Nothing of Flags
THUSING affairs quack as much fun during the traditional Freshman week as the mad scramble, the fight, the general havoc wrought every day on the green flag which remains fresh and alive to flourish in the faces of apprehensive men, the lion and the bear that rise to the center during the week set aside for them. It is a lot of fun, not calculating and formal, but a lot of fun as done by the noble athletes Freshman.

The annual annual triumph of holding a crowd bit of stock in the top of the pole, reserved for the stars and stripes, occurred again this week. Monday night, jubilation first began raised the flag to the top of the pole, tied the ropes up high, and smeared the pole with axle grease. Freshmen the pole was their measure to prevent the flag being rescued. It has never prevented removing the flag yet and it happens every year.

The administration has frowned upon such action each time it has occurred and doesn't hesitate to say why. Smearing the pole with axle grease brings about the job of cleaning it very carefully to prevent its collecting dirt. To say it is unpractical to fix a bit of axle oil, no matter what of significance it may be to the freshmen, where the United States flag belongs.

The administration wants the freshmen to enjoy their week and to fly their flag. The deans have no objection to their flying the green banner from buildings, but not on the poles. For participation week and to avoid the "mildly messy" mess, let's have the flag pole out of this.

ENGLISH LESSON
You saw a beautiful girl walking down the street.
You walk across the street, changing to verbal, and then become adverb. If she is not obnoxious, you become plural. —Stoutonia

DEFINITION OF LOVE
Love is a funny little thing.
It is something like a heart.
It beats itself around your heart.
And ticks at your girland.

I think, you think.
He thinks, all think.
I think, all think.
I think, all think.
I think, all think.

"You look sweet enough to eat."
He whispered soft and low.
"I am," she said quite bravely.
"Where do you want to go?"

WE NOMINATE

THE GREAT FRESHMAN WEEK is the coming fourth of the camp; and that's without having to get any acres of success from the city. C. W. CHRISTIAN and BOB DAVIS as a smooth running team. And we hear that RACK GOLDING is a fair runner under the right circumstances.

PLUGS

The big plug goes to ARKANSAS CARSON because he is leaving his worn coat to the Pub; and we don't mean CROCKERY either. JESSE CARROLL, who made ideal FRESHMEN newspaper series.

JUST BY LOOKING

We saw one that RAY SAWYER and WILLIAMS MARKMAN are helping. Yes, this of that mythical fish called "love" which is not really MOORE. For the time being, they have a young boy named Bob, but then something can happen in Arkansas (it). FRANKLIN DIXON dating high school girls from Arkansas and while ATHLETIC HOLDER and ROBERT BLAKE take time out to do some court courting.

GOOD LOOKERS

W. W. WINSTON is among the best. PALMER says so, vote go to C. W. CHRISTIAN and CARROLL. BOETTCHER on the heavy side and JOYCE GIBSON on the light side, one vote went to DORIS SNOBGHASS and GEORGE MCHOWLE.

IT IS A FACT

That JIMMIE KILGORE, CHUCK HILLBREATH, and a number of other apprentices took a good tanning from a Freshman. (not calling names). DOT LANTIER is losing weight. If you can't tell if the first hook look again be sure you wouldn't see any less the second time that HELEN HANCOCK is showing forgetting HERMAN back home.

HOUSE PLANNING

is making some of WOODIE BENNING'S plans. The FRESHMAN WOODIE is optimistic soul and says somebody he hopes they may live in a house built by his plans. The FRESHMAN house-planning guy J. C. REICHERT and CLINT WINDHAM but their plans aren't serious. RUDY POLLACK was doing all right today. Tomorrow we mean to be back to go home to the family, and then there are the L. FIFE and JACK PHILIPPI who just an exciting week out of town and definitely without their studies. Jack's the guy who knows plenty but isn't saying anything. (3).

IT BEGINS

PEHRY GOOLSBY is doing all the good in F. K. ROGERS' old stomping grounds down South Mayo way. POLLARD and HUFFSTILLER are responsible for the kind of literature BOB LEVELL read while he was in the hospital, or maybe he just looked at it. FUZZY BOLCH'S "true love" blew in from Oklahoma.

