OFF THE CHEST

DIMING OUR SOLDIERS—over to Billie North Texas State Monday to see the Lanes stop off of the Lone Star Conference champs, the high flying Eastern Sports Editor Oliver Barber and the writer dropped in for a friendly call on an old friend, Sports Editor Oliver Barber, one of the most hospitable and able young journeymen we have ever known. Barber was greeted by his opposing opponent, Jay Galtman, who heartily welcomed us into his living room as he is new on the scene.

SOME OF THE other members, whom we either met or with whom we renewed acquaintances, began to discuss the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association's convention last week in Harry Black, editor of the Denton workbook, who convinced us that he was going to show us parts of his book. Red Martin, sports columnist; Ray Edwards, Hyman Curtis, and some others, all were present to see the high jumping boys are forced to bind, minding of the weightlifters that occur after the game is over.

SUCH VERY FRIENDLY treatment by the really interesting members, many of whom we met off set considerably by a mob of violently radical politicians who thought the Lanes make up for another loss to East Texas (we won your Eastern 200 last November, did we not?) was to ATTACK the Lanes who supposed them from their high perch.

THEY'RE small and rickety gymnasium was filled with spectators who thought they came to see the Eagles beat the Lanes for the second time, but were so badly disappointed.

NO RUDELY we... they disappointed that they floundered on the courts to try and make out that beating in their files. Had not several members of the Denton party been present, they would have succeeded... as how to they... East Texas... outnumbered about 2,000 to 25... at the North Texas... officials and conservatives regret the incident very much, as such extremely poor sportsmanship... not becoming to a school... to be so gross... matter how bad we have been... we were tried to take it on... own home territory were more... than Texas... sports fans could endure.

FESTAS A LA KING... Paul Boggs, Billy Leatherwood, Leon Pottling, who insist on... whistling or singing the name... which is being played over a radio.

CONGRATULATIONS... to Jeff Woodruff and Paul Connor who did extremely well in this tournament and themselves... week which was at Austin last week-end. Jeff, president of our own student council, was elected president of the association of... majority which makes us indeed proud of Woodruff and Connor, who are representative to the student council from the junior class.

Beautiful Industrial Building is Rapidly Nearing Completion

East Texas State's new science building, which is located on the northwest corner of the campus, is rapidly nearing completion. It is built of brick and white stone, the whole floor being composed of the latter. The building is to be called the Science and Industrial Arts, and this name will be printed across the front of the building.

Latest developments are the windows, which are a new type and the slabs of blue granite that will be set in the walls. This is the first time that this style of granite has been used on the campus.

SPEAKING OF SPORTS

BY OLIVER BARBER

IT ALWAYS gives a team great satisfaction to down a champ, especially one who enters the arena as the champion of NORTH TEXAS STATE. The Lions have received this feeling last Monday night when they defeated North Texas 41-29. Before a full house in the Herring gymnasium... The Denton crowd cheered closed the cage season for the locals as well as playing a part in a game with the Stephen F. Austin Lumberjacks for the next year.

STATISTICS VINSON led the conference with 262 points, followed closely by CARPENTER'S 80 and MATTESON'S 82. The Lions have lost 3 non-conference and 4 conference games out of 23 this year.
