100 E. T. Exes Return To See Unveiling

Approximately 100 former students of Mayo college, founders of East Texas State, held reunion here March 13 to observe the 36th anniversary of the school's becoming a state institution. Students from at least six states were present.

Services in the college auditorium paid tribute to the founder of the college, William Mayo, who died three minutes after the bill was passed making a school a member of the state teachers college system.

Principal Speaker
Principal speaker for the memorial services was the Rev. Percy Simms, former student who is now minister of Garfield grade Presbyterian church in Chicago. The Rev. Mr. Simms was introduced by W. H. Frank, a member of the Board of Regents.
Other platform guests were Dr. Frank Young, dean of the graduate college; President James Lee; Stephen L. Mayo of Dallas, son of the founder, and L. L.

Former Teacher Mrs. Olga Rorex Here at Unveiling

At least one person watching the unveiling ceremonies here March 14 had special interest in the program. It was Mrs. Olga Rorex, who was a teacher at the school when it was Mayo Normal college and who had a hand in the making of the plaque.

Mrs. Rorex, who will be 84 next month, has been confined to a wheel chair for many years, but she was present when the plaque was unveiled in the college library. The plaque is the gift of Mrs. Marion S. Mayo, Los Angeles, and was presented by Stephen L. Mayo, Dallas attorney, on the 36th anniversary of the death of the college's founder and on the anniversary of the school's becoming a state institution.

When Professor Mayo died, his best son, Marion, asked Mrs. Rorex to make a mold of his father's face. As an art student, Mrs. Rorex had done such work, but she solicited the help of a commerce dentist, and the mold made the plaster of Paris cast of the face and hand of the founder. At that time the mold was planned to have a bronze statue made as a monument to be placed over Mayo's grave on the college campus. A well-known sculptress of New Orleans asked for the mold and completed a mask from the form, but the family did not order the statue.

Once Mrs. Rorex was asked to repair a slight damage to one eye of the form, and eventually the mask became the property of Mayo's daughter, Gladys New York. It is now in possession of Stephen Mayo of Dallas.

When Mrs. Marion Mayo died to give the plaque in memory of her husband, she secured a death mask made by Mrs. Rorex to be used in the model. The plaque, which was placed in the college library, is the work of California artist Esteban Rodriguez.

James of Tyler, former student.

Library Gets Plaque

Following the services in the auditorium, a bronze portrait plaque of Mayo was presented to the college. Stephen L. Mayo presided at the unveiling services in the college library. A gift of Mrs. Marion Mayo of Los Angeles, the plaque honors the founder's eldest son, the late Marion Mayo.
Mayo students were guests at a luncheon in the college cafeteria.

Final Plans Laid In Teacher Week Contest, Meeting

Student committee for the advancement of the teaching profession is making final plans for Teachers of Tomorrow week, April 13-17.

Ballooning for Blue and Gold Teachers of Tomorrow will be held April 11, and winners will be announced at a special program April 13. East Texas State's winners will be entered in the final contest with representatives from 29 other Texas colleges and universities.

Announcement of Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow will be made at a program April 17. Mrs. Nell Owen, "most beautiful teacher in the United States," will participate in the coronation ceremonies.

A formal dance will be held in the Student Union building following the program. Out-of-town guests will be honored at the affair.

Other events are being planned to focus attention on the teachers' training program and students interested in it. Student teachers will be honored and outstanding members of the teaching profession will be guest speakers at assemblies held during the week.

Mary Jo McLeroy, senior elementary education major of Sulphur Springs, is chairman of the student committee planning the week. Dr. W. R. Rucker, instructor in elementary education, is faculty sponsor working with the group.

"My Ideal Coed" Discussion Held

A panel discussion on "My Ideal Coed" was held in the Student Union building March 12. Panel members decided the ideal East Texas coed would be prompt, neat, intelligent and have an interest in her date. A pleasing personality is more important than good looks.

Panel members were Jim Pennel, Charles Merrick, Richard Pruitt, Emmitt B. Sorrell, John Walker, Bill Hunt, Wayne McCorkle and Dale Knox. J. W. Rollins, dean of men, was moderator of the panel.

Beauties Who Will Be Featured in the Locust, E. T. annual, were selected by popular vote Thursday.

Carolina Mitchell Will Speak Here

Dr. Nicholas P. Mitchell, editor of the Greenville (S.C.) News, will give a lecture at East Texas State college 9:20 a. m. March 24. His talk on "What Can a Man Believe," will be presented in the college auditorium.

