Homecoming Day Will Run 7-10

A crowd of approximately 7000 persons is expected to swarm the campus for Homecoming activities tomorrow, with members of the classes of 1891, 1911, 1921, 1931, 1941 and 1951 as honored guests. This year marks East Texas State's 60th annual celebration.

Visitors to the campus will be honored with reunion parties by various organizations and social clubs, they will attend a football game pitting East Texas State against Stephen F. Austin State Teachers college, will watch a two-mile-long parade and will attend a luncheon and business meeting of the Ex-Students association.

An all-student dance in the Student Union building at 8 p.m. will climax the day's activities. A floor show will be presented.

First on the list of affairs will be coffee hour and registration. These for these is 9:30 to 10 a.m. in the SUB.

Approximately 17 bands from the East Texas area and 30 floats are scheduled to take part in the parade, which begins at 10 a.m. Starting place will be the area between the Administration building and the Field house and Whitley gymnasium. Route of march will be from Administration building down Lee to Monroe, up to Live Oak over to Pecan, to Alamo, to Park down Main st., up Washington, back to Live Oak and then following route to starting spot.

Included in the line of march will be ROTC, Texas, Paragon, Ogma, Les Cholistes, Artemis, Grammie, Spanish, Toccoonee, Cheer leaders and Mad Hatters. —Continued on Page 8

Ballot Battle Begins In Beauty Campaign

Students of the South's most democratic college will again trek to the polls Tuesday to select their most popular boy, their most popular girl and their beauties.

Balloting will be held in the Student Union building from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will be under direction of the Student council.

Seven candidates are in the race for the most popular boy and 17 women students are on the ticket for the most popular girl campaign. Names of 71 women students have been nominated for the beauty race.

In the most popular boy contest are Joe Russell, Kenneth Tuck, Bo Newton, Bill Bell, Rich Pratt, Wanda Burns and James Blackhear.

Most popular girl nominees include Margaret Fleisher, Mary Beth Rabb, Anna Draper, Cynthia Moulton, Mary Freeman, Pan Cham, Barbara Seaman, Lisa Mae Hyatt, Bama Sluder, Lou Ann McCord, Annette Marchman, Melba Howell, Bobbie O'Brien, Jeanette Meurer, Dionne Moore, Cynthia Moulton, Helen Newell, Betty Nichols.

Beauties Center
In the campaign for beauties are Laura Kathryn Arnold, Peggy Bankhead, Phyllis Bonner, Joan Decker, Anna Draper, Bill Duncan, Patricia Dye, Eleanor Ella, Stella Eubanks, Bobbie Kiers, Betty Ferguson, Joyce

College Farm Adds Junior Jersey Sire

A junior sire has been added to the East Texas State Teachers college Jersey herd. The animal, Masterman's Standard Ticker, will be used to follow in the offspring of the present herd sire, Masterman Premier Columbian.

Ticker, which placed third in the senior calf class at the 1951 State Fair of Texas, was bred by Knolle Jersey farm. His sire, Jester Alm, is a six star Silver Medal senior superior sire.

Jester Alm has 67 classified daughters that average $3.93 per cent and 40 Register of Merit daughters that average 512 pounds of butterfat.

The present college herd has grown from the original six cows obtained last December to the present nine animals.

Light's Action! Set! On With The Fire

Title: Who Put Out The Fire
In Nellie's Chamber

Place: Brandon Hall
Time: Halloween Night
Action: Student on lower floor places Jack O' Lantern containing lighted candle in window. Venetian blind catches fire.

The hero, Pat Pope, speech instructor of East Texas State, who is passing outside, sees flame and rushes madly in and extinguishes flame amid cheers of audience.

"Beware, fair maiden," he says as he bows to the audience and exits. One student sums it up:

"All there was to the fire was a big stink, a little smoke, and a lot of confusion."

Review to Publish Saylor's Article

Dr. R. Saylor, professor of government at East Texas State, has been notified that the Rocky Mountain Law Review will publish his article, "Let's Amend the Constitution," in the spring edition.

Dr. Saylor's thesis in the article is that a national constitutional amendment should be adopted fixing the number of United States Supreme Court justices at nine. Reasons for this contention comprise the remainder of the article.

