A New Deal

Entire New Staff For East Texan

Horton Resigns: Wade Takes Over

The East Texan, official publication of East Texas State Teachers college was involved in a shakeup the first week of the New Year that saw the entire staff change positions with the exception of the Business Manager.

The change was due to the resignation of Ledell Horton, Editor of the East Texan since the summer of 1948. Horton resigned his position in order to enter the University of Texas at mid term, where he will work on his Master's degree in Journalism.

While at East Texas, Horton was president of the Press Club, a member of Who's Who among Colleges and Universities, a member of the Paragon Club and Assembly of Student Organizations.

Harless "Crow" Wade, sophomore of Commerce, elected earlier in the fall term as Associate Editor of the East Texan has assumed the position as Editor. Wade began his career on the East Texan as a staff writer in the spring of 1948, was Business Manager in the summer of '48 and Associate Editor fall of 1948. He will remain editor until June, 1950.

The associate editor's post will remain vacant pending ratification of the Student Constitution.

Mary Howell, freshman from Windom, who has served as Assistant Society Editor has now become Society Editor. She will fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Martha Sue Benson, who will take her post as Associate Editor of the Locust at mid-term.

RESIGNS...

LEDELL HORTON

Bob Brookins, Sports Editor, will graduate at the end of this term. He has been replaced by Burl McClellan, sophomore of Commerce.

Jessie Hollingsworth, freshman of Commerce, has been made Editorial Editor from her original news post.

Dan McMillian, senior of Memphis, is the only remaining staff member, he will retain his post as Business Manager.

Gerald Patterson and Tony Martinez will remain staff photographers and Otha Spencer, Assistant Professor of Journalism will continue to sponsor the newspaper.

Meeting Scheduled For USAF Reserves

A meeting of the U. S. Air Force Reserves, Composite Flight Group, will be held Wednesday night, January 12, between 7:30 and 9:30 in the East Club Room of the Student Union Building, according to Dr. J. W. McCrary, Liaison officer.

An earlier meeting will be held in room 310 of the Education building from 4:00 to 6:00 p. m. for those wishing to join the reserves.

New reservists will be sworn in as new members at the night meeting by Major Dan Pruitt, Greenville. A film will be shown at the meeting pertaining to the Air Force in general.

Former Lion Star Is Leading Scorer In National League

Bob Carpenter, former East Texas State Lion basketball star of Cumby is the leading scorer in the National Basketball league.

A recent story sent out by the Associated Press wire service shows that Carpenter had scored 127 points for an average of slightly over 12 points per game this year.

Carpenter was an all-conference performer for three years at East Texas State, setting two individual scoring records while there. His brother Dick, now a Boy Scout executive is also a former letterman for the Lions on the hardwood.

Carpenter is the player-manager of the Hammonds, Indians, quintet. He has one former East Texas star with him, Jake Carter, who was all-conference for two years while at ET and a four year letterman. Carter is playing on Carpenters quintet.

WRA Queen Election Gets Into Full Swing

Voting Boxes Stationed In Three Places Balloting Will Cease On Friday, Jan. 14th.

By BETTY HARRIS

Voting boxes with individual containers for each Gymboree Queen candidate are now stationed in the Co-op, Grill and Binnion Hall living room for the convenience of those wishing to vote for their respective candidates.

The four candidates are: Sue Phillips, freshman from Pecan Gap and member of the Kalfir Club; Betty Owens, freshman from Forney and a member of the Marpesa Club; Mary Ann Windell, freshman from Commerce and a member of the Toanoowe Club and Martha White, senior from Sulphur Springs and a member of the Marpesa Club.

The candidates were chosen by popular vote in their respective classes to represent them in the contest. One can vote as often as they like and for as many candidates as they please. Each penny in a candidate container counts one vote for her and the one receiving the most votes will be crowned Queen.

The Queen will be crowned at the sixth annual WRA Gymboree in Whitley gymnasium, Friday, January 14.

A dance will follow the crowning and enthroning of the Gymboree Queen. Music will be furnished by the East Texans under the direction of Harold Fisher.

In addition to the honor of being crowned Queen, the Gymboree Queen of 1949 will receive a certificate which may be exchanged for five dollars in merchandise at any store in Commerce.

Tickets for the Gymboree may be obtained from any member of the WRA.

Voc. Emphasis Week For Baptist Students

Baptist students at East Texas State Teachers college will observe Vocational Emphasis Week January 9 through 16.

The program will be promoted primarily through Noonwatch, a service conducted at the Baptist Student Center, Monday through Friday from 12:45 to 1:10 p. m.

Speakers heard during the week will be outstanding persons in the fields of homemaking, business, agriculture, teaching and religion.

Special Music Recital Scheduled For January 13th In Auditorium

Special Invitations Extended Students Local and Neighboring Townspeople Invited

By BOBBIE HEVRON

There will be a special student recital Thursday night, January 13 in Ferguson Auditorium at 8:00 p. m.

This recital which will last about one hour, has been very well arranged. It will include music for the clarinet, piano, cello, voice, organ, cornet, and brass ensemble. The music department has reached the stage of development where no longer the advanced student recitals, which are held in Ferguson Auditorium, are boring occasions.

A special invitation has been extended to local citizens and to citizens of the neighboring towns for this special recital. An invitation is also extended to all the student body to be present on this occasion.

The program will consist of the following:

- Concerto for Clarinet.....Mozart
- Adagio
- Allegro moderato
- Don Jeter, clarinetist
- Rondallo Aragonese.....Granados
- Dorothy Ann Reynolds, pianist
- Allielula.....Mozart
- Shirley Strickland, soprano
- Sonata in g minor.....Handel
- Grave
- Allegro
- Sarabande
- Allegro
- Donald Kerr, cellist
- Scherzo in b minor.....Chopin
- Peter Mattarock, pianist
- Recitative and Aria from "Messiah".....Handel
- Comfort Ye my People
- Every Valley Shall be Exalted
- Edward Ruffin, tenor
- Sonata in e minor Op. 55
- .....Gullmunt
- Paula Jones, organist
- Concerto for Trumpet, Allegro
- Movement.....Haydn
- Roubert Soutier, Cornetist
- Ballade in g minor.....Chopin
- Natalie Overstreet, pianist
- Trumpet Voluntary
- .....Purcell-Brown
- Brass Ensemble

BAD HUNTING — Mr. George Kibler, professor of industrial education at East Texas State, was the victim of a freak hunting accident and suffered a broken leg. Rapid recovery is expected.