Mitchell, who has been termed "One of Dixie's Favorite Speakers," has taught at Duke, Louisiana State, Richmond, Furman and George Peabody college. A Texas-born political scientist and world traveler, he received his doctorate at 22.

Recently appointed chairman of the South Carolina Advisory Committee on Adult Education, he is interested in the growth of forum and discussion groups. He is an authority on news techniques, a veteran radio commentator and news paper columnist and author of numerous books and articles. He is immediate past president of the Carolina Virginia Radio Directors association.

His lecture, "What Can a Man Believe" has been termed a study of techniques of news and propaganda with a reminder that "it ain't necessarily so."

Singers, Musicians Tab Performances

Singing Belles, women's musical organization, and faculty string trio will present programs in six towns Thursday and Friday.

Performances will be given in Gilmer, Hawkins, Mineola, Quitman, Winnabro and Mt. Vernon. Members include Genevieve Laurence, Nelda Allen, Tommie Baxter, Joyce Turner, Shirley Hanson, Sue Lowe and Tommie Smith.

Dallas Paper Carries Mrs. Jones' Feature

The Dallas Morning News, March 19, carried a story written by Mrs. B. L. Jones of 2211 Bois d'Arc St. Story concerned the anniversary of the "Star Spangled Banner."
It was almost 117 years after the national anthem was written before it was adopted by the government.

COLLEGE CHOIR UNDER DIRECTION OF DR. JAMES E. RICHARDS, head of department of music, will tour towns in surrounding area next month. As scheduled now the group will present programs at Springhill, Pinetree and Gladewater April 29. Sulphur Springs and Pittsburg will be visited April 30. Approximately 50 students make up the musical organization.

Mary Hodges Slated To Do Mission Work

Mary Hodges, freshman of Quinlan, has been selected to work in Juarez, Mexico, this summer, states Pat Luna, president of Baptist Student council.

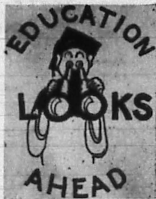

Each college in the Lone Star state sends two applications to the head office of the Baptist student union. A committee composed of state student secretary and several other college students interview 30 of these applicants and ten are selected.

Miss Hodges is a home economics major. She is a member of the Student council and the BBU.

Three E. T. students made the trip to Kansas City to see the Lions at the National Association of Interscholastic Athletics basketball tournament last week-end. They were Bob Hal O'Neal, Jimmy Ford and Al Ray Bulla. They hitchhiked and arrived in time for the last game.

"IT'S RATHER DIFFICULT TO CONCENTRATE" on study," muses Ronnie Wade. Main object of his contemplations these pleasant days is Dionne Moore. Wade is a junior of Gainsville. Miss Moore is a junior of Greenville. Both are English majors.

N-o-body knows the trouble we've seen, and probably no one realizes the problem of school finances which we encounter.

This is the thought of the council of college presidents of the 18 state-supported colleges and universities in Texas, as the group estimates the operating costs of the schools for higher learning for the 1953-55 terms.

Figures released by the board show that $78,457,745 has been estimated expense for the 33-55 school years. Broken down $40,243,463 and $38,214,282 will be needed for the respective years of the biennium.

To add to their troubles, the state will not be asked to provide all this income. But it has become necessary for the institutions to ask the legislature for appropriations from the state's general revenue which are larger than those provided for the current fiscal year.

Spring Arrives

Spring arrives officially tomorrow. All nature is in a process of rebirth. Red buds have blossomed, grass is green and long and the weather is delightful and pleasant. Even the rain and mud are welcome.

Now is the time for students to emulate nature, to emerge from the cocoon of winter and give rebirth to scholastic endeavor. This semester is almost half gone. Make the most of the last portion of the term. Apply yourself academically.

Plenty of time will be available for turning "lightly to thoughts of love" and fishing.

In other words, watch out for spring fever. Like the lovebug, it will get you if you don't watch out.

Basketball Recognition

Lion cagers have represented East Texas well in basketball plays at Kansas City in National Association Intercollegiate Athletics tournament. They have won Lone Star conference championship and have had one of the most successful years in E. T. history.

Team members will receive miniature gold basketball with diamond set as awards for their efforts in conference play. Otherwise, no plans have been made to honor basketballers. There is, however, a rumor that a service c will hold a chicken barbecue for the courtmen and trackmen at the end of track season.