Dean Is Speaker At Teacher Meet

Dr. J. Cullen Bowers, dean of East Texas State, was the main speaker at a meeting of the Hunt county unit of Texas State Teachers' association held in Greenville Tuesday night.

Theme of his talk was "certification."

Sub Board Names Committee Members

At the SUB Board of Directors meeting in the Student Union Building Tuesday evening names for committee members were suggested by the chairman of each committee and voted on by the board.

Martha Overall, representative of Les Cholistes club and chairman of the constitution committee, has Perry Dawson and Bob Bradford on her committee. Special Events chairman Tom Mabry is representative of the Artemis club. Serving on his committee will be Jo Ann Wilson, Susan Loving, Jo Ed Smith and Pan Chism.

Burnell Blount, Kaidish representative, is chairman of the dance committee. Her committee members include Betty Deaton, Peggy Norman, Phil Fugitt, Gost Stewart and Richard Turf.

Dorrece King, representative of the Caracama club, is chairman of the art committee. Serving on her committee will be Patsy Griffing, Valton Holley, Dot Bryant and Harris Green.

Chairman of the hospitality committee is Beth Parker, representative of the Marpesa club. Her committee members are Rita Jennings, Duane Appleton and Tommy Jordan.

President of the board, Ken Evans, and sponsors, Mrs. Curtis Anders and J. T. Adams, work with the committees.

Solon Loving has been selected to represent the Alpha Phi Omega.

Former Student Sent

D. D. Dillingham of Shreveport, La. and a former student of E. T., has been selected by his company, United Gas of Shreveport, for an advanced course in business management at Harvard university.

Student Constitution Revision Gets Started

East Texas State Teachers college will soon have a new constitution of the student body announced. Aivis Burns, graduate student from Linden, who is chairman of the revision committee.

On the committee to help Mr. Burns are Melba Nowell, junior business major and transfer student from Paris Junior college, and Paul Durrett, senior business major from Waco. Alex Kibler, president of Student Council, also pointed this committee from class representatives to the Student council.

Reason for revising the constitution is because the old one contains out-of-date material and needs amendments. Terms are being stated more specifically in this revision.

This is the first time the constitution has been revised since 1947, the original being drawn up in 1922.

When the new constitution is finished, the committee will present it to the administration. If it will then be presented to the Student Council. The Student council will vote on it and then present it to the student body for ratification.

In balloting for Locust beauties, most popular boy and most popular girl; the committee announces that write-in votes are valid by the provisions in the old constitution. Election for beauties and most popular boy and girl will be Tuesday Nov. 14, and an opinion by students on the length of future Western Weeks will be submitted at this time.

One important amendment added to the constitution reads that during athletic events with competing schools, our campus will not be guarded and E. T. students will not deface the campus of competing schools.

A new procedure for electing Homecoming queen is under consideration.

BOB DINGUS AND BOB EMERSON, both of Maud, examine a projector at a local theater. They are among 440 East Texas students who have worked for the local movie houses.

Theaters Have Given Jobs to 400 Students

Since A. W. "Jack" Lilly purchased the Lyric Theater in Commerce on March 13, 1919, he has employed 400 college students from East Texas State.

Ninety-two per cent of the 400 students have received degrees at East Texas State. World War II was responsible for part of the 8 per cent that did not receive a degree.

These people are now in different phases of life; however, the largest number are teaching school. Jack London is employed by the Security State bank in Commerce. Johnny Long is managing the Mission and Canton theaters in Sulphur Springs. Glenn "Brush" Maloney, assistant professor of physical education at East Texas and Herman "Sleepy" Morgan is freshman football coach at Southern Methodist university. Three cashiers have gone to White's Dry Goods store in Commerce as bookkeepers.

W. D. "Doc" Mitchell, manager of the Palace and Lyric, is in contact with theater managers of neighboring towns. He gets high school students who otherwise would not be able to attend college; however some local students are employed.

E. T. Comes Long Way From Small Time Plant

By Allene Martin

From a small, privately-owned normal school to the largest teachers college in Texas, from a very small plant to the present 600-acre plant is the progress that East Texas State Teachers college has made in the sixty-two years in which it has been in existence.

In 1889, William Leonidas Mayo founded the East Texas Normal school in Cooper. A fire completely destroyed the school in 1894. Because of the inducements offered by the citizens of Commerce, the school was re-established here. The first enrollment in Commerce was 19 which increased to 88 by the end of the year.

