Red's Dash

Red's Dash, business manager of the EAST TEXAN, and the writer joined to Marshall to watch the Fresh class with the COM TIGERS from an up Van Zandt box. They were greatly impressed by the numerous traffic signals in small towns along the way which brought to the standstill in every instance with the exception of twice in Lenoir view. ... If several more traffic lights were installed near the campus it would do away with some of this fifty mile hour driving and lower the danger of fatal accidents.

THE MAJORITY

got up a good fight against the Tigers but could not check the Marshall Toss. ... Charlie Webb, 163 lb. halfback from El Paso, tossed the left pass to the right and into the hands of a player who carried a 34 victory. ... Another performer by the name of Woody who had a good understanding of the Linden Varsity Way to wear the colors of the Marshall Tigers, ran the Princeton on their legs throughout the game. ... Another player resting talk with Spencer Jones, well-known Sports Writer of the East Texas, who believes that the Webb kid is one of the best running backs in the Junior College League.

Nite at Cub Gymnasium

The Toanooze Club entertained its guests with a barn dance on Wednesday night at the Cub Gym at 8:30 o'clock.

All guests and members were dressed in overalls and gingham dresses. They enjoyed dancing to Son Furry and his Swingsters.

Guests and their dates paraded and the couple dressed the "corniest" was a prize. The couple who won the prize was Walter Barber and Peggy Thorne, who received a copy of the "Top Gun" and the Express magazine. There was also a hog calling contest in which Roy Rivers was a big winner.

The big attraction of the evening was fitting the letters of corn. The letters were allowed the covered prize of kissing the girl guest of his choice. Refreshments were apple cider which was served from its own and ginger beer.

Society Notes

Bathing activities are well under way on the campus, helping even the parties and entertainments that usually occur around bathhouses. . . All the second functions have been given, and the choice is now in preparation for their third affairs. . . The Toanooze Barn party Wednesday night was a joy and hilarious affair. . . Every young fellow in town who enjoyed getting himself in a bit of the swing of the evening. . . Elmer Barber and Peggy Anderson carried off the honors for being dressed the nicest. . . Ken Christian, as he is in a "romantic" mood, took some pictures on a good old-fashioned camera. . . We understood it was the night for ever. . . Traditions and customs are being passed on and being so amusingly loved and accepted, the letters mentioned that they were in the Century House of the Arlington Hotel here.

Three girls also changed their names in the coming year. . . In spite of the sports and parties, the students are still studying hard and are preparing to enter the next semester.

Marpessa Bronze Tea Held
Tuesday Afternoon at Home
Of Miss Juanita Rice

Marpessa held its traditional Bronze Tea Tuesday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock, at the home of Miss Juanita Rice.

Ruth captain in Bob Johnson greeted the guests at the door. Others in the receiving line were Elizabeth McNair, president, Juanita Rice, hostess, Elizabeth Huggins and Ruth Walling, sponsors. The reception room was decorated with seasonal flowers. The emblem was displayed over a table on which a lovely bouquet was placed.

The tea table was laid in her light by young ladies in bronze holders. The centerpiece was fashioned of crystalline items and autumn leaves and came with bronze frames spraying from it.

The Marpessa guest book was a lovely memento with the emblem on the cover done in the club colors, red and silver. As each guest registered she was given a memento of bronze crystaline music and with a bronze button.