The East Texan highly recommends that some group or organization on campus take the initiative now and work into shape a program for an affair to show appreciation immediately to Coach Bobby Rogers' basketballers. Chick barbecue sounds mighty good to this writer. The weather is favorable for an outdoor gathering.

Perhaps this club can step up its plans a bit and offer a recognition deal NOW. A great opportunity presents itself to social clubs, too. They could get together and hold out tickets could be sold, for a nominal fee, to students and faculty to attend.

The way the East Texan sees it, the meal should be held as soon as possible. Later one could be held for the cindermen.

Make Nominations Now

East Texas State will host approximately 20 colleges and universities for selection of Teacher of Tomorrow week of April 13-17. These schools will send contestants for the title.

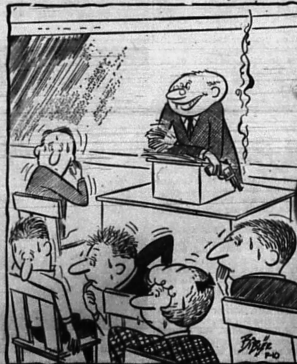

Nominations for E. T. Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow are now open in the offices of the deans of men and women. Saturday is last day.

You are urged to make your choice for the honor award as to do so immediately. This is primarily a student venture. Back the Student Committee for the Advancement of Teaching Profession. Stop by the Deans' offices and mail your nomination now.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

by Dick Bible

"I'll continue now if there are no further irrelevant questions."

A COED AT DRAKE UNIVERSITY rushed into Spanish class a few minutes late, threw off her coat and started to sit down. The students began to chuckle. The coed looked down horrified, then quickly threw her coat around her again and ran out.

She'd forgotten to wear a skirt.

One of the major factors hampering the budgets of colleges and universities is that of the diminishing income from the federal government for tuition of World War II veterans. During the 1947-48 school year, institutions received a total of $9,856,266 from this source. This year only $788,555 will sift into the school purses.

Other local income of the schools is expected to decline 38 and 37 per cent respectively for the '53-54 terms.

In order for more gray hairs to sprout, the cost of materials, supplies and equipment is booming, and teacher salaries must be increased in order to retain and recruit competent faculty members.

Summer Camp Preparations Begun for 103 Reserve Officer Students

Preparations have begun for the summer camp for 103 ROTC students to attend summer camp. There will be 103 students from E.T. taking part in these exercises. Camp will begin with a 16 hour processing and orientation period in which the students will receive a complete medical examination and uniforms. Then students will start a 188 hour training period. Primary emphasis will be put on orienting students toward an understanding of aircraft and its place in the air force mission. Development of leadership qualities will draw constant attention throughout the four week encampment, with training in military bearing and appearance also stressed. Orientation flights in various types of aircraft will also be included.

Students of East Texas may be interested.

Senior Day Program Outlined by Director

Program for Senior day, which will be held here April 17, has been outlined by Mrs. Totia W. W. Harris, director of off-campus activities.

The special observance will begin at 12:30 p.m. with registration in the college auditorium. At 3:30 a talent show will be held there. At 5:30 a dinner will be held on the drill field grounds. The day will close with the coronation of Teachers of Tomorrow will be held at 7. Following this a dance will be held in the SUB until 12.

Mrs. Harris states that she expects 600 to 800 students from all schools in this community.

L. G. Kennamer Speaks To I. R. Club Monday

Russia was the theme studied by International Relations club members during their meeting Monday night. Dr. Lorrin G. Kennamer, of the geography department, was the main speaker. He stressed the importance of Russia being our neighbor in relation to how close she was to our country. He also gave a brief discussion on our present foreign policy.

At the business meeting it was agreed to co-sponsor, with the Spanish club, a movie on Mexico.

Faculty sponsors present included Dr. Nannie M. Tilley and L. R. Harlan.

Paul Barrus Attends Chicago English Meet

Dr. Paul W. Barrus, associate professor of English, attended a meeting in Chicago March 13-14 in the Hotel Sherman.

The meeting was a national conference of college Composition and Communication and is affiliated with the National Council of Teachers of English; the object is the improvement of English at the college level. Twenty workshops dealt with various aspects of the subject.

GIVING HIS VIEWS ON THE "IDEAL COED" is Dale Knox. Members of the panel which met Thursday night in the SUB are Dean of Men J. W. Rollins, Jim Pennell, John Walker, Bill Hunt, Bill McCorkle, E. B. Sorrells, Charles Merrick, Knox, Richard Pruitt and Solon Loving. A large number of coeds was present at the session.