In March, 1917, the Legislature of Texas provided for four new state teacher training institutions. One of which is now known as East Texas.

Under Governor James E. Ferguson, James Westbrook, representative from Tarrant county, introduced a bill into the Thirty-fifth Legislature, authorizing $50,000,000 to be paid for the Mayo school with its fifty acres on the day the bill passed.

The Board of Regents selected Randolph B. Hinton for president of the school in June, 1917.

Meanwhile the Thirty-eighth Legislature changed the official names of all teacher training institutions in the state to "teachers' colleges." On October 5, 1917, East Texas State Teachers college opened its doors as a state institution for the first time with an enrollment of 850 students.

When Mayo founded his normal school, it was his purpose to provide classes all year for the youth of the northeastern section of the state. The school was designed with the idea that the more individual the instruction the more effective it is. This tradition has continued down through the years.

Sixty-two years of progress have made East Texas one of the most out-standing schools in the state of Texas.

Thru the Years

Catalog Shows Campus Changes

"My, how things have changed," will probably be the stock phrase of Homecoming tomorrow, and one glance around the campus will prove the point.

But for definite emphasis as to how things have really changed, consider the first two college catalogs issued at the turn of the century.

Page 2 of the 1902-03 bulletin gives the following information about East Texas Normal college.

Board of Regents—None
"We use no names of distinguished politicians or other men of high-sounding titles for mere catch-traps."

Board of Trustees—None
"No such dignitaries to hold us in suspense for weeks or months when we wish to make the slightest change or needed improvement."

Board of Directors—None
"We are not check-reigned by such a body of men who know far less about school work than about the business they follow, and who are ever ready to suggest ideas prevailing when they went to school."

Board of Visitors—Everybody
"Who desire to attend college or has a son, daughter, or a friend anxious to acquire a general or special education, a minimum outlay of time and money."

There have been some changes made, but the last board is still the same. Especially is this true on Homecoming day, when visitors throughout the East Texas State area are welcomed on the campus.

When it came to proving the point about the low cost of getting a college education at East Texas Normal, the bulletin offered "table alone, per month" at $6.00 and "room, furniture, per month each pupil" at $1.80.

And as signs of the times, several students listed as enrolled here gave their home towns as villages in the "Indian Territory." Testimonials in the back several pages of the pamphlet told of students and returning students were receiving at the normal college.

An earlier catalog, the 1901-02 edition, boasted of a library of approximately 4,500 volumes and containing the "complete works of Knight, Hume, Martineau, Macaulay, Greens, McIntosh, Henry and Miller."

This same college publication told of an increase in enrollment from 431 to 470 students the following campus organizations, Alumni association, A. M. and Amphicyonic men for young ladies, Phi Kappa Phi and Lightfoot for young men and Philharmonic for music students.

Just for comparison, look in the 1951 edition of your college bulletin.

"The approximate cost for both room and board is $44.45 per month." And for more consider the 46 different groups which hold meetings on the campus and come under headings of social, religious, departmental and honor societies.

These students once listed as coming from the Indian territory, should they return to East Texas State for a course or two, would give Oklahoma as their home.

Yes, there have been some changes made.

"We know a girl who just took up golf and says that it is the automobile riding: You just smack the pill, then walk."

One way to cover a mediocre past is to build a splendid future over it.

Homecoming 1951

This is it—Homecoming—the 60th one at that. Diamond Jubilee, if you please.

Meeting old friends, looking over the fast growing campus and pointing out "how it used to be" to the wife, wistfully watching the students now in school—the ex's side of the show.

Getting the float ready, talking about THE game, planning what to wear for the dance, parties and get-togethers galore—the students side of the annual affair.

So here it is already—the 1951 celebration. Happy Homecoming!

Some people are wondering what would happen if the shelves of the Student Union building were covered with shelves of books. Would the students then go to the library.

College life may be hard but it gives the best opportunity for loafing of any job in the world.

Cotton's Pickins'

E.T.'s children have come home, the band is tuning up and the football team is breaking out its blue and gold uniforms. It's Homecoming. Welcome to you, exes, we have an exciting day for you tomorrow and what we hope to be an exciting football contest to climax your Homecoming.