George Kiblers Leg Broken In Freak Fall

George W. Kibler, Director of the Expansion Program at East Texas State Teachers college broke the lower portion of his leg in a freak accident, Wednesday morning December 29.

Kibler, who was bird hunting with friends on the old Boucher farm approximately six miles south of this city was crossing a creek about 4 feet deep and 4 feet wide when the accident occurred.

He placed his left foot on the bank of the creek to support himself and stepped off with his right foot when he lost his footing and fell to the bottom of the creek placing all the weight on his right leg and twisting it as he did so, this causing the broken bone.

Mr. Kibler is at home awaiting the support that will not be able to be put on his leg until the swelling goes down. According to Kibler, his only regret is that his dog had just pointed out a bird when the accident happened and caused him to miss the shot; however he managed to bag three or four before his fall.

J. M. Love Dies At Amarillo Home

J. M. Love, brother of Mrs. Sam L. Whitley of Commerce, died Friday, December 31, at his home in Amarillo. Mr. Love, 76, had been in ill health for several months.

In his early years Mr. Love was in the real estate business with Tom Connolly in Marlin. Later he joined Colonel Goodnight in ranching in west Texas and ranch-ed there and in New Mexico for many years after retiring. Mr. Love lived in Amarillo where he owned property.

Surviving him are his wife and two sisters, Mrs. Sam H. Whitley of Commerce and Mrs. Dolph McKee of Jacksonville.

Young and Barclay Attend Conference

Dr. Frank Young, dean of the college and Charles B. Barclay, director of off-campus activities are in Austin this week-end.

New Dependents Of Vet Students Should Be Reported

Veteran students who acquire dependents or additional dependents while in training under the GI Bill should notify the Veterans Administration as soon as possible, so that VA can determine whether they are eligible for increased subsistence payments.

Notice of change in dependency status should be sent to the VA regional office in which the veteran's records are kept. The notice should be accompanied by legal evidence of dependents, such as a certified copy of public record of birth, baptism or marriage.

Subsistence payments will be increased as of the date legal evidence is received by VA, and will not be made retroactive to the date the veteran actually acquired the dependent.

Monthly subsistence allowances for veterans studying fulltime in school are $75 for those without dependents, $105 for those with one dependent, and $110 for those with more than one dependent.

Good Samaritan

Dr. Shepherd Is ET Students' Friend

By Dorothy Covington

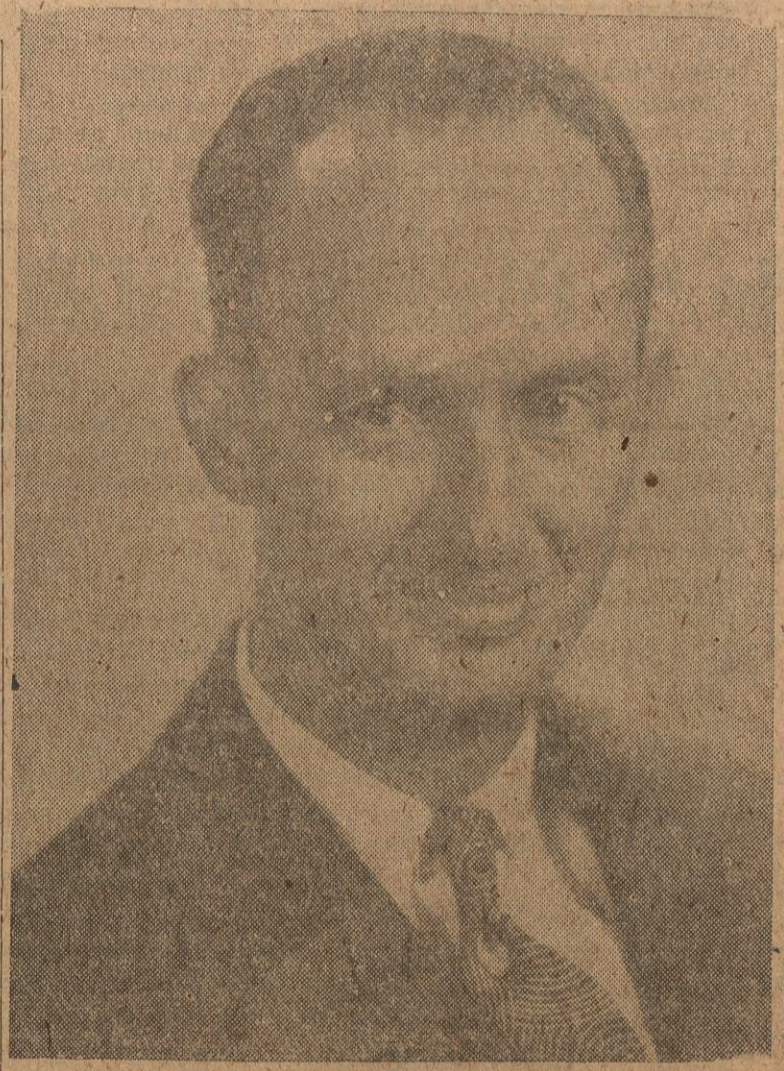

A friend of students — that's Dr. Everett M. Shepherd. Whenever any student asks Dr. Shepherd for help, he gives it. He is never too busy to advise a student on school or home problems or to aid him in getting a job.

Even during the Christmas vacation Dr. Shepherd worked with students. Several graduate students wished to consult with him on their theses and he gladly aided them.

Recently one of Dr. Shepherd's students suddenly became seriously ill. It was necessary that this student be taken to Dallas. After his Wednesday morning classes, Dr. Shepherd drove the student to Dallas and returned late that afternoon only fifteen minutes before his Wednesday night class.

