Political Pot Cools

No-Starter Race Looms for Council

By GUY HORTON
Associate Editor

Who's gonna run? That's the question in the campus political circles as ballot vacancies main event. Deadline for filing for Student council president, vice president and cheerleaders is April 14.

Republicans on the campus are afraid to trust their luck; Democrats don't have the nerve; Communists are afraid to come in from behind the scenes, so an election without any candidates appears to be in the making.

As the deadline for filing draws near, only one student has signed the dotted line. Sue Taylor, junior of Overton, has led for one of the cheerleader's seats.

Hidden Politics Seen

Even though pink elephants and burros are not yet parading round campaign headquarters, several students appear to be plotting for the last minute to win. Naturally students don't go around pumping arms, conferring with others in dark corners or speaking over coffee cups about the election for no reason at all, so even though campus titles hasn't come in the open, back-room rooms are deep in political chit-chat.

Council Makes Plans

Nevertheless, Student council has plans for carrying out the action at Tuesday's special meeting. Gayle Tinsley, graduate of Mt. Vernon, was appointed chairwoman of the campaign. Bill Hunt, senior of Rockport, assumed the duty of giving tests to the political aspirants.

Absent from the meeting were Lesby Daniels, E. D. Sorrells and Richard Hicks.

Relief for Holland Committee Named

Student and faculty committees have been named to raise money for the Relief for Holland fund.

Student committee members are Coleen Grissom, Mary Ann Crawford and Loyd Burns. They plan a drive sometime this month.

Members of the faculty committee are Lorrin Kennamer Jr., instructor in geography; Miss Mary Nelson, head of department of Spanish; Dr. Arthur Pullen, instructor in biology; Miss Adelle Clark, assistant professor of English, and Louis R. Harlan, instructor in History.

Harlan stated that during a storm in Holland recently, the dikes were destroyed and 2000 people were killed instantly. "The people there are in great need of help," he stated.

Landscaping Clearance Underway at Farm

Work is underway clearing trees and brush along the old creek road bed near the new highway on the college farm. E. A. Ritz, head of technical agriculture department, states that the brush will be thrown into the stream, covered with earth and the approximately five acres will be made into a permanent pasture.

MRS. NELL OWEN of Dallas, selected as the "Most Beautiful Teacher in America" in a contest sponsored by Our Miss Brooks radio program, will be seven winners of Teachers of Tomorrow contest here April 17.

Judges Announced For State-Wide Teacher Contest

Judges for the Teachers of Tomorrow contest which will be held at East Texas State college April 17 have been named.

To serve as judges for the state wide contest will be Mrs. Nell Owen of Dallas, selected as "Most Beautiful Teacher in America" by the Our Miss Brooks radio show; Dr. M.K. Fort, head of the department of education at Southwestern State college, Durant, Okla.; Mrs. Mary Bratton Curtis, music teacher of Idabel, Okla., and Sam B. Culpeper, the director of field service for Texas State Teachers association.

Entries from 25 colleges and universities in the state have been submitted for the Teacher of Tomorrow, and a Mr. and Miss Teacher will be named.

Coronation of the winners will serve as climax for Teacher of Tomorrow week at ETSTC.

High School Plays To Compete Here

Speech students of East Texas State will serve tonight as backstage crew and hosts for area one-act play contest.

Winners from their respective districts who will compete include Pittsburg, Van and Plano. A triumph tonight will mean that the school advances to regional elimination competition with a chance to compete in the state finals in Austin.

Curtis L. Pope, assistant professor of speech, has stated that the public is invited and there will be no admission charge. Those who wish to attend should arrive in their seats by 7:15 p.m. as the plays start at 7:30 and no one will be admitted while a play is in progress, he states.

This is the third contest of this type held here in this spring interscholastic league contests. Winner of the first contest was Celeste with a play titled "On the Valley".

Candidates for the title of Teacher of Tomorrow face a busy schedule at ETSTC April 17. On that date representatives from 25 colleges and universities throughout the state will compete for Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow honors.

