Most of our large student body are here this term for serious business and are really working hard to make good grades. We have come to realize that it is not possible in life that will be worthwhile to the world is the ambition and goal of the majority of our student body. The realization that preparation and training for a worthy career will be obtained at the EAST TEXAS STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE at Commerce is the reason for the large and overflowing student body. We have thousands of students for our school scattered over the great state of Texas and even in many other states. The old saying that a good thing or article advertises itself by pleasing the customers, is applicable to our school. We are growing larger and larger each term. Yet some of our people have started the propaganda about closing the doors of E. T. as a senior college. The very idea seems silly and absolutely absurd to all logical thinking citizens. Our student ranks are in no way more than just a few more numbers. We have crossed, eliminated, and fighters who have defended the standards of this college; in the many contests of college activities against our sister institutions. We are proud of the way our teams have acquitted themselves and the work of our coaches. We are not winning just now but they have in the past and will in the future. Our teams have borne away the laurels and victories in true sportsmanlike manner, and have led in the same manner. Our opponents have felt the weight and the brains of our teams and have realized that they have met some opposition. It is the result of our power that has made the virile and dependable spirit of tomorrow. E. T. students have not excelled in athletics alone but in the great game of life itself. Students from our college may be found in all walks of life and filling many important offices of this country.

The world is waking up to the fact that great characters are not great suddenly but to be realized by chance of luck, but the result of much planning and preparation. To get this training and preparation is the main underlying reason for the majority of the present students attending the EAST TEXAS STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE, and yet there are a few agitators that want to abolish such a worthy institution as ours. Everyone tells us that it is in way to become. What this even be economy? No, not in the long run.—J. A. L.

FLUNKING ATTITUDES

It is about the close of every term, students begin to talk about grades they have made. Of course some are well pleased, and others seem to think that something was wrong. Some go so far as to say that they did not have a good instructor or that the teacher did not like them. When students take this attitude there is usually something wrong, but the trouble is with the student and not the instructor.

When one goes so far as to say that a certain instructor is not a good teacher just because he made a poor grade, he is revealing his inefficiency as a student. If you made a low grade make a low grade. The proper thing to do is to sit down and take an invoice of yourself. In doing this you might think of all the things you could have done to better your grade. Think of the number of times you went to class unprepared for the lesson and of the number of times you sat there just because you had three cents coming on you. Then try to figure your own grade and see how much you will make.

But before coming to a definite conclusion be sure that you own your attitude toward the school, instructors, coaches, and life in general. You may enjoy your school and fail because of the lack of proper attitude. And above all do not permit yourself to believe that any teacher failed you because of some personal grudge.—W. A. V.

To Whom My Concerns

For the personal information of many of the students as to those who think that I have been instrumental in much of the scandal that has been published in the East Texan the past term I wish to state that at least ninety per cent of the items have been furnished by the friends of the persons mentioned. I am very sorry that some members of the student body think that the We're Telling You column has been merely a euphemism for expressing a personal grudge of students disliked by the columnist. You have shown that you do not want to see this column continued and as the paper is printed simply to gratify your wishes I, as one of the co-authors of it wish to announce that I will discontinue it. If the co-writers Joe Wooley may continue, as far as I am concerned, to run it as long as he chooses with the aid of some one who may be selected.

The student who can only I have made it up to apologize for in doing so I thought that the majority of the were being satisfied through the column. Therefore from now on I will continue to write the column as the regular staff published but will merely occupy a position on the regular staff.

JOE GENTRY.

Honor Students Advance Higher

In a class discussion of the number of students who make successes or failures after completing their scholastic career it was shown by a study of the graduates of one of our larger universities that the majority of the highest ranking during their college careers. Many of us who do not come under that ranking do not believe that this can be possible but as figures do not lie we must sooner or later believe that this is absolutely true.

Of course there are exceptions in all rules and this one is no different. The iron-fists fact is that the people who study hard and put in their time profitably while enrolled in a college are more likely to achieve success than students who put all of their time available in social, club life or athletics. While many valuable connections may be reached through the above mentioned mediums, many hindrances are also apt to be presented to the partaker. Therefore why not study and make good grades so that you may have something more than a partial success to look forward to.

IT'S A COSTLY HABIT!

If you know that a little habit of yours was costing the school anywhere from $150.00 to $200.00 a year, would you stop it?

Then stop crumpling your pencil, fountain pen, or ball point pen. Look at the strain breaks the thread holding the back of the book and the pages together. Then the pages are lost out and the book is ready for the trash can, which lowers to an alarming height in the text book library.

Figure it out for yourself. Only 200 new books at $3.00 each would cost of $600.00 and eyes are ruined each year by this practice. Old books that are 500 are ruined each year by this practice.

While you're at it, you might check all other destructive habits you have that shorten the lifetime of textbooks. You might check all other destructive habits you have that shorten the lifetime of textbooks. You might check all other destructive habits you have that shorten the lifetime of textbooks.

Remnant of World War Still Remains in United States—Capt. Master, Corps.

Among the decorations on our campus is a German cannon. This piece of artillery was captured by American soldiers in Prussia before the Germans relinquished possession of it. They displayed the cannon as a trophy of war and as a projection of the caliber of their army. The cannon is the memento of the American triumph over the German army.