"Dr. Shepherd is very enthusiastic," one of his students said, "Everything he does, whether it is in school or outside, he does wholeheartedly."

Other students claim Dr. Shepherd makes his classes interesting with vivid and "down to earth" illustrations. Dr. Shepherd has a practical knowledge of education because he has taught from rural schools on up to college level and was the Deputy Superintendent for the State Department of Education before he came here. Because of this his students say he often makes fun of those who write the text books and make the policies by calling them the "Great White

TEACHING IS FINE—Dr. E. M. Shepherd, professor of education at East Texas State, has no regrets for following the teaching profession. The young educator believes his work offers many advantages and lists the pleasant, stimulating contact with young people as one of the most important. But look out, education majors! That smile might well be concealing plans for a stiff final examination

Fathers."

Dr. Shepherd worked as a mechanic when he was a freshman at Hardin-Simmons University. The remainder of the time until he received his bachelor's degree from there he played the trumpet with a dance band. By teaching while studying he earned enough finances to get his master's degree from the University of Texas and the University of Southern California. Although Dr. Shepherd came here as a teacher, he became Dean of Men. However, after several years he returned to teaching because he liked it.

As a member of the local Christian church, he serves as pastor and superintendent of the Sunday school department and at the same time teaches a class.

Photography is one of Dr. Shepherd's hobbies. Even though he is interested in all phases of the field he specializes in photographing children. This can probably be attributed to his daughter, Sue. A one time he operated a photography school for veterans.

When speaking of his hobbies, Dr. Shepherd stated, "My wife and daughter are my hobbies too."

It would be an unspeakable advantage, both to the public and private, if men would consider that great truth, that no man is wise or safe but he that is honest.—Sir Walter Raleigh.

Hospital Addition Nears Completion

Construction for the new unit of the college hospital is progressing rapidly under the supervision of Mr. George Kibler, director of the expansion program at East Texas State.

Approximate cost of the unit when completed will be around $50,000 and will house a Reception room, Lounge, doctors office, kitchen and operating room.

Quarters for the sick will include a twelve patient ward and twelve private rooms which can be expanded to hold twenty four patients. The interior will be finished with white asbestos with steam furnishing the heat.

The outside will be regulation lumber siding with a foundation laid to put brick veneer on at a later date.

Mr. Kibler stated, the construction will be complete approximately May 1.

The college construction crew, not contractors built the new addition to the hospital.

VA Representative Here On Tuesdays

It has been announced that Mr. Charles R. Rasberry, VA Contact Representative, working out of Paris, will be in the East Texas State Teachers college Veterans' office, each Tuesday from 9: a. m. to 4:00 p. m., effective immediately.

Mr. Rasberry is here to assist Veterans in their G. I. Insurance, disability, hospitalization, missing checks or any other matter concerning the veteran. He is especially here to help veterans going to school under part eight of the Veterans Administrations.

Veterans are cordially invited to meet with Mr. Rasberry and talk with him on matters concerning them.

Campus Chatter

Mike Talk

Yes, its a new year again, only this time its 1949. We are all exactly one year older than this time last year. The holidays are over and we're back with our noses to the grindstone. The mid-term exams are coming upon us faster than a two ton steam engine and most of us arn't prepared.

There will be many candles, lamps and lights burning into the wee hours of the morning from now until after those ever present exams that never seem to fail to find threere way to the classrooms are over.

With a new editor and entire new staff, this writer is wondering if he will be with you this time next week. As far as I know there has been no little red slip in my box yet, but one can never tell. Oh well, if it comes, it will be for your benefit so don't let it break you down into tears . . . the campus dosen't need watering at the present.

Now that all the beginning baloney has been said lets move into the dirt and rubbish that has been happening around this part of the country . . . so here goes . . . hold ye hats . . .

Trapped in one corner of Binnion Hall Tuesday night proved to be most embarrassing for PI SMITH and BEVERLY IGLEHART. Tough luck kids . . . better luck next time.

Our attention has been called to the fact that during the holidays one of the editors of the Athens Review carried a picture of a yearbook favorite from Henderson County Junior college. This particular student at HCJC proved to the world that he was tops in something else, picking a good college to attend after finishing junior college. Yes, he is LEGS JORDAN and plans to enter ETSTC soon after finishing there. Congratulations JORDAN, we'll be looking for you.

The nightly vigil in Greenville established by TILLERSON, SAUNDERS, Inc., is still clicking. Those two squires who answer to the names of BILLY and BUD are currently engaged in a crusade to keep the Greenville female population happy and healthy.

LEON HIGGINBOTHAM gets the week's salute for being the most "fouled up" man at East Texas State. LEON had considerable difficulty ridding his car of the females during the holidays when he headed for Greenville and Xmas shopping. Some women really have a "knack" for spying on boy friends shopping before Xmas.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to QUENTIN W. WATSON. Christmas had a tragic turn for this student who lost his father on Christmas day.

Congratulations to ROY GENE CLARK and DORIS SIMMONS, we are informed that June is the coming month for this due.

Graham Gets Buzz

BOB GRAHAM was a true picture of that ole Ipana smile, Tuesday night in the Chatterbox after attending the ALEX KIBLER party with SHIRLEY STRICKLAND. He says its the first good time he has had in a year and a half . . . Bob must be part hermit.

Campus Shop sale caused considerable confusion on the campus this week, but BOB HEARNE refused to be discouraged with the crowded conditions and walked away with his arms full and running over. He was caught saying, "I'll never pass up a good bargain."

Rumors around the campus lately have it that MARY ANNE GAMBLE was caught making this statement, "Come on here Hotlips," for your information, MISS GAMBLE was referring to DALE "Hotlips" HUGHES . . . this report was confirmed by SHIRLEY RILEY . . . this correspondent is wondering how one can acquire said title.

DOT ANN REYNOLDS seems to be a fountain of youth rebuilt now that one JOE MARK MCKENSIE has returned . . . an't love grand . . . gosh.