Contestants for the titles will be interviewed by judges 1 to 4:30 p.m. Winners will be announced 7:30 p.m. as part of the "We Salute" program in the college auditorium. Both male and coed winner will be introduced by Mrs. Nell Owen of Dallas, named "Most Beautiful Teacher in America" by the "Our Miss Brooks" radio show.

Following coronation ceremonies, candidates will be guests at an intermission buffet. The snack will be sponsored by the local chapter of Kappa Delta Pi and will be held in the East dormitory lounge.

At 9:15 p.m., local chapters of Future Teachers of America, Association for Childhood Education and Sigma Tau Delta, English organization, will entertain visitors with a presentation ball.

Candidates Told
Candidates for Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow contest include Roger McCulley, Henderson County Junior; Harlan Hall and Jewell Richardson, East Texas Baptist; James Wuthrich and Dolores Gorka, Wharton County Junior; Jim L. North and Rose Mary Brau, Worth Texas State; Bill Robertson and Joanne Schmidt, Del Mar; Billy Frank Coward and Ann Harrison, Texas A. and I.; Charles Thomas and Mary Frances Morrison, San Houston State; Fred Northcutt Jr. and Nancy LefMay, San Angelo college; Robert Ray Mills and Melba Lee Cates, Texas A. and M. University.

Winnop G. Holbrook and Louisa Terry, Texas Wesleyan;

Mr. Miss Teacher Voting Underway In SUB Today

Finalists in East Texas State college's Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow contest have been announced.

Selected by the Student Committee for the advancement of the Teaching Profession, the five coeds and five men were named from a list of nominees submitted by students.

East Texas State's Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow will be elected at a campus-wide balloting today. They will compete with representatives from 24 other Texas colleges at a Teacher of Tomorrow contest here April 17.

Five coed finalists are Martha Moore, Lone Oak; Glenna Wade, Quitman; Billie Beavers, Dallas; Nell Young, Sulphur Springs and Carol Rogers, Plano. Men in the finals are Dale Knox, Lone Oak; Gayle Tinsley, Mt. Vernon; Tommy Allen, Clarksville; Richard Hicks, Sulphur Springs, and Crockett Simmons, Annona.

Balloting is taking place in the Student Union building.

The East Texan Advertising Pays

Advertising does pay, Ed Steger, Commerce merchant, says for that. Recently Steger placed an advertisement for men's shorts with Petty girls pictured on them in The East Texan. A copy of the newspaper was sent to a former student, Will Salmon of Commerce, now stationed on USS Midway, air craft carrier located in the Mediterranean ocean.

Salmon ordered a box of the shorts in, assorted sizes from Steger.

Manuscripts on Wheels

Rare Book Display Will Visit Campus

By Jan King
East Texas Reporter

The Magic Carpet on Wheels, a collection of rare books and a manuscript displayed in a trailer, will be exhibited here Thursday.

Publishers of the Book of Knowledge set up the exhibit so that it could be taken to areas that do not have access to libraries and museums.

Arrangements made by Miss Opal Williams, college librarian, has exempted arrangements for the showing here through the Book of Knowledge publishers.

The Grolier society, which publishes the reference books, purchased items making up the display in Europe, India and the United States. The books are used as a reference in the school system and are of great value to the community.

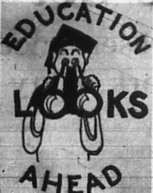

Frank Glen, Kansas City dealer of rare books, was commissioned to obtain the material, which shows the history of writing and printing from an original cuneiform tablet to the printing press of twentieth century press.

Complete History shown
"The rare books, illuminated manuscripts and authentic examples of ancient writing contained in the exhibit show a complete history of written and printed word for more than four centuries," says Miss Williams. "Oldest items on display are cuneiform writing on clay, recording deeds of sale and royal decrees from ancient Babylon and Sumera."

A papyrus leaf from the Egyptian Book of the Dead displays the history of writing and printing. See Books on Page 8.

POURING AT THE RECENT RECEPTION held by the freshman women is Mrs. James G. Gee, wife of the president of the college. Looking on are Dean of Women Margaret Berry, East dormitory Director Mrs. Ruth Gant and Dr. Dorothy Woodward, representative of the American Association of University Women, guest of honor. A fair was held in East dormitory.

