HOW LONG GRAUVENTH!

With less than sixteen years having elapsed since the outbreak of hostilities of the war... the common is confronted with a situation which it apparently without parallel.

To those who have is beneficial point on the dangers besetting their country on every hand; the military risks for bigger armies, navies, and air forces; and youth is conditioned in countless ways to be led willingly to the front.

SENIORS ... 1934

Every summer a large class of graduates carry the banner of East Texas State Teachers College all over the state... as they go to their various homes and to their various careers.

To you, Seniors, Summer 1934, the East Texas offers congratulations. May you always remember your school days, and may you enjoy your work when you leave Commerce, even though your undertakings are in only a momentary way.

May you sincerely work to advance in your chosen field. May you be of service to others. Only when one comes to graduation does he feel the truth of his obligation to his fellow men.

ALBERT DENNY

As it is only fitting for the President of the Summer Session class to enjoy a certain amount of honor, the East Texas wishes to express itself as the mirror of campus sentiment and speak in appreciation of Albert Denny.

"But," as it is affecting to know, has taken part in varied activities during his college career, and has gained a background of friendships and knowledge that make life worthwhile.

This summer the Seniors have honored him with the Presidency of the class. Those who have known him for many years already know him as a real "good fellow."