TOMMY BRYAN and PATSY LAKE seems to have worked up quite a case of puppy love, or is it puppy? From the looks of things it may not be such . . . could be the real thing. PAT was reported to be like and Ole Maid waiting for a lover during the holidays when TOM wasn't around to show her the sights.

Some people think that when they have resigned a position as head of something they can then be classified as a member of the socialite rank; however, CROW WADE had another name for one resigned person on the campus this week when he found DOROTHY, his goose missing from its shelf. The name for the person is a KLEPTOMATIC . . . WADE says that it fits LEDELL HORTON or possibly MARSHALL MASSEY, better than anyone on the campus.

Congratulations to EDD ROUTT, the new Press Club president. May his headaches be fewer than the past president . . . with that red hair, he's bound to make a good one.

"Hey, you ole pot-belly," was the cry of MARTHA SUE BENSON before the Good Will Program in front of the SUB. No, she was not speaking to an EAGLE but to none other than little BILL McCULLOUGH. BILL'S reply to BENSON was "That's all right ROUND GIRL, mine cost more than yours did." He received no reply from Bernard Shaw once said that a nation's morals are like decayed teeth—the worse they get, the more it hurts to touch them.

A quartet is where all four think the other three can't sing.

By EDD ROUTT

The Christmas season was concluded at East Texas this week with the exchanges of "Was Santa Good to You?" Santa seemingly did well by nearly everyone and only in a few instances did old man iragedy make his appearance. A casual survey shows, however, that Christmas, 1948, will be remembered by most everyone with a great deal of pleasure.

It's good to see Bynum Smith and Brother Jack back on the campus again. They were laid-off during most of the holidays from injuries received in an automobile accident recently. Both are still pretty shaky, but will return to service for Basketball Coach Darrell Tully soon. Smith, perhaps, will be back on the hardwood before Routt due to the fact that the latter is wearing a cast on his hand to protect a broken finger.

With regard to several proposed amendments to the student constitution, the meeting time of ratification will be announced soon. The correspondent's main interest lies in the proposal that two elective offices be changed to appointive offices. Certainly it cannot be denied that such a change would result in a better newspaper; a better Locust. But by the same token it cannot be denied that such a move would violate the democratic principles under which we as American people live. It is not for the correspondent to say herein that these changes are right or wrong, for it is not for me to sway anyone one way or the other. It is however, a right of mine to interpret the issues involved and attempt to state the facts on both sides clearly and fairly.

When the ratification meeting is called, every student should make an effort to attend and participate. For it is popular participation in governmental affairs that makes ours a great country.

Plans for the 1949 broadcast schedule include tape recorded programs from high schools within this area. We hope to be able to take some of our ETED entertainers around to these high schools and record programs on which the local students appear as guests. No exact plan has been laid out, so the foregoing is about as unofficial as unofficial can be.

Mary Howell, as you may have already read, is the new Society Editor of the East Texan. She replaces Martha Sue Benson who is to graduate this year. Mary is a freshman, and has shown great promise in the journalistic field this first semester. Burl McClellan is taking over Bob Brookings' place as sports editor of the East Texan. Burl will retain his duties as engineer for ETED.

College politics will be abloom next semester. Students are advised to jump in with both feet. There's an old axiom which says charity begins at home, so why not let politics begin at home?

As You Like 'Em

"I would like to have made that picture," "Lucky photographer." Those are just some of the comments made by groups of male students that viewed the pictures of the "Can-Can Dancer" and "Miss Neptune" in the Student Union Building.

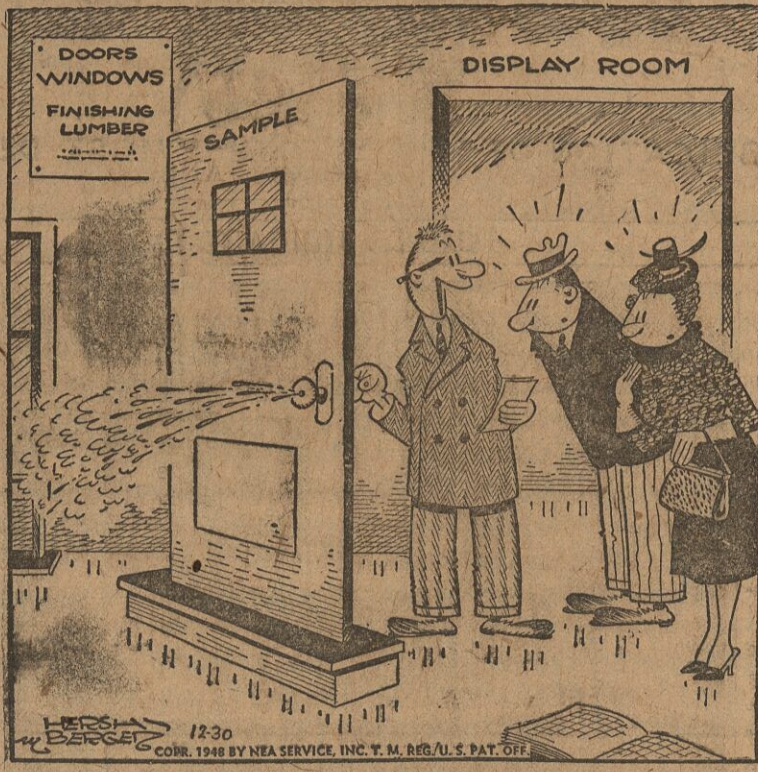

These pictures along with about twenty-six others are now being displayed by the Department of Journalism here at East Texas State Teachers College.

Approximately 100 pictures were sent to the journalism department in the fourth annual Traveling Salon of "Popular Photography" magazine. The lack of space prevented the displaying of all the pictures at one time; however before the display is removed on January 15, all the pictures will be shown.

These pictures represent the finest examples of contemporary photography. The work was done by some of the leading professionals and amateurs in the country.

A wide variety of subject matter, ranging from the dramatic and human interest type of photographs to serene landscapes, are highlights of the show.