A bumper crop of youngsters are due to leave the little red school houses and invade the college campuses during 1953-54. Nevertheless, appropriations from the state legislature are due to drop.

The return of Korean veterans won't aid the financial problems facing the state supported colleges and universities.

This will be vastly different from the financial assistance which accompanied the influx of World War II ex-servicemen to the campuses.

For World War II veterans, the Veterans' administration paid directly to the schools, for tuition, an approximate average of $250 per veteran per school year.

Under the Korean veterans educational benefits program, the V. A. makes payments directly to the veterans who, in return, pay the school only $50 for tuition.

A college professor once remarked that if Shakespeare had visited this land of cowboys and gazed upon their saddle-bent legs, the bard might have been written as, "What hol' What manner men are these who wear their pants upon parentheses?"

IT'S SHOCKING BUT TRUE!

Home economics instructors at Notre Dame college were surprised when a survey revealed only two members of the freshman class had even tasted homemade bread, much less baked any.

Shortly thereafter, the students were paraded into the kitchen and instructed in bread-making. The special class will continue until each student can make a loaf of bread that would do credit to grandpa.

There should be a truant officer waltz put on by the schools seeking the blood-bound type of people for the amazing work being done by that department. Of course you remember the truant officer. He is the man one can depend upon to help when you get lost on the way to school whether you fall into a hole of water or stop off at the local movie.

WHAT OPPOSITION!

Closing hours for women's houses at Kattage college have been extended a half-hour to 10:30 p.m. on week nights. Significant fact of the story is that the freshman women were opposed to the extension. The frosh feared a time extension might hurt scholarship, result in less sleep. Upperclassmen had no such doubts. For the advanced coeds approved the proposal. Perhaps spring hasn't reached the Jayhawk State.

SPRING TRAINING IS OVER. In fine slugging form is Barbara Hudgens, junior of Leonard. She even looks cute resting up for her turn at the plate. The elementary education major intends to follow the major league wars in the national pastime which start Monday. Texas League pennant chase starts this weekend.

San Jacinto Anniversary Marks 117 Union Years

By IAN KING
East Texan Reporter

We Texans are familiar with holidays such as Easter, Christmas and the Fourth of July, but another holiday worthy of our acquaintance is San Jacinto Day, April 21.

This day commemorates the anniversary of the Battle of San Jacinto, which forced Mexico to recognize the independence of Texas, April 21, 1836.

Even though the Texans had issued a declaration of independence March 2 of this same year, they were still under Mexican rule.

Texas Wins

Texas continued as such until General Sam Houston defeated Santa Anna, Mexican general, at San Jacinto near Houston that historic date.

A constitution was then drafted and ratified five months later, and a republic was born.

Houston was the first city to begin celebrating the anniversary of the battle. At this first celebration a liberty pole was erected, speeches given and a dance held.

Women Wanted

Since members of the fairer sex in Houston numbered fewer than 70, including young, old, married and single—men had to scour the surrounding country to find dance partners.

San Jacinto battlefield has been set aside as a state park, on which is situated the San Jacinto monument. This memorial of the battle was erected in 1937.

Tis Pure Texas

The monument is built of concrete faced with Texas limestone. The shaft rises 570 feet above ground, and an elevator runs to an observation room near the top.

Recently, oilman Jesse Jones and his wife donated money to purchase a new elevator for the monument.

This April 21 every true Texan should recall with pride the victory of the battle for independence.

Slow Down

According to figures released by The Travelers insurance companies, more than 2,000 casualties, the worst as mobile accident toll in the nation's history, were recorded in 1952.

Traffic deaths totaled 37, an increase of 500 over the 1951 mark. The injury count soared to 2,090,000, more than 127,000 over 1951.

The most dangerous mistake driving last year was excess speed. Speed killed 13,430 persons and injured nearly 600,000. Drivers over 25 years old were involved in almost 25 per cent of the year's fatal accidents, nevertheless they constitute only 15 per cent of the total of all drivers.

More than 15,000 persons were killed and nearly 700,000 hurt in weekend crashes in 1952. For per cent of the deaths and 98 per cent of the injuries occurred on Saturdays and Sundays last year.

