The second business session was called to order at 8:20 Tuesday evening, at which time unanimous and new business was attended to. The report of the nominating committee for officers for the coming year submitted Prof. J. M. Hildon for president and Dean Julius Olson for Secretary. The nominations were enthusiastically approved by the 10. Honorary Scholarship Society was given, at each delegation, and so much favorable comment was heard that the organization decided to publish a yearbook for the entire organization, which shall be ready for distribution in 1933.

The concluding hour was spent in the auditorium of Sirmonts Tri-United at which time Vice-President H. N. Richardson of Sirmonts University spoke on the subject, "Some Characteristics of George Washington of Interest to Students."

Dr. Phillip Knutson, of Dallas, reported Sunday with his brother, Joe and Henry, who are students here.

Mr. Jewel Knutson is able to visit again after undergoing an operation several weeks ago.

Miss Lynne Day spent the weekend in Greenville visiting friends.

BASKET BALL
The basket ball is the favorite sport for girls at present, as proved by the fact that forty girls are participating in regular teams now. Five color teams have been organized, and the first two games of a tournament were played Tuesday, March 1, at 4:30 p. m. The schedule of the tournament follows, all games being scheduled for 6:30 weeks:

Yellow vs. Orange, Tuesday, 4:30.
Blue vs. Yellow, Wednesday, 4:30.
Orange vs. Purple, Wednesday, 4:30.
Blue vs. Green, Thursday, 4:30.
Yellow vs. Purple, Thursday, 4:30.
Green vs. Yellow, Thursday, 4:30.

TUMBLING CLUB
The Tumbling Club met Monday, March 29, at 7 p. m. in the gymnasium. Work was begun on three new pyramids. After attempts at diving over four mats forward rolls were executed. Some succeeded and some did not. The meeting proved to be one of the best and most vigorous of the year.

A short business meeting was held in which the main reason was the formulation of plans for a masquerade dance. This dance will be held in the girls' gym, and the date will be announced later.

They played on even terms for several holes, and then came the psychological moment when a miskey or poor judgment might have cost Morrison victory. He had pushed to second shot to the left of the green, leaving him an extremely difficult shot to the right. The crowd was silent as the pit with his third shot, but he was in a tough spot. His ball had

The combination of brains and ability is hard to best in any line of endeavor. But particularly is this true in such an art and honorable profession as golf.

Make Fred Morrison, thirty-one-year-old professional of the First Hills Country Club, Los Angeles, is a firm believer in and he certainly used his head in reaching through to victory in that biggest of money golf tournaments, the Agua Caliente Open. It was his first big win, and to draw down first prize of $5,000—Fred had to shoot the tremendous course in sub-par golf, in the year of four rounds, with a total of 134, four strokes under par, and the prize money brought his total

Another Letter Of Advice From Samantha Abigail To Jean

Dear Jean: Somebody brought a responsibility and brought you into the world. I may responsibility because that is what nurturing and admonishing you for sixteen years has meant. Like a mother you have shed off the years until, now, the responsibility to largely another's care. What are you going to do first?

First, I think, as a daughter, you owe a certain amount of allegiance, honor, respect, and duty to those who have brought you thus far. You have incurred a certain debt.

Your friends and acquaintances, they are the proper people you are to equal to your recommendations. The record you make in the conduct you exhibit in. You cannot expect that inevitable thing tag not to have a carbon copy. Your actions, conversation, and outward appearance reflect, the thought and character within you, and if your friends admire the records you exhibit in. You expect your friends to have a carbon copy. Your actions, conversation, and outward appearance reflect, the thought and character within you, and if your friends admire the records you exhibit in. You expect your friends to have a carbon copy.

One of a girl's good names may often be traced to a poor fountain pen. It is true, but when you know a reputation is being made, it is not a good idea to look to your hand. A little bit of caution often saves a risk. It might save you from slipping the first date, or looking in the first moment. When it comes to taking the first step, you know you ought to lag. Oh, your responsibility, to the quality of whether you drop down and lay, or to carry a treacherous trap which had proved the sending of more than one continent. It is hard to carry the trap a new night, but the getting, and the carrying being wiped out.

Some have said that Fred had had. He intended to play safe. His heart of the fairway, and then he shot to the green hole out in six to Sarason's, five. It was Morrison's victory gave him the chance to compete in the British open championship this spring, and right now General Fred is conducting plans for the long haul overseas.

up with your pain, and continue outwardly.

Responsibility to yourself is your greatest task, for after all you cannot neglect your own ego for somebody else to take you at your word. Duty and rightness, living involves not merely being good. Life demands that we be good for something. It is then that you are made or lost in choosing what you shall be good for. You can never get away from being the victim of an inevitable love that all of us experience sometime for another. That precedes your being fit to accept the love someone gives you.

True love is indicated by actions, rather than words. It may not be blind, but it is awfully one-eyed. It loves language may be harsh but be careful how you talk. Remember that men are often willing to confess the things they can't be out of. If you make a happy match, there must be a proper striking surface. The first match was made in the garden of Eden, but it wasn't a perfect Eden. Trust me, I don't want to keep the wedding of your heart from being a jaddock. Be careful.

CACTUS GARDEN HAS BEEN MOVED

The location of the Toanoonoc cactus garden, which has been at a point west of the library and North of the Heating Plant, has been moved to a place near the north end of the library and the Whittigan lawn.

One advantage of the new location will be that it will produce a background of hedge on the right side of the garden, with a cypress myrtle background on the other. Moving the location will permit the planting of a row of trees on each side of the walk leading from the street to the Heating Plant.

There remains only one game to be played in the conference this season, and that is to be between North and Trinity at Wacahatchie. If Denton wins she will be tied with Sam Houston for second place. If Trinity wins she will break into the percentage column and will pull Denton down into third place.

Stephen F. Austin won the title earlier in the year, but she got started, but in other years a team had to be undefeated to win a loop which she was not able to do. She is the Lumberjack state. They had the best team in the circuit this year.

Sigma Tau Delta Plants Roses And Dedicates Rosebush

The rosebush has just been enclosed with a six-inch rosebush, both in the form of a bush, twenty-two feet on each side, and with the service pointing to the north. Sigma Tau Delta feels proud of the fact that this is the only structure on the campus which is in line. It was built by the McKinnick Young Company of Commerce, and a little later it was planted with a black holly. The plants were from the Palmyra Greenhouse, also of Commerce. The members of this fraternity feel that this Rosebush is an little contribution to the beautification of the campus.