The many amateur photographers on the campus will be in-

By the above paragraph you have probably already guessed that I am your new Editor of this paper. Ledell Horton has resigned his post and will enter the University of Texas at mid-term to work on his Master of Journalism degree. Myself, being the Associate Editor under Horton's reign now find that I am sitting at the helm.

I would like to take this opportunity on behalf of myself and the staff to wish Ledell all the luck in the world. The entire staff and department will miss him. It was nice working for such a swell guy and he deserves only the best.

My first official day as Editor found some most interesting things taking place, mainly the kidnapping of a loved one of mine . . . dear Dorothy. Only a matter of hours at the job and she was listed among the missing. Poor thing, she seems to be the victim of several kleptomaniacs, for this makes the second time this fall that Dorothy has been led astray by an unknown individual. There will be a reward of one cup of Java to anyone that will recover the prized goose or one all-day-sucker for information leading to its whereabouts.

The shakeup in staff members on the East Texan is now completed. Miss Mary Howell, who has been serving as assistant society editor will move up to editor with Miss Martha Sue Benson's resignation to begin her career as associate editor of the Locust. Burl McClellan has moved from the staff writers position to fill the vacancy of sports editor, left vacant by the graduation of Bob Brookings. Jessie Hollingsworth has assumed the editorial editorship from the news post. Her position as news editor will be filled in the near future. The only staff member retaining his position is Dan McMillan, Business Manager, a job which he has held since early fall.

With this new staff, each of us would like to ask your continued cooperation in helping us to put out a paper that you will take pride in and be proud of. With your support, we will strive for a better paper throughout our terms of office.

It Pays To Advertise

On successive weeks Dr. Gallup's busy samplers inquired American opinion on the men and women most admired by those consulted. With the results, there need be no quarrel. (Harry Truman headed the male list and the widow of Franklin Roosevelt was top gal.) But on both lists one fact is obvious: Everybody in each top ten has been highly publicized.

Now, the chances are that no one of the folk consulted really mean that No. 1 to them, male or female, is the person they named. What youngster in America would trade his best girl for Wilhelmina or Eleanor Roosevelt? What average man or woman really admires George Marshall over someone in his community whose works are thoroughly familiar?

But when the question is asked, the average mental reaction is not to the close-to-home people and deeds but to what headline writers term "names in the news."

It pays to advertise. EDITOR'S NOTE: This is a guest editorial from the Dallas Morning News. It is used by this paper to prove to East Texas business men that it pays to advertise.

Reeling It Off

By JAY PRICE If "using what you have" is not a recognized adage then it is here and now invented, created and applied to a much tossed-about problem among campus stage folk. Footlight-happy students, including this corner, have shouted the inadequacies of our some-what archaic Ferguson auditorium dom used boards.

When compared with neighboring entertainment plants, our 12 by 30 along with Greenville's Municipal stage looks like a child who is slapped away from the kitchen table three meals a day, seven days a week. The muttering of discontent reaches saw-mill screechings when a reduction minded body stare through their rose-tinted binoculars to "greener fields."

But, are the "greener fields" happy? Here are a few examples offering a shameful negative nod. The Majestic, Dallas, expanded their stage this year to showcase coming Theatre Guild productions; yet Dallasites expound the increased 2400 seat capacity as too large for this venture. While regular size sets can be used since the face-lifting, the auditorium's hangar-like size gives bald-head row shouts and the balcony trade whispers from actors behind stage settings second only to those found in New York.

The houses are being used, though; stage with its cracking plaster and North Texas' auditorium which will not hold their student body. Even the small towns with nothing larger than a 200 seat high school auditorium regularly use their stage for activities other than speakings and recitals. Like our own nook, the smaller stages may lack cat walks, faders, lighting effects, and space needed for larger scaled activity. But, our primary difficulty is space—the use of what we do not have.

The Don Cossack dancers and Ballet Intime, on their appearances here, were forced to re-arrange their programs after seeing our stage. The lack of stage footage did not stop them from giving performances which rank with their best—don't forget, and it should not hinder our own forces. Seeing that the stage has been put to full use successfully, then the only stumbling block in using what we have is cooperation—which we do not have.

A few, with the latest in stage equipment, cannot bring a monologue to the public without the help of everyone. In our case, the hesitance of talent (which we do have) and the "timidity" of the audience, has dampened many production spirits. The College Players, the Press Club, and the newly formed Lyre Club have or will bring shows before the public. Assistance is needed in front and behind the footlights, from the ear wigglers to those with hands who can applaud.

FIGHT SONG FOR ET

Why doesn't East Texas State have a fight song—one written especially for us?

Nearly every college, university and school has some sort of song which brings memories to graduates and joy to the students when it is sung. This is not so with ET.

"Corrina" has long been cherished by ETEx students and it has taken the place of a special number, and it has never been suggested that we replace this all time favorite. We cannot claim this for our own.

Although the Alma Mater is known and loved by every student, it is even a take-off from some other college.

East Texas State has a football team, a music department, and a journalism of its own and we have plenty of the talent needed to write an alma mater of our own without having to borrow from someone else.

We need a song which could be a combination of both Corina and Alma Mater and could always be recognized as being exclusively from ET.

What about it students? It is something to think about, talk about and get action.

LET'S THINK PEACE

War and the possibility of war seem to be one of the most widespread influences of life during these chaotic days. One catches that feeling in the halls, over the radio, at home, and wherever people congregate.

Young men eagerly read about the attractive opportunities for re-enlistment into the many branches of the armed forces. Opportunities are good for men taking this plan of action.

Numerous stirring announcements and martial music continue to spread this wave of feeling throughout the nation.

Parents are heard to say frequently, "I already have a new iron and washing machine. Perhaps I should go ahead and buy the vacuum cleaner and the other things I want now so that if war comes I will have them." Somehow, that "if another war comes" is added.

This feeling of apprehension comes from too many sources to be overlooked. People are preparing for the "if another war . . ."

Looking at the other side of the picture, what of peace? Somehow it is a desirable condition but not as easy to work for as war. Human nature is such that it is easy to unite enthusiastically in a time of national crisis. Working for peace is not as exciting as working for war.