Last week E.T.'s own ventured into West Texas to clash with the Howard Payne Yellowjackets of Brownwood. Thanks to the beautiful running of big Red Williams, who massed 147 yards and three touchdowns in the fourth quarter, the Lions were able to pull a victory out of apparent defeat. The big Blues were unable to clear a path for the backfield until the final quarter. It was then that the E.T. line began to split Howard Payne's defense wide open and to permit "Rambling Red" to roll.

E.T.'s defensive line met two of the best backs it has played against this season in Jackie Bearrow, hard running fullback, and Curtis Davenport, a great passer and a good ball stop. The Lions managed to stop Bearrow's rushing but were unable to contend with Davenport's passing and Bearrow's receiving.

It was Theron Pynes, defensive halfback, who did the most in the way of defensive secondary work. Theron managed to be in 11 tackles down close to the line of scrimmage and did a good job on pass defending. He has been chosen Back-of-the-Week, edging out Red Williams by a small margin. Although Red stole the show in the fourth quarter, he only starred for one quarter and he had the help of some tremendous blocking, while Theron showed his wares all through the game on his own. Theron Pynes is a sophomore from Delah where he made all-district in high school.

James Coble has been chosen Linebacker-of-the-Week. Hunky stood out in the blocking department above all other members of the team. It was through the middle of the line that big Red found his holes and it was Coble who was making possible a large majority of these holes. The defensive halfbacks from Howard Payne will not soon forget the sharp contact of Hunky's blocking shoulder.

The Lumberjacks of Stephen F. Inside Memorial Stadium tomorrow with spilling E.T.'s Homecoming in mind. They began looking ahead for this occasion last week, which was shown by the fact they were playing the E.T. game a week ahead when they left-off-beat Stephen F. Rouse outscore them. It is always a good game when East Texas and Stephen F. get together. Last year the Lumberjacks licked the Lions 19-13 in Nacogdoches in a thriller which saw the lead change hands three times and a winning E.T. touchdown foiled when Stephen F. intercepted an E.T. pass on their own 1 yard line.

It's unlikely Coach Ted Jeffries' charges from the timber have any hope of winning a conference championship, but nothing would make their season more complete than knocking East Texas off a defeat.

Last week I never expected Howard Payne to return a kickoff for a touchdown nor complete two touchdown passes when I made my prediction. So this week, I'll make allowances for the defense and predict East Texas 45, Stephen F. 19.

—EDITOR'S NOTE—We have expected Cotton to pick himself as lineman of the week, but he hasn't done it, so maybe I can give him some credit. Cotton broke his hand on the first play of the Howard Payne game, but finished the game on defense and got three tackles and one assist. He has been helping tie up plays all season when the opponents try to run over the middle of the line.

A gossip is defined as a person with a keen sense of rumor.

OUR BASKETBALL TEAM dashes into the court during a work-out in the Field House. There are 24 players coming out for the team which plays the first game Nov. 25. There are 24 games on the Lion schedule and 11 of them will be played in the Conference.

Defense Drill Improves; Lions Face S.F.A. State

With the return of good weather Coach Calfish Smith is going to drill the East Texas Lions hard on pass defense. He needs to find the answer to this problem to stop Stephen F. Austin in the Homecoming fray here Saturday afternoon. In Mitchell Torok and James Terry the Lumberjacks have the conference's most effective pass combination, and they'll take a bit of stopping.

His own passing offense has been going well with Jim Gray pitching touchdown passes to all corners of the field, and the Lions have shown an adequate defense against rushing. This defense has limited 4 opponents this season to less than 100 yards each on the ground. In the last two games the total ground gain was a meager 125 yards. The total ground gain for the season against the Lions is only 908 yards in 7 games.

Bruno Ashley, 230-pound tackle, aided and abetted by such line stalwarts as tackles Lem Jones and Bob Crump and guards Cotton Martin and James "Hunkey" Coble, has been stacking up plays all season. Last week against Howard Payne Ashley was credited with 7 tackles and 3 assist, and Jones turned in 5 tackles and 3 assists. Coble and Martin turned in 4 apiece.