Three out of four 1952 accidents happened to passenger cars in clear weather on all roads, 1952 was the third consecutive year of increase in death toll.

What more eloquent reason can be advanced for having East Texas States reduce the speed while driving on campus and to and from school? Especially on these bright, clear sun days when the urge is to let off that high-powered, speedy auto and the tendency is to be lulled into a false sense of security that "It can't happen to me."

Slow down, the life you are might be the life of a friend, fellow student. It might be your own.

Cast Your Ballot

Next weekend, E. T. will host representatives from approximately 25 Texas universities and colleges for selection of Mr. and Miss Teacher of Tomorrow.

Election of Lion delegates to the affair is taking place today in the Student Union building. Candidates for honor include some of the most competent students enrolled here.

Exercise your right and duty as students in the South Most Democratic College. Stop at the voting spot in the VUB and cast your ballot. Do it immediately.

Dead or Dormant

Apparently student leadership, initiative and ambition on E.T. campus are dead, or at least in the last stage of rigor mortis.

Filing for president and vice president of Student council and cheerleader positions has been open for almost two weeks. At press time only one, repeat one, individual has been interested enough in these important posts to indicate a desire to run. Sue Taylor of Overton has filed for cheerleader.

Where are all the campus politicians? Where are the grippers who were quite voluble in voicing their opinion on "What I would do if I were president of Student council?" Is no one concerned with student government?

Closing date for filing is Tuesday, April 14. Student leaders should run, not walk, to the office of the Dean of Women and sign up for a place on the ballot. Take a job in your own government, show a little spirit. The country needs good officers and the champion Lions need a good backing next year. Do your part.

Maybe spirit is only dormant, and will blossom in this spring air.

Musicians, Singers
Tab Performances

Musical groups from the college will present a concert at the first Methodist church, Gariand, April 27.

Scheduled to perform are the aculty trio, College chorale, Singing Belles and soloists. Hester Channon, associate professor of music, will be organist. Miss Neida Allen, senior of Pattsville, and Miss Genevieve Lawrence, senior of Paris, will be soloists.

The program will be arranged by Mrs. Kenneth Waller of Gariand.

Dean Attends Meet

J. W. Rollins, Dean of Men, is attending a meeting of "The National Association of Student Personnel Administrators," being held this week on campus of Michigan State University, Lansing, Michigan.

Paper at Meeting,
Wins First Prize

Billy Rushing, graduate science student at East Texas State college, received first prize for a paper read at the North Texas Biological society meeting. His paper, "Experiments with Oxygen on the Developing Mouse" was presented at the meeting in Denton, March 28.

The paper, one of five read by students at the meeting, received $15.

A part progress on his thesis, the paper describes Albino mice killed when subjected to oxygen under pressure, and the embryos and fetuses were examined for possible effects. Several defects were indicated.

Other students reading papers were from Texas Christian university and Southern Methodist university.

Rushing, who is doing graduate work in biology, is a resident of 1011 Commerce highway, Greenville. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Rushing.

Ex-Student Opens
New Publicity Firm

A former student of East Texas, Edw. Boutt, former Associated Press newsmen, has opened a new publicity firm, Business News, which specializes in Commercial and industrial accounts. Boutt last attended East Texas in 1949, and since has been employed for one year at a Dallas newspaper and for a period of 18 months with the Associated Press.

Cindermen To Compete In Southwest Track Go

by Numan Bartley

With two weeks rest under their belts, Track Coach Joe Taylor's East Texas State sprinters will venture to Lafayette, La., tomorrow to partake in the Southwest Relays.

Big threat in the Lion attack is expected to be Chuck Holding, high jump artist who has won consistently all season. Last week Holding successfully defended his high jump title at the Texas Relays with a winning leap of 6-feet, 6-inches. The janky Lion was the only East Texan to participate in the meet.

Kemp Sets Record

Another bright spot for the Commerce lads is freshman shot put ace Larry Kemp. At the Border Olympics a few weeks ago, Kemp set a new East Texas record by tossing the shot 46-feet, 1-8 inch.