Council Members Attending Meeting

Five Student council members are representing this college at the state meeting of Texas Intercollegiate Student association, March 19-21, in Houston. Representatives include Solon Loving, Bill Hunt, Esther Leyendecker, John Neese and Guy Horton.

Loving is chairman of panel discussion entitled "Financing Student Government Programs."

Election Slated In SUB Mar. 24

Most popular students will be elected Tuesday, March 24 in Student Union building, says Solon Loving, Student Council president.

Candidates are Richard Pruitt and Charles Merrick; Lesby Daniels, Pat Dye and Esther Leyendecker.

Students choose one woman and one man.

Town Girls Organize

Officers were elected at the first meeting of women students living in town residences. The meeting was held in the women's lounge of Student Union building March 12.

Chosen to lead the organization were Lillian Byrum, president; Ann King, vice president; and Durann Dodgen, secretary. Betty Bennett was appointed social chairman; Jan King, head of the constitution committee.

Whitley Gym Aids Girls' P. E. Program

By Joe Milner

ADDITION of new athletic areas in East Texas State during the past three years has benefited nearly everyone on the campus, but the Women's Recreation Association has had the greatest appreciation for the new setup than all other groups combined. For, when the new field house was completed, Miss Huggins and Lorena Branom, instructors in physical education for women, saw a long-time dream of theirs become true. Whitley Gymnasium was turned over to their department and is now more commonly called the girls' gym.

"At first it was just hard to believe," Miss Huggins stated, "that we had the entire gym to ourselves."

THIS proved to be just the beginning of the program as Miss Huggins initiated a move to get the girls' social clubs interested in an athletic program and almost immediately two competitive athletic leagues were formed.

The girls' clubs began sponsoring teams and four independent organizations joined in the fun to form the two leagues. Currently competition is held in different events and an additional seven are tentatively slated for competition next year. When each league championship is determined, the two winners clash for the girls' championship.

AND JUST How do the girls react to this program? It is evident that they love it.

More than 75 percent of the girls enrolled in school participate in the program, Miss Huggins revealed. Last year the total participation was over 1200 and it has already reached 600 this year.

Most popular sport among the fems is table tennis, which attracted 182 entries in the singles tournament this year.

CHARENCE LYNCH, East Texas' allconference forward, has been playing basketball with a broken finger since the Sam Houston State contest.

This explains why his shooting fell off during the latter part of the season. However, the broken finger, which was on his shooting hand, didn't slow him up very much in the NAIA Basketball tournament at Kansas City, Mo., as he bagged 77 points in five games. Shelby Metcalf poured in 92 and Jim Miller accumulated 91.

SHORTS: Coach Bob Rogers predicted prior to the NAIA tournament that the Lions would be more successful than most everyone thought. We kept this to ourselves as no coach likes to make his prediction public, prior to an athletic event of any description. . . . Catfish Smith will agree with us here. . . . Tenth school track tournament slated here Mar. 23 is being held at the new field house.

coming the largest of its kind in the state. . . . It is so popular with the Dallas schools that their meet was moved up a week in order that the teams could participate here also.

Stewart Wins Crown In Table Tennis Meet

Bob Stewart, representing the Independent league, dymed David Phillips, club champion, last week to win college championship in intramural table tennis.

Stewart won the independent league crown by slipping past Lindy Watkins, Jimmy Corley and Jackie McMahan, of the Aces, and Ralph Thompson and E. C. Hancock, of the Rebels.

Winners of the table tennis doubles were Leonard Trapp and John Clary of the Artema social club. They beat Bob Stewart and Thomas Wiler, winners of the independent league title in a close match.

Holding, Kemp Star In Border Olympics

With Chuck Holding setting a new high jump record and Larry Kemp breaking the school shot put mark, East Texas State's cinder path lads picked up 21 points in the Border Olympics at Laredo Friday and Saturday.

Today and Tomorrow the Lions will compete in the Southwest Texas relays at San Marcos.

Holding, Kemp Win
Holding, who has been setting a red-hot pace all season, cleared the bar at 6-feet, 7-1-1/2 inches to set a new college Olympic record and tie the university mark.

Kemp's only other first place was Kemp's 46-foot, 1-8 inch shot put toss. The effort beat the old East Texas record of 45-7, set by Gene Hodges in 1938.

Holding also picked up counters with a third place 171-foot javelin throw.

With his running mate, Marvin Brown, laid up with a pulled leg muscle, George Riley finished third in the 100-yard dash. Corder Takes Third Corder got another try with a 134-foot, 7-inch discus heave.