Linebackers Tackle
Linebackers R. C. Moore, Lonnie Fenton and Bryant Clark also picked up their share of tackles. Fenton led off with 9 and 5 assists. Moore had 8 and 5, and Clark came through with 4 and 3. When the Yellowjackets decided opportunity was better around the ends, they ran ahead of the defensive half-backs, Theron Pynes and George Bowling. Pynes stacked up the team high of 11 tackles and 7 assists, and "Corky" Bowling turned in a neat 4 and 3.

Thirteen passes have fallen into the hands of Lion defenders this season and have been returned a total of 273 yards. Bowling is leading in this category with 5 for a 34.4 average. Tracey, Reggie Gilbert, Pynes, Lucky Parks and R. C. Moore have also made nice returns after interception.

Punts Blocked
The high regard held for E.T. safety men is shown by the large number of punts deliberately kicked out of bounds. But Bob Johnson has returned 7 punts for 86 yards. He brought one back 52 yards and came within a hair of going the distance against Marvin Brown has brought three back 41 yards, and Parks has returned 15 for 155 yards.

Brown has returned most of the kickoffs, 17 for 474 yards. One of these was from 7 yards deep in the end zone to the far end zone for a touchdown against Midwestern. Parks has carried 6 back for 135 yards.

End Turns Blocker
It is turning in the line that springs the runner loose—such blocking as that turned in by Jack Hetherington, James Coble, Charlie Haldeman and the whole East Texas line against Howard Payne to make that rousing fourth-period rally possible. But it is even more spectacular when an end turns in 5 blocks downfield ahead of the ball carrier as Billy Self did last week. Haldeman, Coble and Fenton were also credited with a number of crisp downfield blocks.

The line will have to contend with power rushes of Robert Marling Saturday, but the outcome will likely depend on how well the defense is able to contain the aerial charges of Torok to Terry. It will be the Homecoming game and Dad's Day at East Texas Saturday afternoon.

E.T. Sports News Keeps Rust Busy

Bill Rust, sport news director, has had a busy time this week. He has sent stories to 77 weekly papers in northeast Texas about East Texas' Homecoming game with Stephen F. Austin. He sent a feature story to the hometown newspaper of every man on the team. Each story is slanted toward the hometown boy. These stories were mailed to 83 papers.

Lions' To Grow at Lumberjacks

Axmen Invade Commerce For Lions' Homecoming Battle

Coch Catfish Smith's Lions lay their perfect conference record on the line in a homecoming battle with Stephen F. Austin's Lumberjacks in Memorial stadium Saturday afternoon.

It will be the nineteenth game between the Lions and the Lumberjacks and the third conference game for the Lions. In previous games with SFA, East Tex.

has won 13, lost 4 and tied 1. East Texas has scored 220 points against Stephen F. Austin while the Lumberjacks have scored 99 points. The worst beating by either team was in 1945 when East Texas beat Stephen F. 39 to 0.

The Lions have two wins in the conference race this year which puts them out in front.

Stephen F. Austin is rated fourth in the conference with one win and two losses. In non-conference games East Texas is rated second to Southwest Texas with five wins and two losses. Stephen F. is still fourth with a three win, three lost record.

Ted Jefferies gridiron students depend on a strong passing attack which is based on the Mitchell Torok to James Terry combination. Torok and Terry are leading the Lone Star Conference in passing and receiving.

The Jacks also depend on the running of Bob Matzaj, 190 pound fullback from Dallas. Punting for the Jacks is done by Torok who holds a 37.5 yard average and third place in the conference punting records.

East Texas will counter the passing of Torok with the Gray to McCormack passing combination. Gray leads the conference with 15 touchdowns passes. McCormack leads the conference in touchdown catches. Gray has completed 48 passes for 878 yards, defensive lead last week with 11 tackles from his left half-back Marvin Brown has dominated the running and scoring game of the Lions. He leads the conference in scoring with 66 points. Red Williams showed running power last week against the Howard Payne Yellowjackets when he scored three touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

East Texas' defensive backfield consisting of Theron Pynes, George Bowling, Lucky Parks, and Reggie Gilbert will be depended upon to bat down Terry's passes. Pynes took the position.

Cotton Martin, defensive guard, is the only member of the James Gray has been in the home team that will be kept on the team with 'flu' and will probably of the game with an injury, see limited action.