Taylor is hoping that the return of Mike Mercado, who has been out most of the year with a pulled muscle, will bolster the Lion's cinder performances.

Prior to his entrance into the armed service, Mercado won conference championships in the 440 and 880 yard runs and anchored more winning relay teams than any other East Texas trackman.

Corder Tosses Discus

Discus chucking chores will be handled by Lloyd Corder and "Rusty" Russell.

In the javelin throw, Taylor plans to enter Holding and Kenneth Fox.

On the cinder paths the Lions will have "George" Riley, Jerry Cook, Gene Murty, Pual Valle, Herman Musser, Jack McVay, James Bennett, Don Yates and H. O. Hoover.

Dr. Mackenzie Serves

Dr. M. M. Mackenzie will serve as the co-ordinator of a general faculty meeting which will be held Tuesday, April 21. Program of this meeting will be in charge of the Public Relations committee.

Acce Annex College Intramural Basketball

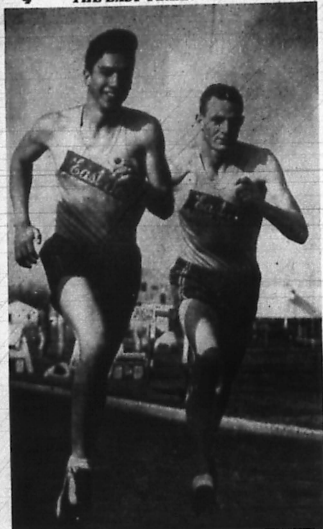

With a scoring spree that topped the season intramural record the independent Aces trampled the club champion Artemas 82 to 53 to annex the college championship 1 intramural basketball.

Edwrd Boatman looped 24 counters to pace the Aces while Leroy Harry tallied 13 markers to lead the Artemas.

Other teams and the order in which they finished the season were Warhawk, Rebels, Dorn 1 and Artemas Travelers.

Club teams include Tejas, Cavalier, Friars, Paragons, and Ogden.

Intramural softball is scheduled to begin in the next few days.

TWO OF THE TOP MEN in East Texas State's relay teams are Pascual Valle and Herman Musser. Both lads will participate in the Southwestern Relays at Lafayette, La., tomorrow. Besides running in relay events, Valle will compete in the distance runs.

Magazine Accepts Story by Dick King

Straight, a boy's magazine, has accepted an article by C. Richard King, journalism instructor. "How the States Got Their Names" is the title of the article and concerns the number of states which use Indian names or names of famous people. "Only one state has the name of a president," states King.

Straight is published in Cincinnati, Ohio.

District Meet Held

District BAA track meet and tennis tournament will be held here tomorrow.

Teams competing include Sherman, Denison, Gainville, Greenville and Paris.

Mrs. Stephens Is Paris High Guest

Mrs. Shelby Stephens, head department of home economics served as homemaking consultant at the Paris high school career conference held Thursday.

Mrs. Stephens assisted Mrs. Perry Booth, school counselor and former director of Student Union building, in the annual conference.

"There were more than 50 girls who were interested in homemaking from a non-professional point of view," stated Mrs. Stephens.

Historical Program

National Broadcasting Company and WFAA, are presenting a nation wide program entitled "Jefferson Heritage". This program which stars Claude Rains as Thomas Jefferson is presented to acquaint people with History of the United States.

Sunset, Garland Capture Crown At Lion Relays

More than 900 trackmen from 59 different high schools took part in the East Texas Relays here Saturday, making this the largest high school meet on the Southwest if not the entire nation.

The new records were set, two of them by Eddie Southern of Dallas Sunset in the 220-yard dash and the low hurdles. Other record breakers were Donald Poryzth of Lindale in the mile; R. Crow, Ft. Worth Paschal, shot-put; Polen, North Dallas, pole vault; Gammage, Gladewater, discus; Ronny White, Arlington Heights, broad jump; T. Keley, Dallas Woodrow Wilson, high jump; Arlington Heights, 440-yard relay, and Woodrow Wilson, mile relay.

Of the 27 teams entered in Class AA, 17 had a share in the scoring.

Sunset was the winner with 36 1-3 points, followed by Woodrow Wilson with 23 1-3 and Arlington Heights with 20 1-5.

