LIONS BATTLE HERE FRIDAY NIGHT

LIONS DROP OUT OF TITLE CHASE

LUMBERJACKS PRACTICALLY CROWN BY SWEEPING BOTH COMMERCE AND DENTON EVENTS.

THIS WEEK.

A stubborn Bent Travis basketball team really dug in Tuesday night against the Nacogdoches Lumberjacks but failed to stop the terrific onslaught of a perfectly functioning team and emerged from the fray completely by the time of 26-22.

Friday night the Lumberjacks have practically clinched the Lone Star title. At present they lead the conference with Trinity as their only remaining foe. Trinity could sweep the collar with no wins at all, and should offer little resistance to the powerful Stephen F. Austin squad.

Lumberjacks Aconate Shooters are expected to meet Trinity at Commerce and beautiful Fort Worth. The Lumberjacks took shots from all corners of the court. The Lions were clicking and did not get good passing but their short court was when they came for the basket.

Stinson Fuchs got the Lions, showed some nice fighting and succeeded in taking the ball away from the Lumberjacks several instances. He was guarded closely, and missed the last half.

High Point Men, and Kerr of Nacogdoches was high point man will threaten, and the original Ketch Club will still catch with six points.

Although doubt was expressed by interviewers of the following season, it is equipped with an arm that still raps around. The same of men and women, the person occupying this position.

Shades of Colonel A nod, den has been found in the use of men. The one bodied with full sweeping attention. It is equipped with an arm that still raps around. The same of men and women, the person occupying this position.

Letting them know right away they really dug in Tuesday night against the Nacogdoches Lumberjacks but failed to stop the terrific onslaught of a perfectly functioning team and emerged from the fray completely by the time of 26-22.

TAYLOR FEELS IN PIE EATING VICTORY REVEL

New analysis of sporting competition have been entered into by a local athletic proponent, who is highlighting his nearest rival, K. Dodger 61-60.

At Friday ran a poor race for any kind of a bid for the title as he was defeated in a dead heat party of the game by J. Taylor 51-50.

Victory was won by Taylor, who he thought he was still in fortune and put both feet on the table. The rules provided for only one try to be made in the table at a time, in compliance with J. Taylor for the victor that his chance of victory were nil with human hands.

Victory Dodger would have won if it were not for the judges. Objective themselves.

The case of the policeman griped themselves firmly after the arduous struggle was over among the crowd, but the tests of strength and elasticity were the greatest test of the judges. Objective themselves.

MISSOURI DEAN LAUDS MARRIAGE AMONG STUDENTS

According to Dr. Albert J. Trent, dean of men at the University of Missouri, student marriages are a great "settling infirmity."

"It cuts down the number of students mooning around with that faraway look in their eyes," said Trent, "in a remarkably short time after marriage students have all their lovetravels and usually settle down to do good work."

Until a year ago matrimony was the punishment of the discovery of secret wedding ceremonies. It was against university rules to marry while in school. This ban was lifted last year by the faculty, and has since been assumed office.

Dean Trent has voted a record of twenty marriages since the abolition of the old rule and he has had to write the letters of approval for each student marriage. He is generally a successful success proponent of the new rule.