Drill Team To Give Pre-game Exhibit

The ROTC precision drill team will participate in the parade Saturday morning and give an exhibition of intricate marching and the fancy Queen Anne March of Arms in a performance at Memorial stadium just prior to the kick-off.

Cadet Lt. Col. Chris S. Adams, commander of the team, stated that the Saturday show would be similar to the one given in Brownwood at the half of the Howard Payne game last week.

That show was dedicated to Cadet Col. James R. Milligan, whose home is in Brownwood. This will be the sixth performance of the crack flight this fall and is another indication of its rapidly growing popularity. A full schedule of exhibitions is tentatively booked for the team during the remainder of the year, but the Saturday show will probably be the last chance Commerce fans will get to see the team in action on the local gridiron this year.

Lions Look Toward Fifth Lone Star Championship

East Texas State Lions, well on their way toward another conference crown, have held the Lone Star championship off four previous occasions.

The Lone Star conference was organized in 1931 by members from East Texas State Teachers college, North Texas State college, Stephen F. Austin college, San Marcos college, San Houston State Teachers college, and Southwest Texas State Teachers college. Those six colleges were the charter members of the Lone Star conference. East Texas State has won the Lone Star conference football crown in the years of 1933, 1934, 1937 and 1939.

Lions Beat Jackets 38-21

Robert "Red" Williams scored three times in the fourth quarter to pull the game out of the fire and provide the East Texas Lions with a 38 to 21 victory over the Howard Payne Yellowjackets Saturday night.

With the Lions trailing, 21 to 19, as the game went into the fourth quarter, the Panola Jr. college transfer broke the game wide open with his one-man running show. Red carried the ball 14 times for 132 yards.

The anticipated aerial battle between the Yellowjackets, Curtis Davenport and the Lions, James Gray provided the fireworks for three quarters, but Williams' great running put the two pitchers in the background. Davenport is leading the Texas conference in passing, and Gray is one of the leading passers in the Lone Star conference.

Jackie Bearrow and Sonny Davenport turned in outstanding performances to keep the Jackets in front for two quarters of play. Bearrow scored all three of the Jackets' touchdowns and one of the touchdowns came on a 90 yard kick-off return. Davenport completed two passes for touchdowns.

Theron Pynes turned in an outstanding performance on defense by getting eleven tackles and seven assists on tackles. Ed the linback Lennie Perton and Moore had nine tackles and eight tackles respectively. Corder Bowling took up where he left off in the San Houston game by running an intercepted pass across the goal line for a touchdown. It was his second consecutive interception return for a touchdown.

East Texas' sturdy line held Howard Payne to 95 yards on the ground while the East Texas backs were piling up 325 yards on foot. The Jackets had 225 yards gained by the aerial route and East Texas accounted for 195 yards through the air. East Texas had 10 first downs and Howard Payne had 11. Owens punted 9 times for a 33.9 average and Jackie Punters had a 38.5 average on 10 tries. East Texas was penalized 85 yards on 9 penalties and Howard Payne was penalized 10 times for 84 yards.

Scoring by Quarters:
First Quarter: George "Corky" Bowling intercepted a Davenport pass and ran 63 yards for a touchdown. Corder kicked the point to make the score 7-0. The score came with 3 minutes left in the quarter.

Second Quarter: Howard Payne evaded the score with six minutes gone in the second quarter. A 60 yard pass play, Davenport to Bearrow accounted for the touchdown. Lindsey kicked the point after to knot the score.

Third Quarter: The scoring began early as Jackie Bearrow took Charles Haldeman's kick-off down and raced 90 yards to a touchdown. Lindsey kicked the point to make the score 16-14, ET '3.

East Texas' first score in the second half was set up by James Gray who hid the ball behind his led and raced 50 yards on a boot leg play. He then completed two passes to Brown, the last of which was good for two yards and a TD. Corder missed the point to leave Howard Payne with a one point margin.

Bearrow scored again when he took a lateral from Gene McCannies on the 50 and carried it over the goal line. McCannies had caught a 12 yard pass from Davenport to move the ball to the 50 yard marker. Davenport passed to McCannies in the end zone for the extra point.

With one minute left in the third quarter the Lions came back and moved the ball 89 yards on seven plays for the score and Corder missed the point.