Garland nosed out Terrell on the mile relay, final event of the program, to win 32 1-2 to 28 1-2. Ennis and Minors trailed with 13 and 10 points.

Lion Boxers Take State AAU Crown

Cosch Cecil Pirkey's East Texas State pugilists ran roughed through the Texas AAU tournament finals in Dallas Monday, to top four spots on the five man team that will represent this state in the national AAU meet in Boston, Mass., Friday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Arthur Tidwell, 116-pound featherweight, decisioned Jackie Blair, also of E. T., to win the bantamweight title.

Dean Swan, a 132-pound paleo-elite high school fighter boxed under E. T. banners, took the lightweight championship with a technical knockout over Ken Contreras.

Ken Pennell, 154, TKO'd George Carter for the light middleweight crown.

Bryant Clark, 171, grabbed the fly heavyweight title by knocking out Charles Hart.

Pirkey entered only five fighters and four won championships. Blair, the only Lion not winning, was beaten by an East Texan.

Science Club Hears Talk on Embryology

Embryology of fish was the topic discussed at the April 7 meeting of Science club. Speaker was Elton Stubblefield, Denton high school student, who also discussed his own experiments with cancer in fish.

Stubblefield won a state award in 1951 for his work in embryology and a national award for his experiments with cancer in fish.

Science club members voted to sponsor the cancer drive on the campus.

Binnin, Marpeesas Win Intramural Titles In Volleyball Tourney

Women's intramural volleyball competition ended this week with Binnin Hall being crowned in the Independent league and Marpeesas coming victorious in the Club chase.

In the independent circuit, East dormitory finished second with town a close third.

Club competition found Les Choates in second place and the Tioanosome and Caramasas in third and fourth spots.

Netters Lose Two

Coach Perry Brom's East Texas State tennis charges found rough sailing this week as the Lions bowed to Texas Christian university and Austin college by identical 5 to 0 scores.

Slumber Party Planned

Saturday, April 18, has been set as the date for a slumber party held by the Town Womens club girls. This party will be held in the SUB and all Dorn women as well as town women are invited to attend the party.

Tuesday Deadline Set for Political Candidate Filing

Men and women may file for student council offices and cheerleaders in the office of Dean of Men or Women through 5 p.m., Tuesday, April 14.

For a student to have his name placed on the ballot, a candidate must pay a fee of $1 when filing for the office of student council president, $50 for the vice president position and 25c to run for cheerleader.

To be eligible for the elected council posts, one must be a junior or senior in classification, hold a 1.0 grade point average at the time he signs up for one of the positions. Must have attended East Texas State at least two long semesters.

Each candidate must pass an examination covering content of the constitution. This test will be given prior to the student's filing for candidacy. Required by the constitution is that the candidate be in good standing with the administration.

At press time only one student had applied for a position: Sue Taylor of Overton has made application for cheerleader.

Sports Talk

By Joe Milner

ADDITIONAL sports fans will be accomplished by East Texas State athletics next week when four members of the East Texas State boxing team will appear in the National AAU Boxing tournament at Boston, Mass.

With the exception of the West, this will give E.T. athletes a successful tour which geographically speaking spread across the United States.

The football team started the whole thing when they were invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl at Orlando, Fla. They responded with a 33-0 victory over Tennessee Tech before a crowd of 10,000 plus.

Sports headlines were made in the middle west by the basketball team, which represented this area in the National Intercollegiate Championship Basketball tournament at Kansas City, Mo., in March. Again, the Lions were a favorite, showing as they captured fourth place.

Now, the boxing team, which won the state AAU title, has a chance to carry the colors of East Texas to the far eastern states.

MEMBERS of the team which leaves Dallas by plane Friday night are Bryant Clark, light-heavyweight; Arthur Tidwell, bantamweight; Kenneth (Nig) Pennell, light-middleweight, and Dean Swan, a lightweight from Palestine High school, who has been representing the East Texas State colors.

GOLF has been tentatively added to the East Texas spring sports.

Although E.T. has no scholarships for golf as do many schools, the Lions will attempt to field a team to compete in the Lone Star conference meet next month.

