Pre-Registration to Begin Today, Will Continue 14 Days

Students Enabled To Select Schedule For Next Semester Now

Pre-registration begins today and students have two weeks until Friday, January 20, by which to arrange their schedules for the coming semester. Very few, however, will wait until the last days to register, when most students have reacted to the maximum limit.

It will be necessary for each student to get a copy of the schedule together with three copies of the application form to take to his advisor. After the schedule has been completed, it should be taken to each instructor for his signature.

Two scholarship cards must be filled out.

Girls Dorm Receiving Related Shipment Of New Bed Equipment

When Santa Claus made his annual visit to the dormitory girls' Christmas breakfast, the distributor, Ed. Giffa, of the girls, he marked his departure by presenting a letter to the president of the dormitory council, E. L. Rowland.

This letter contained an apology from Santa that he could not bring the new Simmons beds and mattresses, but his helpers were rushing them to completion, and the furniture would arrive as a belated gift.

Chairs, shrubs and much apparatus were the girls' reactions upon hearing news of visiting new beds and mattresses. They are awaiting the arrival of the new improvement.

N. V. A. workers have begun to paint the interiors of the dormitory, obtaining a new colorings, floors, walls, and closets. The original colorings were in shades of light and white. With a few weeks more work, the dormitory will be new and furnished with new furniture established.

500th Student Likely To Sign For Locust Early This Morning

"I am expecting the five hundredth student to sign for his own Locust early this morning," predicted Business Manager Lou Williams, when questioned yesterday as to the progress of the 1937 yearbook sale. "Last week, 263 students ordered the book in only four days and that mark should be easily exceeded by tomorrow at 10:00 when the Locust Office, L-104, closes until Monday morning." "For the past several years, no more than 500 books have been ordered, but if the demand justifies an increase, Williams said that more would be available, signed for now.

It was also announced that the fifty hundredth individual to sign for the Locust would be the photo will be included in the feature section of the book.

The Press Training School students were announced by Business Manager Williams and his staff, James (Doc) Edgar, C. H. Williams and David Williams.

As many as twelve sign a price of $3.00 will be given to the student who orders the book first. The additional value of the book is slightly advanced more than $2.00 worth. An additional procedure will be to give the student who orders the book first and more copy has been written in for the getting complete.

First Semester's Exams Start Tuesday, Jan. 26

Eleven little days sitting on the calendar, then along come exams and East Texas students will again study long and sincerely.

East Texas A. C. Ferguson announced yesterday that examinations for each period of the semester will begin the schedule of finals at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, January 26. Toanoowe Sponsors Last All-College of Semester Tomorrow Night at 7:30

Toanoowe is sponsoring the last all-college dance of the fall semester Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the library ballroom. It will likewise be the first for social events since the Christmas holidays.

The Southern Courtiers will furnish the music, for the affair. Miss Clara and her Courtiers, Miss dance band have become different favorites of campus dancers.

Tickets are now on sale and may be obtained from any of the group for the regular dance charge $1.00. As usual, permits are required from the dean's office.

The Toanoowe dance was scheduled for last week but postponed until tomorrow. An exception, sponsored by Les Choliste, located early this fall for next week rescheduled postponement to prevent a two-day succession of dances and will be postponed next semester as the week following is devoted to examinations.

DEAR SUZY,

Dear Suzy: Of course I do love and love it about you, but it was fun while it lasted. One of the most expert stand-uppers was Joe Tompkins, who was asking the same question: "What corner of the library sided and shuffed only by 20 side brown snakes. These ragsides happened to Steve Kater who took a nose dive and Bush being.

A stranger could tell that fingers are almost up, up by the crowd that crowd into the library at all hours. This back work is cutting down the starting lists.