Don Musgrove and O. Johnston added fourth places in the broad jump and the low hurdles respectively.

The Lions' mile relay crown was a third spot and the sprint relay team - Yates, Johnston, Musser and Riley, came in in number four position.

T. Netmen Down 4-1 In Rain

Unlucky tennis weather East as "B" team netters downed in Junior college Tuesday afternoon by a 4-1 count.

Heavy mist, occasional showers and high winds hampered efforts of both teams. Two matches were played in the college gymnasium because of the other conditions.

Gene Brewer beat Wayne Ickland 7-5, 5-4 in the No. 1 singles match. Val Aisey of Paris won Britt Martin 6-2, 6-0 in No. 2 match. Crockett Simons defeated Bill Wilson of Paris in two straight sets 6-0, 6-1. Perry Mead of E.T. also downed them 5-7, 6-4.

Gene Brewer and Charles Butledge Strickland and Aisey, 7-5, 6-1 to win the only doubles match of the day.

The "B" team will play Lutheran Concordia college in Austin Saturday morning.

E. T. Tennis Team Will Play Texas

Nine East Texas tennis players left this morning to go to Austin to play three matches with three different foes.

This afternoon they will tangle with St. Edwards University. Saturday morning they will play Lutheran Concordia college. Saturday afternoon they will go to the University of Texas.

Making the trip were James Perry, Bill Dickerson, Gene Brewer, Crockett Simmons, Charles Flint, Jimmy White, Jerry Mead, Britt Martin and Charles Butler. They were accompanied by Dr. Perry Broom, tennis coach.

First scheduled home game will be Mar. 31 with Austin College.

Cagers Finish Fourth In N.A.I.A. Tournament

By a total of five points, Coach Bobby Rogers' East Texas Lions fell from the N.A.I.A. tournament at Kansas City on consecutive defeats by Hamline university and Indiana State.

Hamline edged the Lions 73 to 71 last Friday in the semi-finals and Indiana turned the trick 74 to 71 Saturday.

Still E.T.'s all-sophomore quintet made a surprisingly good showing, taking fourth spot in the national college meet and coming so near—and yet so far—reaching the finals and national fame.

Lions Beat Adrian

The Lions opened their tournament chase by smashing Adrian college 57 to 46 behind the sharpshooting of Forward Shelby Metcalf and the pivot play of Jim Miller.

Metcalf meshed 20 counters and Miller hit for 12.

Next E.T. downed strong St. Peters college 85 to 68.

Again it was Miller dominating the backboard and scorebook with 24 points and Metcalf making the plays as the Lions grabbed an early lead and were never headed.

Lynch, Hall Score

Forward Clarence Lynch and guard Raymond Hall netted 20 and 17 markers respectively to keep the Texas attack rolling.

In quarterfinal play the Rogermans clipped Tennessee A&I 72 to 67 to roar into the semi-finals atop a six-game winning streak.

E. T. grabbed an early lead over A&I and fought off a late Tennessee rally to clinch the victory.

Miller Leads Attack

Miller took the lead by bucketing 18 points. Metcalf and Hall tracked up 16 markers each to press Miller for top honors.

Then came the fall. Hamline university's veteran crew threw a road-block that the Lion's tournament train failed by two points to clear.

For the first time in the meet, Miller's scoring spree was checked. The 6-6 pivot man collected only three field goals and eight points under the watchful eye of Hamline's D. Donlin, and even the rapid fire floor game by Metcalf, who got 26 counters, and Lynch, who netted 25, were not enough to turn the tide.

Hamline Downs E.T.

A final glance at the scoreboard showed Hamlin 73 and E. T. 71.

In another thrill-filled contest, the Lions bowed to Indiana State 71 to 74.

Miller returned to form by sinking 28 points and Metcalf kept up his sizzling pace by dropping 20 counters.

The loss in the consolation game left E. T. in fourth place. Miller and Metcalf were selected on the second team all-tournament quintet.

BILL BYRD, PRESIDENT OF TEJAS SOCIAL CLUB, and Nouran Kendrick of TSCW, Denton, alternated with Richard Cole and Lee Greenwade to greet guests at the eighth club annual which was held in the Student Union building Saturday night.

Representative of club colors, a purple and gold scheme was carried out in the floral arrangement of stock and gladioli decorating the lace covered registry table. Crystal candelabra held white tapers which cast a soft glow over guests who dined in the white gloss guest-book.