Approximately eight linksmen are playing practice rounds daily at the Greenville Country Club in order to be ready for the conference meet.

The team, which was organized through the efforts of Jess Hawthorne, physical education instructor, will not play any matches with other schools. All competition prior to the conference meet will be limited to intra-squad matches.

Oden, Jones Engaged, Rites To Be May 23

Announcement of engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Frances Verlin, to Dr. John Webb Jones has been made by Mrs. Allen Downs Oden of New Orleans, La.

The wedding will be 7:30 p.m. May 23 at the First Baptist church in New Orleans, with Dr. J. D. Gray officiating.

Miss Oden attended Newcomb college at New Orleans, where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Dr. Jones is head of the agricultural education department, Science and Master of Arts degrees from Sam Houston State college and his Doctor of Philosophy from Louisiana State University. During World War II he served four years with the United States Navy as an enlisted man and as an officer.

Before coming to East Texas State Dr. Jones was professor and head of the agricultural education department at Arkansas State college.

Ann Calvert, John White Wed Sat.

In Quiet Simplicity at McKinney

Quiet simplicity marked the pre-Easter wedding of Ann Calvert and John Davis White Saturday evening.

The Reverend D. Myers directed the couple in vows repeated at First Baptist church in McKinney. Only members of the immediate families were present.

Black and pink accessories highlighted the bride's wedding suit of pink linen. Her sister, Hope, served as maid of honor. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Calvert of Mt. Pleasant, Mrs. White is a member of Marjessa social club for women. She is a junior major in speech and is a student employee in the speech department.

White is the son of Mrs. John D. Davis of McKinney and is also a junior student. He has a major in physical education and is a member of the T association. The couple will make his home in O. I. village and continue studies at East Texas State.

Candler, Davenport Wed on April 3

Peggy Ann Davenport, daughter of Mrs. F. L. Romike of Robstown, and Gus Candler, a freshman student, and son of Mrs. Mattie S. Candler of Arcadia, La., were united in formal wedding rites last Friday evening.

The Reverend Patrick Armstrong directed the couple in repeating vows at the First Methodist church in Robstown. Albert D. Davenport of Robstown gave away his sister. Elmer Candler of Greenville served his brother as best man.

Mrs. Candler is a graduate of Southwestern university at Georgetown and is presently employed in the Forney school system.

After a short honeymoon the couple will live in Commerce.

Ronnie Rabb spent Easter vacation in New Orleans, La.

E.T. Coed Writes Pen Pal in England

A state meeting of Future Homemakers of America resulted in a new hobby for Frances Griffin, business administration major of Commerce.

"When I was a high school sophomore, I attended a state FHA meeting in Denton," relates Miss Griffin. "I met a girl who had a pen pal in England, and she asked me if I would like to write an English girl also. I said yes and have been writing to Marian Stevens ever since."

Gets Letters Often

Miss Griffin usually receives one letter each month from her pen pal. "My letters reach her in about two weeks," comments the blue-eyed blonde, "but it takes longer to receive a letter from her."

"Marian's letters are interesting and humorous; she is always prompt about answering," says Miss Griffin.

Letters are not the only things the senior receives from her English friend. Miss Stevens also sends scrapbooks, pictures, handkerchiefs, stationery and other articles.

Greetings By Mail

"Every holiday I get a greeting card from her," remarked the business student. "Christmas I received a card which was much different from ours. Instead of having a Christmas scene on it, this card had a picture of Princess Margaret."

Looking in the future, Miss Griffin says, "I have always wanted to travel, especially to England and France. If I am ever in England I hope to visit Marian."

Ogima Annual Held March 28

Decorations reflected the Easter theme selected for Ogima annual, which preceded the spring holidays.

Ivy and white lilies, symbol of the season, were used as floral accents. The garden effect was carried out in a miniature foot bridge over a stream of water which guests crossed in entering the dance floor in Student Union building. The affair was held Saturday March 28.

Replica of a huge mother bunny and her brood of eight tiny ones was focal point of interest. Live bunnies played in a simulated garden surrounded by a white picket fence.

Members, dates, eggs and invited guests attended.