War does not come by itself. People are the cause of it and people seem to be working toward another one.

The future of our nation will be decided by which cause individuals devote most of their thought and action.

(Ed. note: This is a guest editorial taken from the San Angelo Junior paper.)

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Park McKinney and Sam Wood

Miss Mildred Park McKinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. McKinney, was married to Joe Dexter Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Wood, The bride, given in marriage 21, at the First Methodist church in Cooper.

The Rev. Durand H. Bonner of the First Baptist church assisted by the Rev. Carl D. Reynolds, Methodist pastor, officiated in performing the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Regina Patterson, organist, played for Miss Shirley Strickland, who sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because" and also rendered the traditional wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory slipper satin with Chantilly lace yoke and wide bertha, pearl point sleeves and ballerina skirt. A Mary Stuart bonnet of satin and Chantilly lace held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a bouquet of lilies-of-the-valley, carnations and gardenias.

Miss Mary Jim Watkins, maid of honor and Miss Margie Wood, bridesmaid, wore emerald green faille with wide berths and ballerina skirts and carried carnations.

Sam D. Wood, Jr., Alton, Ill., was best man and ushers were Edward J. McKinney, Billy McDonald and Thomas Ewing.

Before the couple left for a short trip, a reception was held at the McKinney home, where holly, ferns and poinsettias were the decorations. A three-tiered wedding cake was cut and served with punch, from a table covered with an imported cloth and centered with flowers and candles.

For traveling, the bride wore royal blue gabardine, with gray and white accessories.

The couple will reside in Stamford, where the bride is teaching. Mr. Wood is attending Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

All College Dance To Be Sponsored By Paragon Club

The Paragon Club, social organization for boys, is sponsoring the first all-college dance for the new year, Saturday night, January 8.

Dancing will start immediately following the East Texas State, Southwest Texas State basketball game in the Student Union Building.

Plans are being made to have music furnished by the East Texas college dance orchestra. Everyone is invited to attend this first dance of 1949, start it off on the right foot.

Let honesty be as the breath of thy soul, and never forget to have a penny when all thy expenses are enumerated and paid; then shalt thou reach the point of happiness and independence shall be thy shield and buckler, thy helmet and crown; then shall thy soul walk upright nor stoop to the silken wretch because he hath riches, no pocket and abuse because the hand which offers it wears a ring set with diamonds. — Franklin.

Home Economic Dept Offers Food Problem Advice to Vet's Wives

With mounting food costs the veterans wives at East Texas State continue their search for money savings in food buying and food preparation.

Miss Mary Booth, professor and head of the Department of Home Economics offers these suggestions for money saving main dishes.

One need not have protein deficiencies even though one economizes on meat, stated Miss Booth. Also she said that choices will depend upon available supplies, costs, the season and what the family likes.

Students enrolled in the food preparation classes on the campus suggest a dinner or supper of baked squash filled with savory sausage and noodles for a nippy day in January.

The combination of the flour and the eggs in the noodles takes full advantage of the fine meat flavor and the food values which the sausage contributes. The cost of the sausage used in the preparation of this dish averages only .09 per person.

This dish requires only one-fourth pound of sausage for four people although one-sixth of the day's requirements of protein is amply met by combining this amount of sausage with the noodles and serving milk as a beverage in the same meal.

This appetizing oven dish invites the baking of an Apple Cris for dessert. To complete the meal we suggest a green vegetable such as buttered broccoli, pickled beet slices and grape salad.

Miss Booth said that anyone may have these and other money-saving main-dish recipes from the Home Economics Department.

The meeting was adjourned.

Garrett, Foster Wed In December 19 Rites

Miss Bobbie Jean Garrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Garrett, and W. G. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Foster, were married Sunday evening, December 19, at the home of the brides parents near Omaha, Texas. The ceremony was performed by R. L. Colley, minister of the Mt. Pleasant Church of Christ. The couple stood in front of a fireplace decorated with fern other greenery and flanked by baskets of white lilies and gladioli.

Miss Wilma June Parham of Mt. Pleasant was maid of honor and Louise Foster, brother of the groom, served as best man.

Soft music was given before and during the ceremony by Mrs. Howard McMillan of Commerce and Miss Norma Lee Helms of Maud. Candle-lighters were Miss Mary Ann Williams and Miss Sue Porter of Mt. Pleasant. Miss Martha Jane Garrett of Lewisville, Arkansas, was flower girl.

For her wedding the bride chose a taupe satin dress with long sleeves, and her jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from her aunt. She carried a white bible topped with a single orchid, with streamers and hyacinths. She also wore a winter white hat trimmed in tape.

A reception was held in the dining room where the table was laid with white lace over a pink cloth. The center-piece was of lilies, gladioli and fern, flanked by candles. On the table, also, was a large three-tiered wedding cake ornamented with a miniature bride and groom.

Miss Norma Lee Helma and Miss Ann McMartin served punch as Miss Mary Rirk served the cake.

After the reception the couple left for a honeymoon trip to the Ozarks and other points in Arkansas. For traveling the bride wore a wine colored gabardine suit, with black accessories, and the bridal orchid as a corsage.

The young couple returned to Commerce to complete this semester at East Texas State.

Elaine Little was appointed chairman of the decorations committee by Pres. Yvonne Nations and Dorcas Damewood, Ruth Gunn, Martha Lou Anglin and Barbara West were appointed to serve with her.

Various reports were given and the meeting adjourned with the singing of the club song.

Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Taylor-Short

The Rev. Claude M. Simpson officiated at the double ring ceremony December 18, at the Methodist Church in Commerce when Miss Jean Short became the bride of Haskell Taylor. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Short of Commerce, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Murray Dawson of Nelta.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white-tissue faille gown designed with a round neckline and long pointed sleeves. The skirt extended into a chapel-length train. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Peggy Arnold of Alba, was bridesmaid. She wore a formal wine velvet gown and carried a bouquet of lilac colored carnations.