A woodland atmosphere was out of town visitors. Out of town, exes included Billy Mac Ellis, Terry Kirkham, Dangertown, Harry Icenhower, and Ernest Newton, Grand Prairie, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Betts, Wichita Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Betts, Hawkins, Ted Hanson, Pampa and Richard Ellison, Shreveport, La.

Guests danced to music by Ray Luke and his East Texans. "Down By the Old Mill Stream" was selected as theme for the annual.

The Old Mill was realistically created of rough, unpeeled pine slabs at the North end of the dance floor. Light from an old fashioned kerosene lamp shown through a lone window upon a moss covered mill-wheel, which revolved lazily in the water. Tu-rips grew profusely on the grass covered bank of the Old Mill stream, and added a bright note of color against the pine covered forest leading to it.

Purple glass droppes formed a colorful background for the refreshment table in the punch room. There the color note was repeated in napkins and the floral arrangement which marked one end of the Quaker lace covered table. Guests were served frosted lime punch and cake squares throughout the evening.

Club sponsors Miss Alice Ferguson and Dr. Arthur Pullen attended as did approximately 155 guests including exes and beauty

brassiers
by Marjia

We call it our "beautiful repeater" . . . because once a woman wears this Hi-A brassiere she invariably buys another . . . and another. The secret of its success lies in the stretched back cup, with double rows underneath for permanent uplift, single rows top for feminine softness. Extra support is given with wider bands under the cups, a wider back, and elastic in-set for full freedom. White, shell pink, black.

William A. Sparkman Jr., director of the print shop, also made the trip.

Off-Campus Women Organized Thursday

Women students who are living in Commerce residences met last Thursday in the lounge of the SUB to organize a town's organization for women. Lillian Byrum, sophomore of Greenville was elected president. Other officers named were vice president, Ann King of Commerce and secretary, Durann Dogden of Willsboro.

It was voted that the group would meet twice a month, one meeting being a social and one a business meeting. Also during this first gathering tentative plans were made for a slumber party and possibly a picnic.

Several committees were appointed by the president to complete plans for the two events. Chairmen of these committees are Josephine Garza of Mexico City, Jan King of Commerce and Betty Bennett of Commerce.

discussed. After the meeting, a German play, "At The Dentist" was presented by Ralph Marcom, Ann Patrick and Robert Cox.

German songs were provided by a quartet composed of T. D. Davis, Ed. Bronough, John Myrick and club sponsor, Lawrence McNamee.

For refreshments, cookies and root beer were served.

Miss Turner Attends Music Meet, March 6-10

Miss Louise Turner, assistant professor of music, attended the southwestern division meeting of Music Educators' National conference held in Springfield, Mo., March 6-10.

She was named Texas representative for the study of accreditation of music teachers in Texas schools. She also served on two committees, teacher education and music and the classroom teacher.

Theme of the meeting was "Music in American Education." Questions concerning the training of music teachers in colleges and universities were discussed, and plans for accrediting new teachers in the field of music were outlined," states Miss Turner.

Purpose of the conference is to advance the interests of music education and to provide mutual aids and services which will contribute to the effectiveness of music as a factor in the program of general education, adds the music professor.

Guidance 101 Students Are Offered Credit

All freshmen who completed Guidance 101 are being offered Guidance 102. One-hour credit will be given students who attend four group meetings.

"This credit is above the number of semester hours required for graduation, but becomes a part of the permanent academic record," states Dr. Earl A. Koile, director of student personnel and guidance.

Milburn A. Smith, football coach, met with the students yesterday. Final meeting will be the freshman day assembly March 26.

Sociology Class Will Make Trips To Institutions

Students enrolled in sociology classes have something other than regular classwork to forward to during this semester announces Jewel David Kemmer, assistant professor of sociology.

Although dates have not definitely set, trips have been planned for individual class members to visit the Terrell State Hospital for Mentally Disabled, El Paso County Juvenile court and the home, Gainville, school for Delinquent Girls, areas of larger cities such as West Dallas.

Tour Hospital

First trip to Terrell will be made by 111 and 112 classes where they will tour the hospital under trained leadership. They will be accompanied by 417 and 314 classes for a picnic at the same place. Only second visit students will be personnel of the hospital on those cases and be given an opportunity to do the same actual case histories.

Dallas Trip Planned

Visit to Dallas County Juvenile court and Detention home will be made by the 112 class. They will see the court and home operation and hear the prohibition officer discuss the program. This same class make the trip to Gaines through this visit has not officially scheduled.

Selection of dates for the trip is being held to fit them the course of study of the class.
