, Anna, Earl Sandridge, Anna Blanche Ross, Sue Irwin and Mariemna Mast.

Miss Jackson also presented a study of the dance from the Greenville studio, Miss Billie Bulk Taylor who gave a delightful interpretation of the French Doll Dance.

The voice pupils presented by Weston Marshall were Pauline Bailey, L. C. Mitchell, Billie McGlasson, and Miriam Young. The young ladies were so full of the countries whose songs they sang.

Miss Bailey dressed as an Irish lass and sang very effectively "The Last Rose of Summer" arranged by Page; and "O, Come Ye Simpletons" by Lynn. Miss Bailey has a lovely mezzo-soprano voice.

L. C. Mitchell has a pleasing tenor voice well suited to the type of song he used on this program. "On the Road to Mandalay" by Speaks; "Danny Deever" by Danmore are both representative British Army songs.

The third group of songs was Scotch and was given by Billie McGlasson in an attractive Highland lass costume. Miss McGlasson is also a mezzo-soprano with a voice of very sweet quality. The song "Behave Yourself Before Folk" by Grinnell, "Peggy" by Pratt, and "Annie Laurie" arranged by Lehmann.

Paul Otis in a recent statement in relation to the Workers Association of New Zealand. "It is very evident," continued Mr. Otis, "that any force that is divided cannot be too long exist. This in itself is sufficient proof that this will eventually find an end, woman or child specified in the dreadful course, which has baffled the native borer world for the past twenty years."

The Poultry Class Visits Webb Hatchery

The Poultry Class of Agricultural Department of the college made a trip to Greenville Thursday and spent some time at the Webb Hatchery in West Greenville. The class, accompanied by the instructor, R. A. Rix, completed this a very profitable trip. The class arrived there they were met by Mr. Webb who greeted them cordially and in his hospitable manner showed everyone feel at home.

The incubator house was very kindly explained every step in the process of raising a mammal incubator. The students were very interested in the class, as they saw eggs going into the incubator at the top of the machine and baby chicks in the lower part of the machine. From the incubator house the class went to the large laying house, which is 125 long and 15 feet wide and divided into two sections. In this long house are housed about 1000 hens and are frapped every hour in the day. The best methods of