Duncan, Mathis Rites Set For Mid Summer

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Duncan of DeKalb, have announced the engagement of their daughter Margaret to Wilmar W. Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Mathis of Clarksville.

The betrothal was announced at a lovely informal dinner at the Duncan home on December 24th. The entertainment suite was decorated in the Christmas motif. The engagement was revealed on white napkins embossed in gold with "Margaret and Wilmar—July."

Miss Duncan is a Sophomore at East Texas, majoring in Home Economics.

Mr. Mathis, a veteran of the Army Air Force, is a graduate of East Texas, and is now working on his masters degree in Vocational Agriculture at Sam Houston State Teachers College at Huntsville.

Milton saw not, and Beethoven heard not, but the sense of beauty was upon them, and they faint must speak.—Ruskin.

ions. Mr. Jerry Bert Davis of Nelta was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents after the ceremony. A cake, adorned with a miniature bride and groom standing under an arch, was served with punch to the guest by Mrs. Kenneth Short and Mrs. B. Short and Mrs. Murray Dawson.

The young couple went to Corpus Christi on their wedding trip. Mrs. Taylor wore a brown dressmaker suit, with brown and white accessories with a white gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Taylor is a student at East Texas State Teachers College and is majoring in Physical Education.

Mr. Taylor is a student at East Texas majoring in Pre-Med.

Out of town wedding guest was Mrs. B. Short, of Detroit, Michigan.

Phi Mu Psi Party Initiate Fall Pledges

Phi Mu Psi, East Texas State Music club, held its initiation service, Tuesday evening, December at 7:00 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Curtis Anders.

Several pledges were initiated, they were: Martin Lee Epps, J. D. Fry, Mary Pat Hollins, Willie Ruth Peek, Elvin Robinson, Bob Snyder, Deryl Jean Sparks and Charlene Williams.

The service was followed by the clubs annual Christmas Party. Everyone present, including several members of the music faculty, participated in and enjoyed the amusing games led by Mrs. Ruby Allred.

Numbers were drawn for gifts. These proved to be children's toys and were later added to the collection to be presented to the children from Boles Home who were on our campus the following day.

Refreshments consisting of hot chocolate, sandwiches and cookies were served.

Lions Start LSC Basketball Competition Tonight

SIDELINE VIEWS

By BURL MCCLELLAN

The year of 1948 was a mediocre year for the East Texas State Lions in their quest for Lone Star Conference crowns.

The Lions captured two out of the six crowns that they tried for, and the one received for basketball had to be shared with North Texas and Sam Houston. The second one was won when the Lions won the Lone Star Conference track and field meet on their home track.

The Lions were selected by the conference coaches to represent this conference at the NCAA basketball playoffs in Ft. Worth. Texas Wesleyan's Rams beat the Lions in the first game. The Rams went on to win the playoffs and go to Kansas City for the Western Division playoffs.

Two members of the 48 squad made all Lone Star Conference. They were Jake Carter and Truitt Ingram.

Out of the champion track team Robertson set two new records. They were in the low and high hurdles. He and Mike Mercado placed in the NCAA track meet in San Antonio and went to Milwaukee for the finals, where they failed to place.

The only second the Lions won was in Tennis. East Texas netters tied with North Texas

Eagles in this event.

In baseball the Lions slid to fifth place. Getting away to a bad start, the Lions managed to pull out of the cellar in the final weeks of the race. Bobby Griffin, catcher for the Lions, led the conference in hitting with a batting average over four hundred, and made all-conference. Cotton Cecil, right fielder for the Lions, also made the honorary team. Quisenberry was the leading pitcher for the Lions with two wins and one loss.

Coach Brush Maloney's golfers placed third in the conference, last season.

The Lions took the summer off. Then they returned in September to start football. When the season was over the injury-riddled Lions were in sixth place.

Bobby Griffin was the only Lion to make the all-conference eleven. Six other members of the Lion squad were given honorable mention.

This was one of the Lions' worst seasons. Key men were constantly injured, and with the Lion sparkplug, Bobby Griffin, out of action the Lions' manager, Charles Stubbiefield, suited up and played in the Denton game.

WRA Varsity Team Is Chosen Monday

Blue and Gold Honorary Varsity Basketball Teams were chosen by secret ballot Monday, January 3. The Women's Recreation Association is divided into permanent teams, the Blue and Gold. For each team sport in which they participate each team elects at the close of the nine weeks of the activity their most skillful players to form a team. The Blue Varsity and the Gold Varsity then play a championship game to decide which permanent team is the most proficient for that year in the particular team sport. Because the honor of the team is at stake members of the Blue and Gold teams are careful to choose their best players.

All W.R.A. members choose seven players from their respective teams in the election for Honorary Basketball teams. The eight players of each team who receive the highest number of votes make up the varsity teams. In the event of a tie for runner-up, both players are included on the team. The Honorary Varsity Basketball team of 1949 consists of the following: Blue—Betty Hamilton, Norma Nelson, Bobbie Cathy, Thompsene Champion, Margie Stubbiefield, Joyce McLaughlin, Virginia Browning, and Lavinne Verner. Gold — Betty Owens, Mary Bennington, Sue Bailey, Ann King, Peggy Ooten, Mary Howell, Lou Cummings, Reba Abel, and Myra Riley.

Ex Lion Grid Stars Parents Die in Fire

Harvey Bourland, 75, and his wife, Elizabeth, 53, were burned to death in the flames of their home Monday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Bourland lived in Greenville and had been long time residents of that city. Buster, Bourland former East Texas State Lion backfield star is the son of the Bourlands. Buster received this sad news during the Christmas holidays. He is now in school in Chicago.

Vandergriff Trips Lions 62-53 Monday

The Vandergriff Motor Co. cagers of Dallas came out on the big end of a 53-62 score with the East Texas State Lions Monday night.

Lane and Mitchell of the Vandergriff Motor took high scoring honors with 19 and 18 points respectively. They were followed by Lion forward Dick Gilbreath with 17 points and captain Truitt Ingram with 15.