Fourth Quarter: Williams broke loose for his first touchdown on a 10 yard run with six minutes gone in the fourth quarter. The run climaxed a 57 yard six play drive. Corder kicked the point to move East Texas to 26 to 21 lead.

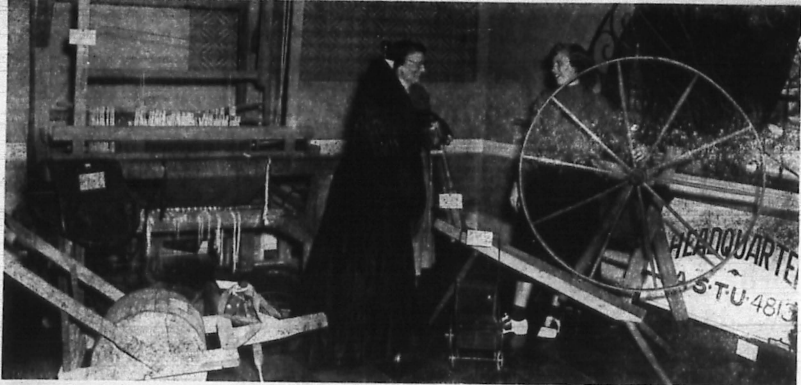

Williams second score came on a one yard plunge with two and one half minutes left in the game. It ended a 9 play 71 yard drive with Red carrying the last 35 yards on five straight carries. Reggie Gilbert intercepted a Davenport pass and returned it 25 yards to the 15 yard line to set up the last East Texas touchdown. On his second try Williams carried the ball over the double stripe for the score. Corder missed the kick to leave the final score East Texas 38, Howard Payne 21.

MISS MARTHA HANKINS, instructor in history, has charge of the newly remodeled museum. Here Fan Chism, museum assistant, examines a spinning wheel as Miss Hankins watches.

JO NELL FOUTY shows the coin collection to Lawana Reese, Bill Hunt and Jean Rountree. Miss Fouty is a student museum assistant.

Special Showing

AS AN ADDED ATTRACTION of Homecoming activities, members of the department of history, will open the East Texas State Teachers college museum 9 to 11 a.m. tomorrow. Located on the third floor of the Library building, the museum, closed for the past six years, has undergone remodeling recently.

Miss Martha Hankins, instructor in history, is in charge of the displays and is assisted by Jo Nell Fouty and Fan Chism.

LOOKING AT THE SMALL ARMS and ammunition collection is Bill Hunt, junior transfer student from Rock Port.

Traditions Remain

There are certain traditions on the campus that the students of the class of 1952 observe as students of earlier years.

The class rings have always been reserved for and cherished and was cracked in 1939 after East Texas had won a hard fought football game. It remains a silent symbol of the victories it has announced in the past years.

The leaning tree in front of the Library is dear to the hearts of many East Texas students because many a girl has received an engagement ring while standing in the moonlight under the tree.

The Lion in front of the Education building has stood as the protector of Lion land since 1929. It was given by the summer seniors of 1929.

Mad Hatters Make Homecoming Plans

Plans for a pep-rally bon-fire and participation in Homecoming activities were made by Mad Hatters club at their meeting Tuesday night.

The bon-fire will be in conjunction with the pep rally at 9 p.m. tonight. Site of the affairs is the cleared field south of Memorial stadium. A snake dance is also scheduled. At the game Saturday between East Texas and Stephen F. Austin the hatters will sit as a group in the student section. Fifteen members will be in uniform, which consists of white coveralls, hat and noisemaker.

Occupying the number 10 spot in the parade at 10 a.m. Saturday, the Mad Hatters will march with the Mad Hatterettes, newly-formed comparable girls' club, and the cheerleaders.

Tentative plans were also made for attendance at the Sul Ross game Dec. 1, to be played at Alpine.

Ferreira Describes Paraguay Ranch Life

Fred Ferreira, agriculture major from Paraguay, spoke to the College Chapter of the Future Farmers of America last Tuesday evening on the subject "Ranch Life in Paraguay."

Numerous slides and pictures of various phases of life on the two Ferreira ranches were shown. Interesting differences and similarities of handling cattle and in ranch equipment of the Paraguay ranch and the Texas ranch were pointed out by Mr. Ferreira.

There were sixty-one members present.
