PITY THE POOR LEPER!

A Louisville, Kentucky, woman, who recently led the bulk her $7,000 estate to be donated to a leper colony with this observation: "I often wondered why people don't help the most helpless—the lepers."

A worthy purpose, but one which overlooks the fact that leprosy is an isolated and comparatively rare disease. While another which is equally repellent and infinitely more dangerous is now sweeping the civilized world, striking one in every TEN adults in the UNITED STATES alone!

You would shudder in horror if a leper roamed in your own neighborhood. Can you feel more at ease when one in ten of your neighbors may be a victim of SYPHILIS!

Leprosy is a rare disease. SYPHILIS is your own PRIVATE ENEMY NUMBER ONE.—The Fraiser.

CHAPLIN IS WORTHWHILE

There is no comedian who did not attend chapel. The most missed program that would have been worthy of a professional. Miss Davis has a good voice and she sang the most popular of the current song hits.

It is hard to understand why more students do not take interest in these programs. There is no doubt that to the student and quite often the entertainment is as good as that at the theater. The auditorium is equipped with fans and the seats are as comfortable as any on the campus. There is no competition about chapel—one can attend one or can sit around on stone benches in the heat, but every Tuesday and Thursday there will be a program in Ferguson Auditorium. Some of these will be presented merely to entertain, some will have educational value—all of them will be worth every student's time.

CLIPPINGS

What can a woman answer to silence? Smiles and indifference, spirited anger. What can she say of the lover she's losing? Oh, he was a good friend, the finest of men. What can she do to show him she loves him? How can she talk to him, empty of heart? Ask him for nothing—be gay when she sees him—Ladd to arrive and first one to part.

Maybe he's hurt—maybe he's dying—Maybe he's waiting in pain for her call—Leave him alone. He will speak if he wants her. He'll die first, but he'll hope you, that's all. How can she face this grief and this heartbreak, this thinking and hatching in every pore of her skin? She can look forward, when pain's past enduring. To weeping alone on her pillow at night.

HOW NOT TO GRADUATE

- 1. Fail to give up your parents. 2. To remain in college. 3. Don't give a kiss. 4. Sign up for a course you think is a cinch.

TODAY'S FABLE

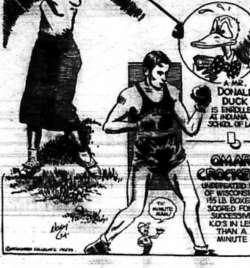

Once upon a time there was an orchard leader who wasn't called the King of Spies—Santa Claus. He had a lot of money and he was making permanent waves and making permanent waves—Solias.

Now all things—Hold fast to that which you will soon—GORDON

7,000 Articles Now Included in East Texas State Museum

More than 7,000 articles now included in East Texas State museum on the third floor of library building, according to an announcement by Dr. C. T. Rice, history teacher and head of the museum. This does not include clippings of any kind...

Recently a new schedule of hours was put into effect which makes it possible for any student to spend at least one period looking at the interesting displays. There are many art objects of unusual value on display and all students are urged to visit the museum at least once during the summer.

A visitor has been placed in the museum and all who visit are requested to sign their name and address. Students who visit are also requested to bring their students to the museum. Any one who has material that would be of interest is urged by Dr. Rice to loan it to the museum.

The new schedule of hours is as follows: Monday - 8 to 12 o'clock A. M. Tuesday - 10 to 12 A. M. 7 to 10 P. M. Wednesday - 8 to 12 A. M. Thursday - 10 to 12 A. M. 7 to 10 P. M. Friday - 9 to 12 A. M. Saturday - 9 to 12 A. M.