The Lions pulled within four points of the visitors in the closing minutes of the game as the score stood 48-52. Then Vandergriff halted the Lion surge and scored eight points in quick succession to kill the Lion's chances.

The game was a rough affair with both teams committing a large number of fouls.

EAST TEXAN SPORTS

Track Outlook Fair For ETSTS Lions In Future Campaign

Although too early to get an accurate report for the East Texas State track team for '49, Coach Bob Berry states that the prospects for a winning team look fairly good.

Men back from the 1948 squad are: Mike Mercado, who holds state AAU championship for the 1-2 mile and won 3rd in the National AAU Jr. Track Meet; Robinson, who is conference champion and record holder for the 120 high hurdle and 220 low hurdle. He won 2nd in the State AAU and 3rd in the National AAU Jr. Track Meet. Also back are: Jim Bosworth, 440 and mile relay runner, David Hurst second place winner in conference broad jump, Roy Curry, discus thrower, and Bernard Alexander, javelin thrower.

Besides these lettermen, there are two students now enrolled in school, who will be eligible this year. Arturo Ochoa, who was high school champion of 1947 in the broad jump. He is also a sprinter and javelin thrower. He claims Laredo, Texas as his home. And Robert Smith, a freshman from Texarkana, who won 2nd in State High School Meet in high hurdles last year.

The 1949 track schedule promises to be a busy one according to the following schedule:

- March 12. Border Olympics at Laredo, Texas.
- March 19 Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show at Ft. Worth.
- March 27. Triangle track meet (tentative).
- April 2. Texas Relays at Austin.
- April 9. Birmingham, Ala. Relays at Birmingham.
- April 16. Southwestern Louisiana Relays at Lafayette, La.
- April 23. Kansas Relays at Lawrence, Kan.
- April 30. Drake Relays at Des Moines, Iowa.
- May 5. Dual meet with NTS-TC at Denton (tentative).
- May 13-14. Conference Track Meet at Nacogdoches.

Local Quint Favored Over Trinity; Meet Strong Southwest Texas Saturday

East Texas State's hardwood quintet, tri-champions of the Lone Star Conference, begin defense of their share of the title this week-end in a pair of cage contests that pit the local cagers against Trinity University Friday night and Southwest Texas Saturday night. Both games will be played on the local court.

Texas Teams Win In Major Bowl Games

The Texas teams that participated in the larger bowl games of the day on New Year's day came out with the Texas flag waving high.

ORANGE BOWL

The surging Texas Longhorns who were given a third rate mention and then came out on the long end of a 41-28 score against the highly favored Georgia Bulldogs. In this game the Texans came from behind three times to gain the victory. In a view of the statistics the Longhorns showed fine honors by having 19 first downs to the Bulldogs' 9. In net yards rushing the Texas squad had 332 while the Georgia aggregation had 56. In pass completions the Texas Longhorns attempted 10 passes and completed 5 for a gain of 70 yards while Georgia's John Rauch attempted 17 and completed 11 for 161 yards.

Each team had two passes intercepted. Guess this will teach the sports writers and all the other people not to underestimate the Southwest Conference.

SUGAR BOWL

Another great southern team the Oklahoma Sooners defeated the North Carolina Tarheels 14-6. The great Charley Justice was playing good ball but the Mighty Sooners were too much for him. The Sooner forward wall was all over Justice and had his plays doped out by the time the All-American got the ball. Jack Mitchell was the spear head for the Sooner attack. His ball handling was a thing of great deception as the North Carolina lads had quite a job keeping up with who had the ball.

ROSE BOWL

The Northwestern Wildcats trimmed the California Golden Bears 20-14. Once again the Big Nine Conference has won the honors of the Rose Bowl. This is the third straight year since the pact between the Big Nine and Pacific Coast Conference that the Big Nine has come out the champs. Frank Aschenbrenner was the best back of the day for the Wildcats. Frank Brunkan understudy for the great Jackie Jensen was the hero of the day for the Golden Bears as he was a consistent ground gainer. He was playing a great game from the time he went in until the finish.

It was a 43 yard scamper by Ed Tunniff, a 165 pound scabbard that put Northwestern ahead at the fading moments of the game.

DIXIE BOWL

The Baylor Bears upheld the honor of the Southwest Conference and lambasted the Wake Forest Deacons 20-7. Both of the Trinity squad by virtue of the Lions third place in the season standing and Trinity in sixth. Trinity has won only two games while losing four. Trinity has scored 272 points, while their opposition has scored 342.

East Texas has scored 432 points while their opponents pitched in 390.

In Saturday night's game the Bobcats will have a slight edge on the Lions. Southwest Texas has won six games and lost three this season.

The second place Bobcats have outscored their opponents 530 to 486.

While the Lions will depend on the Ingram, Whitten, Gilbreath combination for their scoring punch, the Bobcats will have George Carlisle and James Littleton to produce the offensive punch for them.

WRA Cage Standing

Final standings of teams in the W.R.A. Basketball Tournament:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Bailey	5	0	1.000
Hamilton	4	2	.666
Howell	3	3	.500
Cummings	3	3	.500
Nelson	2	4	.333
Champion	0	5	.000

The Spring semester activities of W.R.A. will include volleyball on Mondays and Wednesdays and Square Dancing on Tuesdays and Thursdays for the first nine weeks. The second nine weeks will consist of softball on Mondays and Wednesdays and Tennis and Badminton on Tuesdays and Thursdays. All co-eds who enjoy sports are eligible for participation.

Go to the church of your choice every Sunday.

these schools are Baptist colleges. The old Baylor line got quite a few scares but once again it held and carried Baylor to its first bowl victory. While Baylor was winning the other members of the Southwest Conference was getting its share of the glory that was to be passed out on this great New Year's day.

COTTON BOWL

The Southern Methodist University Mustangs kept their record clean for the first victory of 1949. The Mustangs defeated the Oregon Webfoots 21-13 behind the magnificent playing of Kyle Rote. Rote played the great ball that made him all-state in San Antonio. Once again the Mustangs got ahead and fought to keep the lead. That score once again was S.M.U. 21 and Oregon 13.
