WHAT ARE WE GOING TO DO WITH THEM?

WHAT ARE WE OOING TO DO WITH THEM!
Every year it has been impossible for the interested, students to play termin on the R. T. courts because of the limited space. With only three courts to thate care of the players, a large number of boys and girk, who would like to include in some form of sport in college, are foreell to stand back while more experienced, players. Take the court.

he court.

Each term the boys termin classes are overflowing and some few have to be turned away. Since termis requires comparitively little financial oddiay for equipment and provides a wholesome outlet for energy—why want we have more courts?

E. T. has fewer courts than are Touchers College in the E. T. has fewer courts than a Touchers College in the E. T. has fewer courts when the court of the terminal of the court of the cour and twelve at Denton. Many institutions no larger than E. T. in size have twenty or moise courts.

Since the football field has been leveled and solided, a modern track has been constructed, and our symmation is almost completed—why can't more tennia courts be provided for these students, who would like to play the games which can be played in later life b—D. G.