HAPPY MILK'S nicknames are "Smokey" and "LITTLE" these days. Love, don't let ERDIE'S, ERNIE (LALLIE) YOUNG says it finds life much simpler when he stays away from women, but who wants to live like ERNIE WAMMACK and DOROTHY STEVENS, just court and court and never get tired. The story about JACK LANGSTON, two year old baby, is false so he doesn't deserve his "OLD MAN" title after all. LANKY WILCOX can be a little tough as well as a muckhead, but he insists he isn't the type. BOY TRAVIS has some pressing business with MARY WILKERS' in Army Street. —BIBBY LEATHERWOOD had ambition for a thrilling FRESHMAN week. BOB JAMES is more than fond of whatever it is to come to big D on every weekend.

ORIGINES

WESTLEY PIERCE is still grieving over a recent misunderstanding with a certain little T. S. girl, but he was doing alright with MARY BHAKE Sunday night. WESTLEY was with JUSTUS PRICE along. MACK HILBERT is doing a little grieving too, but MACK'S a man of men and might as well get on with it. "pipe hot", then WHITTENBURG did his bit to make this section of the FRESHMEN staff forget its grief by entertaining with music Monday morning. GUY PALMER (no relations to the editor) is grieving because some apprentices made her walk to the grocery store, she fainted, and we hear that VIRGINIA

SMALL TALK IN A BIG TOWN

Shimmy Kolka, fresh from a featured role in Paramount's "College Swing," is the latest drum-caller to forsake the Tapes for a better. Shimmy will debut with his own band at the South Texas High in Beverly Hills April 14. Room mate of Hal Kemp at the University of California, Los Angeles, Kolka is a first-class original band on the same campus and staged with it for 12 years, eventually achieving fame in his own right for his intimate style of vocal delivery. —Also rearing his own head at present is Gene Evans, former Benny Goodman guitarist.

SMITH is just grooving and grooving 'way'. It seems that RAGINE STARBUCK believes the best way to forget old CROCKERY with a little "biggie" and know ROLL because he made an extra special request for it. —For ERBERT PALMER (VIRGINIA BAKER) has ten lessons on taste when it comes to dates. —BOB KNIGHT can fairly use those hazy baby eyes of hers. —JEAN EDDIE giving the "colanders" a "right" Wednesday night, and we must emphasize PAULINE MELBURY on her nerves. —There are very few who can save the money. —Laska has been a steady to take her home. —AVIS EMERY "compliment" JIMMY HONAN by saying that he "likes" her "style". —While LOUISE BYRNES and INEZ WILSON are trying to think up something good they have done we'll just mention they are by far the best people. —A country man may not be exactly what these four little girls deserve, but EVAN DAVIS, NATHANIEL HUBERT, MARY BIGGERS, and DOROTHY WELDON can really catch rides when they want to go to Greenville, and good for CARMINE REATY'S campus cure under prof B.B. MCHOWLE.

COMPLIMENTS

National tennis syndicates are after the column circulation left open by the death of O. J. McEwen, to date, columnist Walter Winchell and Charles Delaney seem to have grabbed the most prizes. Broadway makes its beds in its ranks. —Arthur Schwartz, the time scribbler, and Walter Hatch, vintage music director who carried big guy at the University of Chicago while he was teaching his way through school in campus. —

LASCIOUS LACIAS

Parloff of the New Yorker profiles was the first one (two plays entered) on Lucius Boebe, N. Y. Herald Tribune dandy who writes about city society in his column "This New York." "Lascious Lacias," as Whiffel calls him, was named out of Yale in '26 graduated from Harvard in '27, which is a record parity of some sort. Of the two schools, the one that gave him the "prowling" style is the one that holds a soft spot in his heart. "What distinguishes Lacias from the crowd is the New Yorker in his private income of $50,000 or more annually, and an inheritance of a half-million. As if that weren't sufficient he is tall and handsome; has a penchant for the fashion; things of life, and owns more $33 vintage about New York's trinitaries than gin, ginethis of his serious colleagues.

ANOTHER ALL-AMERICAN BAND

Later in how we want to be way about all these All-American teams that will drive you batty next November, why jumping the gun again months in advance and giving you an All-American band from Paramount, D.C. on. Frank has been in a D.C. from Indiana, its size, trick, however, is possibly his player, and Don Wood and Howard Harkness from Chicago. "Little Newkawa is reported in Dallas. Abe Hill and Laska of "College Football" are at "College Football" from the SAE books at Oklahoma, and Carl Bean claims Duke for his own make, "College Football" from the SAE books at Oklahoma, and Carl Bean claims Duke for his own make, "College Football" from the SAE books at Oklahoma, and Carl Bean claims Duke for his own make, "College Football" from the SAE books at Oklahoma.
