The Training of Texas Teachers Has Kept Pace With The Growth Of Education In All Its Phases

State Normal Did Not Halt Its Higher Than High Schools

GROWTH FROM NEED

The Future Holds a Challenge To The State Normal in the Training of Teachers. By A. W. BIRDWELL. Fifty years ago it might be generally accepted that the normal schools were the only source of teachers for the state. Today, however, the normal schools are no longer the only source of teachers for the state. The normal schools are no longer the only source of teachers for the state.

However, it should be remembered that during the last quarter of the nineteenth century the difference between the normal schools and the other schools was not so great as it is today. The normal schools were the only source of teachers for the state.

Center	C. Ehrbridge	Commerce

Halfback	McDonald	Huntsville
Halfback	Stevens	Commerce
Fullback	Little	Commerce

Coaches: De Rollins, Siki Nicks

SECOND TEAM

Position	Name	School
Left End	LeFkowitz	Huntsville
Left Tackle	Nichols	Denton
Left Guard	Shepherd	Denton
Center	Knowles	Denton
Right Guard	Wright	San Marcos
Right Tackle	Nicks	Commerce
Right End	Cules	Commerce
Quarterback	Cox	Denton
Halfback	Martin	Commerce
Halfback	Stovall	Denton
Fullback	Anderson	Huntsville

HONORABLE MENTION: Holzheuser, Huntsville; Yarbrough, Denton; Jowers, San Marcos; Scheppe, San Marcos; Mills, Nacogdoches; Zunker, San Marcos.

Right Ends, one Back, one Tackle, one Quarterback, which amounts to an awful mess, nevertheless from a team that has every one of the latest and best football machines. In fact, even Lions might do some trick, but the odds are against it. The East-Texan Conference players who were unfortunate enough not to be on the first team have Teachers' children. They merit those players' berth on the Lone Star conference. Most of the best players in the conference, however, proved to be one of the best in the league. In fact, the conference in its season's work. Although his seasonal work against Commerce was better than he is limited as other conference titles, he developed a good brand of football in every contest. At San Marcos, Gerner developed into a crack-halfback. In one of the most valuable performers in the loop, he had a wonderful pass, punter, blocker, and ball-carrier. The eight Lion players are on the team simply because they were not outstanding during the season.

Backs. Two left ends are given the wild position, which may cause a lot of trouble, but really doesn't. Any player who can star at left-end, where a shover of blocking is most completely applied, can certainly shine at the right end of the line. A left end run around the corner right end has always been a weak and difficult football play. Boaz and Wright are both average, although playing different types of game. Boaz crashes in on the pile while Wright gets in and usually plays the ball-carrier down (but not so gently). They both have developed opponents for teams consistently all year. They are excellent pass receivers, and good blockers. Wright certainly is something at blocking.

Tackles. There were three outstanding tacklers in the conference this year. Matthews, Earl Thomas, and Gerner, of San Marcos, whom you'd have probably recognized as the best tackle that would have been in the list had he not been lured from action because of injuries. The first call goes to Matthews and Gerner, powerful defensive and offensive players.

Quarterback. Matthews and Coffey, of the Lone Star team, are probably the best probably in the history of the conference. They are both tall, good blockers, and establish themselves as stars. They formed the nucleus of the non-dominant team in the conference this year. Their pass reception was from Gerner, Matthews. The playing of Matthews and Coffey will prove to be an asset at all points on a Lone Star team.

Coaches. The Lone Star coaching staff, as a whole, is one of the best in the conference.

Former Etex Student Given State Position

Watts Hill appointed Assistant Attorney General by William McCreary to Promote Oil Cases.

The Sunday papers of this state will carry the announcement of the appointment of Watts Hill, former East Texas State Teachers College student, as Assistant Attorney General effective February 1, 1935. The major portion of his activities will be to "put oil" cases in the pipeline.

Hill is County Attorney of Tipton County, being a graduate of the law and was the recipient of this appointment by Attorney General-elect William McCreary because of the outstanding record in his Tipton work.

ARIZ. OIL. Nov. 19. (U.S.A.) After a meeting yesterday afternoon with a group of prominent business men, Fred D. Smith, 27, explained here this work by saying he claimed this was his first all-American job start as a "young man."

Following his arrival police said they found more than $1,000 worth of clothing, watches, trawlers, jewelry and money in his baggage and in the above party which he reportedly is the hand who abducts "The lonely man" wherever a victim awakes during the course of a robbery.
